Taken Over Old Mill

The Western White Cedar Company, which was recently incorporated, has taken over the old Myrtle Point mill and will use it to cut cedar logs. The new company will handle cedar lumber and logs and do a general cedar jobbing business. Those in the company are W. L. Forsythe, A. E. Adelsperger, W. J. Conrad, John D. Goss and R. K. Booth. The company will buy cedar and make up foreign cargoes and in this section will represent the Robert Butler Lumber Company of Portland, which will probably be a heavy buyer in this part of the state.—Times.
