John Baker, of Phoenix, Arizona, was here last Saturday for the first time in 30 years. The surrounding hills were the most familiar landmarks he saw.

The Coquille Four-Piece Jazz Orchestra is advertising another dance to be held at Gould's Hall tomorrow (Saturday) evening. The latest popular jazz is included in their repertoire.

LOANS—Applications received for Joint Stock Land Bank, also Trust company loans. Close loans within a few days. W. G. Wright, Farmers & Merchants Bank Building, Coquille, Oregon.

Bert Gould picked up a bone from an elk's leg at the dam site on Rink creek Tuesday morning that was just as blue as indigo from having been imbedded in the blue clay there for so many years.

Spectacles and eye glasses quickly and skillfully repaired. Broken lenses duplicated. Optical repairs of all kinds done while you wait. Glasses fitted. By V. R. Wilson, "Optometrist." Coquille, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Chaney returned Sunday from their month's trip east, during which they visited at their old home in Michigan. Mr. Chaney says they found the weather back there cool and surprisingly comfortable.

Tuesday afternoon the Sentinel received a call from Charles S. Fee, of San Francisco, passenger traffic manager of the Southern Pacific, J. M. Scott, of Portland, general passenger agent, and I. T. Sparks, of Eugene, district passenger agent.

Don't fail to read the notice of the lecture at the City Hall next Tuesday at 2:30 p. m., to be given by Dr. Estelle Ford Warner, of the State Board of Health. Dr. Warner is medical director of the department of Child Hygiene and a very interesting speaker.

V. R. Wilson, agent for the celebrated Martin Band Instruments & Saxophone. Best made.

Next Wednesday, August 30, will be old settlers' day in Coos county and the invitation to attend the celebration in Coquille on that day is general, no matter whether you have lived in Coos county fifty years or only five, or a week. Every one of us is getting to be an older settler with every passing day.

An auto accident occurred here last Saturday when a Ford car from Seattle struck a chuck hole at the south end of the Hall street bridge. The occupants of the car, R. Chambers and family, were thrown out and Mrs. Chambers' nose almost broken. The Ford suffered a broken axle and windshield.

Misses Connie Willoughby and Agnes Wheatstone returned the latter part of last week from their vacation trip made in their Ford sedan. They were over at Crater Lake and Klamath Falls, and say the worst road they found anywhere on their travels was the 30-mile stretch up to Klamath Hot Springs in northern California.

Rev. M. W. Goss, who has for some months past been pastor of the M. E. church here, is leaving for his new field at Philomath.

Jackie Coogan, the most talked of lad in America, in "PECK'S BAD BOY" at the Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday nights only.

The American Legion Posts of Coos county are going to picnic in the Norway grove Sunday, Sept. 17, if the weather is favorable.

Tuesday morning the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Farris Powell was made happy by the arrival of a baby girl weighing 8 pounds. Mr. Powell is the minister of the Christian church here.

No waiting for your hemstitching when taken to Bonnie Walker's Millinery Store. Service and neat work is our motto. Let us convince you.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church will hold their missionary tea in the church parlor Thursday afternoon, Aug. 31 at 2 o'clock. A cordial welcome is extended to all who may come.

It's gratifying to note that tourists at Marshfield come over to Coquille to spend their nights at our Myrtlewood auto camp. Our people made no mistake when they voted to preserve that grove by making it a city park.

Jackie Coogan says that "I'm tough—so tough that the cops beat it when I come around in 'PECK'S BAD BOY' at the Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

E. F. Russell started Wednesday morning on his regular monthly trip to Eureka, Cal., in the interest of the Olympia Flour Mill products. This time he was accompanied by his wife and three daughters and also by his mother, who lives at the Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Noeler returned last Sunday from their month's vacation trip which they made in their Chevrolet sedan down to southern California. On their return trip they went up to Portland and Vancouver, Wash. Mr. Noeler says they made the entire trip without a mishap of any kind—not even a puncture.

F. E. McKenna, former Mountain States Power company's manager here, came down from Corvallis by Sunday afternoon's train to spend his two weeks' vacation in Coos and Curry. His wife and daughter had been here for some time visiting the old folks. Mr. McKenna says his company has a record of 186 new residences constructed in Corvallis this summer.

Money to loan on city property. W. G. Wright.

Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elliott, who had been visiting his mother, Mrs. D. P. Strang, for the previous ten days, started on their return trip to their home in Eureka, Calif. They left their 13-year old daughter, Ethel Merle, with her grandmother to attend school in Coquille this winter. Mr. Elliott is postmaster at Eureka and has a host of old friends here.

B. A. Roberts who, a year ago, purchased the Barker place at Fairview, was a caller at the Sentinel Wednesday. He and his wife and four daughters arrived here about a month ago but left immediately on a camping trip down into California and have recently returned to get acquainted with their new home. Mr. Roberts was for fourteen years located at Shanghai, China, the last six years having been the Zellerbach Paper company's representative over there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stanley returned Wednesday evening from their trip down to Agness, on the Rogue river, having changed their minds at the last minute about going to Lakeside. He didn't look for any deer but spent a good deal of time fishing. He says the Hamilton party went back from Agness and expected to be gone three or four weeks. Arthur Ellingson was figuring on a ten days' hunt and Ed Ellingson intended to stay there until he got a couple of deer.

Plank Wearing Out

We note that in some places in the eastern part of the city where the travel is especially heavy, on the Second street block east of the court house, for instance, it has already been found necessary to replace some of the planking laid in 1916. It was thought when the streets of that part of the city were improved that the planking would last at least ten years, but automobiles are much more numerous now than they were six years ago, and the wear on the planking much greater than was anticipated.

Probably most of the planking will be in a reasonably fair condition when the last of the bonds issued to pay for it mature; but there is little doubt that by that time concrete pavement will be needed on many of them. It will be remembered that the costs of this improvement were lumped throughout the district so that the expense of grading was equalized. On some blocks the grading was very heavy and on others very light but all paid the same—for the improvement about $300 each for corner lots and $100 for inside lots. This included concrete sidewalks for the entire section as well as the grading and planking of the streets. What concrete paving in 1923 will cost is not now known, neither can anyone tell how wide the roadways will be built then.

Orderings to Build Factory

The Oerding Manufacturing Co. has started work on the construction of a new building for their myrtle wood factory on the ten acres they recently bought on the highway adjoining their ranch out there, and just east of the new bungalow Sam Arnold is building. When it is completed they will move all their machinery from the old factory near the bridge and install a lot of new wood working machinery they have had stored at the ranch for some time. In addition to the myrtle wood novelties they are now turning out, they expect also to make a line of furniture. They will still continue to operate the saw-mill just west of the creamery.

Natal Day, August 31

Natal Day, which is to be observed in Bandon next Thursday, the 31st inst., is celebrated by Coos county Eastern Star chapters every year, it being the anniversary of the birth of the order's founder.

A very enjoyable program has been arranged by the Bandon chapter for this year, and all Coquille members should make an effort to be there, at least in the evening when the roll is called. Beulah chapter won the silver loving cup at Myrtle Point last year for having the largest percentage of attendance at the meeting, and could it win again this year and at Marshfield next the cup would belong to it permanently.

He Had No Chance

A young man named Moore, from Gold Beach, and driving one of the Macey estate cars, stood no more chance than a snowball Wednesday morning. He started out from Marshfield behind Deputy Sheriff Malehorn, who had two prisoners with him and who was travelling 40 miles an hour, and right behind Moore was Traffic Officer Williams. Moore kept right behind Malehorn and when the deputy sheriff stopped he went by like a shot. Williams caught him, however, and he punted up $20 in Justice Joehnk's court for speeding.

Getting the Signs Posted

Secretary Newman, of the Commercial Club, on Tuesday evening erected a sign bearing the words, Coquille Auto Camp Grounds, at the entrance to the myrtle grove park, and expects to place several smaller signs around town and on the four roads leading into town, directing tourists to the park. He will also place about twenty-five signs at the road intersections and at other points outside of town which will direct travellers to Coquille.

Odd Fellows' Picnic Sunday

The Southwest Oregon I. O. O. F. Association picnic, which will be held in the city park at North Bend next Sunday, Aug. 27, is going to be very largely attended. Considerably over a hundred Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their families are going from here. The parade, starting from the depot at North Bend, will move at ten Hon. Thos. F. Ryan will be the principal speaker of the day but there will be other attractive features on the program.

Some People Never Learn

A news correspondent here, who is a hunter himself, wonders why men persist in wearing red hats and red bandanna handkerchiefs when going to the woods for a hunt. Has he forgotten that the British regulars used to be known as red coats. They proved to be mighty E Z marks, too, at New Orleans in 1814.

When Utter City Was a Town

Hark Dunham recalls that when Utter City, of which not a trace now remains, was a place of nearly 2,000 people some forty years ago, Henry Sengstacken was conductor and he was engineer on the railroad running from that place down to the bay. That was the first railroad built in Coos county and preceded by some years Graham's Coos Bay, Roseburg and Eastern. The latter afterwards became the Southern Pacific line from Marshfield to Myrtle Point.

Hark says 700 ton sea-going vessels used to dock at Utter City, which was the head of navigation on Is-thums Slough and some distance beyond the present location of Coaledo.

Goes East For a Visit

Mrs. Jennie Miller and her step son, Hugh Miller, who have been visiting here this month with the family of Rev. W. S. Smith, started on their return trip to their home near Indianapolis, Indiana, on Wednesday morning. They are taking with them Miss Lois Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who expects to remain with them until next spring. The party will stop over at Moscow, Idaho, for a short visit with a classmate of Mr. Miller and will then visit Yellowstone Park en route. Miss Lois graduated last year from our city schools and is a universal favorite among our young people.

J. S. Lawrence Will Build

Recorder John S. Lawrence completed a deal this week for his home place which he has occupied for the past 28 years. Amzie and Claire Mintonye are buying it for their parents. Mr. Lawrence has since purchased a lot from the M. E. Church South, between the parsonage and Pete Miller's new bungalow and expects to begin work immediately on a six-room bungalow there.

R. E. Baker to Albany

Raymond E. Baker, formerly superintendent of schools in Coos county and later at the head of the city schools in Coquille, has just made another change. For the past year he has been superintendent of the Brownville schools, but this week he is moving to Albany where he will become one of the faculty of Albany college, a Presbyterian institution.

Bridge in Operation

Melvin J. Kern has been named as operator at the bridge for the first month. Everything is working smoothly there and the old ferry is a thing of the past. Painters are now at work giving the steel a coat of gray paint.

Realities of Culture

In what consists the greater ability of a man than of a child to perceive the beauties of a picture, unless it is in his more extended knowledge of those truths in nature and life which the picture renders? How happens the cultivated gentleman to enjoy a fine poem so much more than a boor does, if it is not because his wider acquaintance with objects and actions enables him to see in the poem much that the boor cannot see? And if, as is here so obvious, there must be some familiarity with the things represented, before the representation can be appreciated, then the representation can be completely appreciated only when the things represented are completely understood.—Herbert Spencer.

Poor Spellers, Take Heart

The poor speller should receive comfort from the recent words of a professor of English in a local university. "The perfect speller is born, not made," he said. "One frequently finds persons of great erudition who have trouble spelling such a simple word, for example, as 'rabbit.' Certain others seem to have a gift for spelling, even without a knowledge of the rules to guide them. Why that is, I cannot say. It is closely akin, I think, to what is known as an ear for music or a peculiarity retentive memory for figures. I dare say it can even be inherited. Spelling is one case in which education plays but a minor part."—New York Sun.

Queer "Parliamentary" Tactics

The palm for parliamentary battles probably belongs to a small island near Tahiti. A trader induced the local natives, who are cannibals, to abandon their wars in favor of more civilized procedure, and to encourage them he built at his own expense a fine house of commons made of plaited palm leaves and furnished with soap boxes as seats. Alas! for his faith in parliaments. When he turned up for the first day's assembly it was to find that the "government" had attacked the opposition party from a neighboring island by kidnaping all their warriors, allowing only the aged and infirm to continue the journey to the parliament which was to settle their respective futures.—London Times.

"My Faithful Winchester"

The big moose—the giant of the northland forests furnishes thrilling sport for the hunter of big game. Then, if ever, a man feels the value of a repeating rifle, powerful and dependable under all conditions. Whenever veteran hunters get together you'll hear the words, "My faithful Winchester."

Winchester high power rifles are made in calibers for all kinds of American game. Barrels are bored and rifled accurate to a thousandth of an inch. They pass exacting strength tests. The famous lever action never fails to work rapidly and surely.

Winchester Model 95 repeating rifle handles the famous .30 Govt. '06 high power cartridge whose smashing blow will stop any charging animal.

Other Winchester lever action rifles of smaller calibers.
