

Took a Flying Leap

Tuesday afternoon, a car driven by the son of Editor Smith of the Myrtle Point American, ran off the grade near the Flanagan mine on the Coquille highway and landed twenty-five feet below upside down. Young Smith and a companion were thrown from the car and landed clear of it and were unhurt. Robert Marsden, who was coming from Coquille, saw the accident and says it was one of the most remarkable that he ever saw.—Times.

The date of the first publication of this summons is November 25th, 1921.

C. R. Barrow, Attorney for Plaintiff. 4517

titled Court and cause, in the office of the County Clerk of Coos County, Oregon, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, namely within six weeks from the 25th day of November, 1921, the same being the 6th day of January, 1922, and said 6th day of January, 1922, being the last day of the time prescribed in the order of publication of summons herein, for the defendant to answer the plaintiff's complaint, and if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said complaint, of which the following is a succinct statement, to-wit:

That the marriage contract now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be dissolved and held for naught, and that a decree of divorce be awarded to the plaintiff; That the plaintiff be adjudged and decreed such share of the defendant's real property as the law provides, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof for the period of six weeks successively, by virtue of an order of publication made by Hon. C. R. Barrow, County Judge of Coos County, Oregon, dated November 22nd, 1921.

The date of the first publication of this summons is November 25th, 1921.

C. R. Barrow, Attorney for Plaintiff. 4517
