It Had Lowest Bid

The Warren Construction company made the lower bid for the rock surfacing of the 34.3 miles of highway from Myrtle Point to Camas Valley at Portland Saturday, its figure being $209,940. The only other bid was that of A. D. Kerr for $218,310. The bids were referred to the engineer.

Contract Not Yet Let

Mayor Hamilton and all six councilmen responded to roll call at the regular session of city dads last Monday evening, at which time the bids for the improvement of the streets on Sherwood Heights were opened. There were three bidders—A. B. Gidley, of Marshfield; Peart Bros. and Carl Ensele, of Coquille.

Mr. Ensele's offer was the only one of the three which complied with the specifications in naming a lump sum bid, and he appeared to be slightly lower in his estimate for the entire job, but in order that the city engineer might have time to check up all three and positively determine which was the lowest and best bid, the letting of the contract was laid over until the next regular meeting.

The application of the Coquille Red & Gun Club for permission to maintain a shooting ground for target practice on the Peter Johnson place, in the northwest part of the city, was granted, after the members of the council had convinced themselves that there would be no danger to life or property from permitting the shoots to be held there.

The bill for $100 presented by Sam Wheatstone for laying out the body of the late Frank Berry, disinfecting his house and taking charge of the property, was laid on the table.

It was voted to authorize the city recorder to issue a warrant to the Church of Redeemed Israel for $314.70, the amount for which the "Little Church" sold above the city's claim for street improvement assessment.

Upon motion the office of city health officer was declared vacant and was thereupon filled by another motion from the council that Dr. V. L. Hamilton be appointed.

Two weeks previous the council had requested the city attorney to give an opinion on the legality of the bill rendered by Dr. Jas. Richmond for $330, three years' service as city health officer. The following is the gist of Mr. Stanley's report as rendered to the council Monday evening.

Dr. Richmond was appointed health officer Jan. 6, 1919, by Mayor E. E. Johnson, and he served until Jan. 3, 1921, when he was reappointed by Mayor V. L. Hamilton, and has served in that capacity up to Monday, April 17, 1922.

In 1919 the state legislature passed a law providing that the city health officer should receive a salary of not less than $10 per month, which law became effective in May of that year. March 1, 1920, the city council enacted an ordinance complying with the state statute regarding the salary of city health officers and it is Mr. Stanley's opinion that Dr. Richmond is entitled to a compensation of $10 per month from June 1, 1919, to the present time, a period of 33 months, or $330. He has received $30 in that time, leaving a balance due him of $300.

The council took no action on the report or any further action on the claim other than that of two weeks ago when it was laid on the table.

In the same report Mr. Stanley finds from the city records that Drs. G. E. Low and V. L. Hamilton and C. E. Barrow comprise the Board of Health for the city.

Loses Many Hogs

Gus Peterson, who owns a ranch on the lower end of the bay near the old life saving station, suffered a severe loss among the hogs that keeps there. Forty-five or more of the hogs sickened and died quite suddenly before it could be ascertained what ailed them, although a veterinarian was called. The loss is estimated at $700.—Coos Bay Times.

Lowe-Webb Nuptials

Cards have been received in Coquille announcing the marriage of Miss Janie Lowe to Thomas James Webb at Portland last Monday. Mrs. Webb is the daughter of Mrs. D. J. Lowe and well known to all the older residents of Coquille, as it was only three or four years ago that the family removed to Portland. She has been teaching in the Portland schools since then. Miss Janie is a graduate of the Coquille high school, a charming lady and all her friends here unite in congratulating the lucky groom who has won so fair a bride. They will be at home after May 1, at 860 East Twenty-fourth street, North, Portland.

The following is the account of the wedding published by the Portland Journal:

A wedding of wide interest in the city was that of Miss Jane Lowe, daughter of Mrs. David J. Lowe, and Mr. Thomas James Webb, which took place Easter Monday at 2:30 o'clock at Grace Memorial church, the Rev. Oswald W. Taylor officiating. The bride, who is a graduate of St. Helena hall, is a member of a family which comes from a line of pioneers. Her paternal grandfather, Judge David John Lowe, was the first county judge in Coos county, and her grandfather on her mother's side was Mr. Alexander H. Thrift, the first white man to navigate the Coquille river, in Southern Oregon. Mr. Webb is a Wilmington, Delaware, man and has been in the city two years. Mr. Webb has taken an active part in civic clubs of the city. He is vice president of the Progressive Business Men's club, a member of the committee of 100 of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, and is also a member of the Ad club and the City club.

At the wedding Mrs. J. L. Bowman attended the bride, and Mr. A. L. Steele was best man. Miss Ethel Dawson played the wedding march, and the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Alexander Lowe.

North Bend Team Loses

At Roseburg last Saturday the North Bend debating team were beaten two to one by the Roseburg team. The former took the affirmative and the latter the negative of the question: "Resolved that a graduated income tax should be made a feature of the state system of taxation in Oregon." This puts the Roseburg team at the front in Lane, Douglas, Coos and Curry counties.
