

MINOR MENTION.

Telling About People and Events in the City and County

Attorney A. K. Peck, of Marshfield, was a Sentinel visitor Tuesday.

Second hand gas engines bought and sold at Gardner's Garage, Coquille.

Deputy Sheriff Malehorn was up at Myrtle Point and Powers yesterday serving papers.

Tanlac's world wide fame is due to its merit. It does the work. Fuhrman's Pharmacy.

E. E. Johnson went to Portland Monday on business, returning Wednesday morning.

Ralph K. Lee, of Portland, representing the Pacific Metal Works, was a caller Tuesday.

Vulcanizing and battery service at Graham's Garage.

Geo. N. Battey went out to Eugene Tuesday on business, expecting to be gone four or five days.

A. B. Campbell returned Wednesday from a state meeting of the Standard Oil agents at Portland.

K. C. Ages, deputy county clerk, was laid up at home yesterday and unable to be present at the court house.

J. L. Aasen went up to Portland Monday expecting to visit some of the Washington cities also on business before returning.

About four thousand of the Myrtle Creek Company's logs have been down by this week's rains and impounded in the Sitka boom.

Dr. G. W. Leslie, osteopathic physician, will be at Coquille Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, 1:45 to 4:00. Office over Robinson's store.

All kinds of Machine Work and Auto Repairing. Every job leaving the shop must be right or we will make it right. Gardner's Garage.

The Coquille American basket ball five goes over to Marshfield this evening to meet the American Legion team of that place at the Army.

Mary Pickford, America's Sweetheart, will be at the Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday in "POLLYANNA." See the program on page three.

Thousands of thin, frail men and women have reported an astonishing and rapid increase in weight as a result of taking Tanlac. Fuhrman's Pharmacy.

Orders for shrubbery and trees from the Washington Nursery will be received by W. G. Wright, at the Title Guarantee & Trust Co. office.

The $10,000 Fat Elk Drainage District bonds, advertised in the Sentinel recently, were all sold to local investors at par as soon as they were placed on the market.

Are you burdened, sad and weary? See Mary Pickford in her first big picture for United Artists, "POLLYANNA," at the Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Dr. W. H. Vose, specialist, will be at the Baxter Hotel on Wednesday, February 15th, prepared to treat diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat and fit and make glasses.

Don't forget L. O. O. M. social given by Women Legionaires of Mooseheart tonight at the lodge rooms. Entertainment and cats. Bring your friends. 10 and 25 cents.—Committee.

"POLLYANNA" with Mary Pickford, a picture that radiates gladness and sunshine will be at the Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday. See the program on page three.

"When I began taking Tanlac I only weighed 98 pounds, now weigh 125 pounds and never felt better in my life," says Mrs. Chas. Foden, of Huntsville, Ala. Fuhrman's Pharmacy.

Where you folks going Saturday night? To the Liberty to see that big show, home talent and the regular program, only 25c and 10c admission.

Spectacles and eye glasses quickly and skillfully repaired. Broken lenses duplicated. Optical repairs of all kinds done while you wait. Glasses fitted. By V. R. Wilson, "Optometrist," Coquille, Oregon.

Mrs. Chas. Harlocker was down from Myrtle Point the first of the week. She returned Tuesday afternoon, taking her daughter, Ann, who had spent several days with her grandmother here, home with her.

Geo. Washington Brown will give us a few little steps of his own Saturday night at the Liberty Theatre. It's sure some show. Admission 25c and 10c, including regular program.

WANTED TO RENT—a small ranch on a crop share arrangement. W. E. Nelson, Blodese Apartment, 411.

Do you think those kids will be able to give us real entertainment Saturday night. Well, it's their first appearance but you never can tell. Better be there. Liberty Theatre. Prices 25c and 10c, including regular program.

Acetylene welding, blasing and machine work at Graham's Garage.

Mrs. E. H. Harnden, of Fat Elk, was a guest at the H. W. Young home the first of the week. She came to attend the "500" party given that evening by Miss Marian Young and the Woman's Relief Corps dinner Tuesday noon.

If your life seems dark and dreary see Mary Pickford as the glad girl in "POLLYANNA" at the Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday.

It is reported that A. H. Powers will sell his Marshfield home to Mrs. Carl Snedberry to be converted into a private sanitarium. The reason he gives for selling is that the house is too big for the present size of his family.

Mary Pickford, America's Sweetheart, will be at the Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday. See the program on page three.

Auto repairing a specialty at Graham's Garage. Satisfaction guaranteed.

The Community Sale that J. L. Smith is preparing for Saturday of next week, February 18, promises to be a big event with many interesting features, some of which are elsewhere listed. If there is anything you want to sell then, don't fail to list it at once.

No waiting for your hemstitching when taken to Bonnie Walker's Millinery Store. Service and neat work is our motto. Let us convince you.

A. B. Dean, who lives out north of the Masonic cemetery, has sold six acres of the place there that he has been advertising in the Sentinel, to W. E. Conrad. The price paid is $1800. Mr. Conrad will move there at once and improve the residence on the place, which has a fine orchard.

Two dollars and fifteen cents will secure the weekly visits of the Sentinel and the Oregon Farmer for one year. Both papers will interest you.

The Woman's Relief Corps gave a dinner at the Woodman Hall Wednesday and had as their guests four members of McPherson Post G. A. R., Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Smith of the Presbyterian church, Mrs. J. P. Beyers and Mrs. Breuer, who was also initiated into the order on that day.

Hemstitching by Anna Morrison. Straight work, 10c; other work, 12½¢ a yard, thread furnished. Prompt attention given to Mail Orders. Machine in Robinson's Store.

Deputy Game Warden Arthur M. Fish was in town yesterday, after spending a week up in the Mapleton district, where he secured conviction in three cases. Two were fish cases and the third was that of a sawmill management which was running sawdust into a stream. All pleaded guilty.

Some real home talent Saturday night at the Liberty. Seven boy minstrels—gloom-killers—come and see them put it over. Prices 25c and 10c including regular program.

Ben McMullen, who has been a resident of Roseburg for the last two years, during which he has been employed on the Douglas county timber cruise, passed through today en route to Myrtle Point. He did not get the contract for cruising this year and is figuring on moving his family to his ranch near Bridge.—Times.

Money to Loan on City Property. No Commissions. W. G. Wright, 36½c. Watch work—the right kind—"the honest to goodness" kind, by V. R. Wilson, Watchmaker, Coquille, Ore.

E. O. Faustman returned yesterday afternoon from Shepherd's Springs, where he went three weeks ago to boil out his rheumatism. He is feeling and looking much better and while still a little weak has the rheumatism pretty well out of his system. Mrs. Faustman, who went up to Eugene a week ago for a visit, returned with him.

Hear Rattling Bones at the Liberty Theatre Saturday night. Some show. Better be there. Admission 25c and 10c including regular program.

J. D. Carl, of Arago, who was in town Tuesday, reports that his eldest son, Kenneth, was able to return home Monday from the Pemberton hospital at Myrtle Point, where his foot was amputated just above the ankle joint Dec. 30. He stepped on a rusty nail Nov. 30 and that caused bone infection resulting in the loss of his foot. He is now improving very satisfactorily.

WORK WANTED—Man with family wants steady work, with place for family and garden spot. Ranch preferred. W. E. Nelson, Blodese Apartment, 411.

See the Liberty Theatre program on page three.

School Notes

F. J. Stetson, professor of Education at the State University, is to speak at the high school this afternoon.

At a meeting of the local teachers' association at the grade building last night, Superintendent Parr made a report of the proceedings of the state teachers' association meeting during the holidays, giving special attention to the addresses of David Starr Jordan, of Chicago University, and Dr. Burton, of Michigan University.

The Women's Educational committee, of Coquille, consisting of Mrs. Selby, Mrs. Chaney and Mrs. Turner visited the grade building one day this week.

If your life seems dark and dreary see Mary Pickford as the glad girl in "POLLYANNA" at the Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Bowling Notes

Next Monday night Duff Dunham and Ray Long bowl Hugh Harlocker and H. H. Oerding for city championship. Harlocker and Oerding are holders of the honor.

Lou Hazard and Merle Hartson both claiming to be the best bowler in town, rolled 25 games for best average. Lou average 122 and Hartson, 116.

Bill Hull has discontinued using the "Zerolens Ball."

Ira Johnson and Bill Hull are out to bowl the best in town. Bill has an average of 186 for 25 games, Ira 194. Whoever takes on these fellows will have their hands full.

Are you burdened, sad and weary? See Mary Pickford in her first big picture for United Artists, "POLLYANNA" at the Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Tyrrell Going to China

Merton Tyrrell, who formerly resided in Coquille and is a graduate of the local high school, has been with the Robert Dollar company at San Francisco since the close of the war and his release from the navy. When E. E. Johnson was in San Francisco recently Merton was just being transferred to the Shanghai, China, office of the company, with a position as department head in sight as a reward for faithful service.

Valentine Card Party

The Eastern Star will give a Valentine card party next Tuesday evening, February 14, in Odd Fellows hall. "Hearts" will be the play of the evening and 25 cents will be charged for score cards. Light refreshments will be served. The public is cordially invited to attend and enjoy a pleasant social evening.

"POLLYANNA" with Mary Pickford, a picture that radiates gladness and sunshine will be at the Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday. See the program on page three.

Periodic Eye Examinations

Just as it is necessary for school children to be examined, so every individual between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-nine should have the ocular state ascertained, as was done in the case of the army drafters. See BIRCH and See Better. Optometrist, Marshfield.

The Daily and Sunday Oregonian at $5 for nine months and better is an attractive offer. At the regular rate nine months would cost $6.

Notice to All Farmers

I wish to announce that I have for sale, seed of the new "Oderbrucker" barley, a pedigreed strain of six row barley, selected and bred by the University of Wisconsin, that is considered the earliest maturing and most prolific of all barleys, having extra heavy foliage, and owing to its high protein contents, is a very superior feeding sort.

Yields from 90 to 120 bu. per acre and can be cut for threshing purposes within 90 days after sowing.

Persons wishing any of this seed, please notify me by mail or telephone and your orders will be promptly attended to.

The present price is $45.00 per ton, F. O. B., boat.

Alton R. Kay, Riverton, Ore.

Say is that Minstrel show at the Liberty Saturday night really home talent? I should say it is and they are real gloom killers, you better see it. Regular program included. Prices 25c and 10c.

Hemstitching done while you wait. Compare work with others. Satisfy your own curiosity. All work guaranteed. Prices 10 and 12 1/2 cents per yard. Mrs. Maybelle Ford's Millinery.

If you want to subscribe for a Portland daily you can get better rates by taking it in connection with the Sentinel. This applies to the Oregonian, Journal and Telegram.

Community Public Sale

Coquille Sat. Feb. 18

Starting 10:30 a. m.
Rogers' Barn

11 good milk cows with testing association records, some fresh now and others coming in soon.

A few 2-year old and yearling heifers.

1 yearling Registered Jersey bull from St. Mawes Cinco, Register of Merit record of over 500 lbs. fat as a 2-yr. old, and sired by Golden Glow's Chief of Halsey.

1 yearling registered Jersey bull, sired by a son of Rinda Lad, full brother of Lad's Lady Ann, the dam of the world's Champion senior yearling with record of 829 lbs. fat in 1 year.

1 young purebred Jersey bull calf from Register of Merit cow. (See pedigree at sale.)

1 mature registered Jersey bull, grand son of Rosaire's Olga Lad, (Gold Medal bull).

Farm team, harness and wagon.

3 Heavy farm horses.

1 Brood sow, due to farrow before sale day.

7 Shoats, (about 100 lbs. each).

6 Shoats, (about 50 lbs. each).

8 Young Pigs.

1 set double buggy harness.

1 Saddle.

1 Cream Separator.

1 Mower.

1 Disk Harrow.

1 Single buggy and harness.

1 extra wagon bed.

Household furniture, etc.

Some early seed potatoes.

Two or three dozen hens.

There will probably be many more things brought in by the day of the sale.

Please list your stuff at once or bring it with you when you come to the sale.

Don't forget the date, Saturday, Feb. 18, Coquille.

Colonel Nick Johnson, Auctioneer.

J. L. Smith, Sale Manager.

Harnessing and Hitching Contest

The merchants of Coquille are offering for the sale J. L. Smith is to hold here Saturday of next week prizes for the person, who will hitch up his team in the quickest time, using a full set of harness with butt breeching.

Saddling and Mounting Contest

The merchants are also offering prizes to the person (male or female) who will saddle and mount a horse in the shortest time, using ordinary cinch.

Specials Offered by Merchants

The following are a few of the special bargains that Coquille merchants will offer in connection with this public sale on Saturday, Feb. 18:

The Variety Shop—Extra heavy, re-finished, double-seamed Dairy Pails, 14 qt. at 55c each.

Henry Lorens—25 per cent discount on any suit or overcoat.

M. J. Hartson—20 per cent discount on any rug in the store. New stock to select from.

Hudson's Drug Store—Discount on all stock foods carried.

Noel's Grocery—Canned Milk—Alpine, Carnation, Libby's and Borden's—$5.10 a case or 11 cents a can.

There are many other merchants who expect to make special offers for next Saturday but who could not announce them this week.

Coquille Kid Minstrels

Saturday Night at the Liberty

There is going to be a minstrel show at the Liberty Theatre Saturday night composed of home talent. There are seven young men in the show and they have been putting forth strenuous efforts to make it a success and are all ready to go.

They will have some good jokes, good singing and some real good dancing and will try and have something doing every minute.

They decided on having seven in the show believing that seven was a lucky number especially to a lot of colored men and as this is their first appearance before the public let's hope they have success.

The price of general admission will be the same as always, 25c and 10c, including the regular program.

CHADWICK LODGE

No. 68 A. F. & A. M.

Stated Communication

Saturday, Feb. 11

For Sale

A few Barred Rock cockerels, O. A. C. strain, $3.50 each. Mrs. V. Huntley, Myrtle Point, Oregon. 312.

The Sentinel and the Oregon Farmer can still be obtained for $2.15 for one year.

Candies

Surprise her on St. Valentine's day with a pound or more of our delicious Chocolates or Bon Bons, packed in an attractive box. You are sure to please her if you do.

Our stock contains many other Valentine Suggestions that will delight your lady fair.

We also have a full assortment of new and attractive Valentines and Cards.

Hudson's Drug Store

Coquille, Oregon

Buggies, Strollers and Sulkies

For the Babies

When baby needs a buggy come in and see our line of the famous Lloyd buggy, the one that gives your baby ease and comfort

Prices from $16.50 to $38.50

GOULD & GOULD The Stove Store

AVOID CATARACTS

Early tendency toward the development of cataract may occur between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-nine. Defective vision, when corrected, lessens this tendency.

See BIRCH and See Better

Optometrist, Marshfield
Come where you get the most scientific eye examination, the best fitting and up-to-date glasses.

Winchester Chisel

Made from a solid piece of crucible steel from tip of blade through the socket.

Hickory handles, leather capped, assortment of patterns and blade widths.

Coquille Hardware Co.

THE WINCHESTER STORE