E. E. Kenyon, wife and son, were in Coquille overnight Monday, being on their way to Bendon for an outing. Their home is in Ashland but they are looking around for a ranch in the Coquille valley.

Mrs. Eula Perrott's six-piece orchestra has been engaged to play for the three dances to be given at the Oaks Pavilion at Myrtle Point during fair week. The dances are thereby assured of good music.

It is reported that Adrian Bennett, special writer on the Oregonian, is to come down here for his vacation, and will write up road conditions in the county, as well as special articles for each of the five larger towns.

Local News

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barton and children, and his mother, Mrs. E. V. B. Nichols, came in from Woodburn last Friday. Mr. Barton had spent a couple of months in eastern Oregon and Mrs. Barton joined him there weeks ago. Mrs. Nichols will visit here for some time.

Fred A. Williams, chairman of the public service commission, was in Coquille for a short time Tuesday. He was on his way to Beasport in Curry county, where he was to conduct a hearing regarding an overhead crossing for the railroad the O. & C. Lumber Co. is constructing there.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. M. McIlvurray and daughter, of Eugene, were Coquille visitors Monday evening, coming in for the Metal Day celebration at Myrtle Point Wednesday. Mrs. McIlvurray was two years ago Worky Grand Matron of the Eastern Star in Oregon and has many friends in Coquille.

Mrs. Ray King is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Amos Mayers, a brother, Walter Mayers, and two sisters, Elsie Grace and Margaret Mayers, and an aunt, Mrs. Ida Gorin. The Mayers live in Bogal, Wash., and Mrs. Gorin in Port Angeles, Wash. They came in by auto last Friday.

E. O. Faustman, who had his arm mangled between the rolls of the Coquille Lumber Mills last Friday morning, is getting along as well as could be expected. Fortunately the valve was not mangled and the circulation in his arm and hand is improving, so there is practically no danger that he will lose the arm.

County School Superintendent McKinley has called a meeting of the school clerks of all the districts in the county to be held in Coquille Saturday, Sept. 3d. The object of the meeting is to devise the best means for handling school district accounts and funds, and then have the clerks all follow the plan adopted.

Owen E. Knowlton has resigned his position with T. C. Hudson at Knowlton's Drug Store, and went Monday instead leaving in his suit for San Francisco. His plans are not sufficiently developed that he can tell what he intends doing, but he expects to spend a year or so at outside work, until he recovers his health.

There was quite a heavy shower here about 10:30 Wednesday evening and again this morning between six and seven there was a considerable sprinkle. The weather has been insisting rain for the past two weeks and it is probable the dry season will soon close. There has been more warm weather the past month than is usual in August, but fall is here now and we may expect rain at any time.

W. G. M. Visits Boulah Chapter

Mrs. Minnie C. Lotson, worthy grand matron of the Eastern Star of Oregon, paid her official visit to Boulah Chapter, No. 5, last Monday evening. A large attendance was present for the evening, which started with a luncheon at seven o'clock and closed with light refreshments about midnight. The visit of the worthy grand matron was greatly enjoyed by the members and visitors who found her to be a very charming and able woman.

Ball Players Entertained

Chas. Baxter entertained the ball team with a spread at seven o'clock Wednesday evening at the hotel, to which the boys did full justice. It was some feed, too, and worthy of the popular host of the Baxter Hotel. Those who participated were Wm. Howell, Arthur Berg, Claude Booth, Chas. Baxter, Earl Leslie, Phil Ringle, Happy Smith, Harry Oerding, E. J. Page, Roy Abbott, Frank Porter and Walter Oerding.

North Bend Visited Entertained

Mrs. Vincent Arrington, of North Bend, was hostess at a luncheon party given at "The Bogue," here yesterday afternoon to eight of her friends, who are members of the Democratic Art club. The special guests were Miss Gladys Larson and Mrs. L. G. Platt, of Marshfield, and Mrs. R. B. Hamilton, Mrs. Jeff Hartman, Mrs. Gail Brown, Mrs. Leslie Krieger, Mrs. C. C. Williams and Mrs. H. H. Taylor, of North Bend. The table decorations were done by Miss "The Bogue" is the name adopted for the confectionery owned by the two Mrs. Ross Bunches.

Preparing City's Budget

The finance committee and the city treasurer have been working on the city's budget the past two weeks, putting the items in shape to submit to the budget commission. As the list of estimated expenditures now stands it will be possible for the city to purchase the fire truck, which the council has been considering, and still levy an assessment which will raise no more money than was raised for this year—$10,110.

Visitors Leave for California

Dr. J. Tracy Melvin, Mrs. Melvin, Dorothy and Jack Melvin left for Porterville, California, last week. They were accompanied by Miss Helen Pennington, daughter of Rev. A. B. Pennington. Miss Pennington will stop at San Francisco, where she will enter Hospital training.

Dr. Melvin is the father of Mrs. Pennington whom the family has been visiting for the past ten days.

W. H. Bunch to Speak

W. H. Bunch, former County School Superintendent, will speak at the Seventh Day Adventist Church in this city, Sabbath, Sept. 30, at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m., on the latest developments in "The Turkish Empire," as related to other nations, from a Bible standpoint. Everyone is cordially invited to these services.

Will Print 3,000 Copies

The Sentinel office has in press a 3,000 issue of a booklet by E. A. Easton, of the East Fork, entitled, "Lashan." It is a 40-page volume, full of splendid thoughts, which Mr. Easton says he "wrote for the fun of the job." It is his intention to have it on sale at bookstores in Oregon.

Fined for Minor Violations

Two automobile cases were before Justice J. J. Stanley this week. E. P. Sprague pled guilty last Monday to running a car after dark without lights, and Geo. W. Bryant also pled guilty to operating an automobile without a speedometer. Both were fined $5 and costs.

Stock Ranch for Sale or Trade

($700 and long terms will handle it) Five miles from Coquille, 1 1/2 miles from paved highway. A real bargain. 150 Acres, 25 acres rich river bottom land, (very little of bottom cleared), balance good bench and hill land seeded for range; also can have use of several hundred acres free range adjoining the place, 80 acres of which is fenced. Small shack and splendid springs of water on the place, fronts on the Coquille River. This will make a fine home some day. Price, $6500.00 (considerably less if coal rights are reserved.) $700.00 cash, balance easy terms; would accept house in town as part payment. Act quick and get name of owner from J. L. Smith, Coquille, Ore.

E. O. Kirk Ranch Sold

Yesterday J. L. Briscoe, who with his family comes here from Porterville, California, purchased the 124 acre farm of E. O. Kirk, one and a half miles this side of Myrtle Point for $16,000. The purchase includes the stock, machinery and crops on the place. The sale was made by J. L. Smith. Mr. Kirk is moving off the place at once and wanted to come to Coquille to live but inability to find a house caused him to go over to North Bend where he found one. Real Estate men say that they have dozens of calls for rented houses which they are unable to accommodate.

J. T. Anderson Not Located

Nothing has been heard of Rev. J. T. Anderson, the minister whose disappearance has caused such a sensation of late, since he dropped out of sight at Portland week before last. All clues which might throw light on the mystery are being run down, but so far without avail. It seems positive, however, that Mr. Anderson has gone of his own volition, and the idea that he met with foul play is no longer considered.

College Ball Was Enjoyed

and party Wednesday evening was a fine success in every way, both from point of attendance and from point of enjoyment of the participants. Nearly one hundred and twenty-five people were present and the evening was spent in dancing and with cards. The lodge netted $34 for their treasury from the affair.
