BIBLE THOUGHTS

For This Week

Saturday, August 26

GOD CARES FOR HIS OWN:—And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.—Malachi 3:17.

Sunday, August 27

GOD WILL GUIDE THEE:—Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle. I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go.—Psalm 32:9, 8.

Monday, August 28

THINK OF THE HARVEST:—Whoever sows in righteousness shall also reap.—Galatians 6:7.

Tuesday, August 29

THE WAY TO FREEDOM:—Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.—John 8:32.

Wednesday, August 30

THE WAY TO PEACE:—Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace; thereby good shall come unto thee.—Job 22:21.

Thursday, August 31

THE ONLY SAFE TRUST:—Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; but we will remember the name of the Lord our God.—Psa. 20:7.

Friday, Sept. 1

JOY FOR WEEPING:—His anger endureth but a moment; in his favor is life; weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.—Psalm 30:5.

Prefer to Camp Here

Marshfield Daily News
"Painful as it may be to say so, tourists says that the city of Coquille has the best auto camp ground in this section of the coast. The fact, a tourist who was here yesterday said was plain. This man was here for a season of several days and had business on Coos Bay. His party is camping as it goes, and because the Coquille camp ground suited them better than those of North Bend and Marshfield, they are returning to Coquille nightly."

A Rotten Exhibition

Standing of the Teams	W	L	PC
Bandon	7	4	.538
Coquille	6	5	.548
Marshfield	5	6	.456
North Bend	4	7	.364

If baseball is to be continued as a well patronized sport in Coos county such disgraceful exhibitions as those which characterized the game at the Bay Sunday between Marshfield and Coquille will have to be stopped, and the roughnecks eliminated. Many people have said that they would never again attend a game where such foul and obscene language is permitted. This applies to about four members of the Marshfield team.

The Bay papers in their report of the game say there was "some wrangling," not having the nerve to come out and assert that the "wrangling" was indulged in by a few Marshfield players only.

To start with, the captain of the Marshfield team handed some bills, which he remarked was $40, up into the grandstand before the game started to be bet on the result. The fear of losing this was caused him to crab and kick on every decision which could possibly be called close. And the whole Marshfield team acted and talked as though they were entitled to all the breaks and tried by every means to intimidate the umpires.

Before the game started they protested against Doc Page acting as umpire in the game but Mr. Briggs stated that he was appointed and would act. The blow-up came in the fourth inning. After walking Babe Thomas, Fitchner, pitching for Marshfield, shot one to first to catch Babe off the bag. Willis tried to tag Thomas but was a fraction of a second late and Page, who was umpiring bases, called him safe. Doc was standing near first base and could see perfectly just when Willis finally got the ball on Babe. There isn't a squarer man in Coos county than Doc Page, nor one who is less afraid to call them as he sees them, but his decision angered Fitchner, who rushed at Doc with a yell as though he would annihilate him. He made a pass at the umpire which he took care fell short, but when the Marshfield players grabbed and held him he became hysterical and acted as though crazy to get at Page. It was a great piece of bluffing, for he could have struck him before anyone else was near had he dared. Abusive language was poured out at Page by the Marshfield pitcher, and the game was only resumed when Red Rupert gave them two minutes to get into action or forfeit the game.

Gravelle, second baseman for the Bay team, should have been put off the field as well as Fitchner, for he came running up to Briggs, president of the league, cursed him for permitting Page to umpire, and refused to leave when Briggs ordered him off the grounds.

But the most disgusting and insulting display of bully tactics came in the eighth when Rupert called Feichtenger out on strikes. Using the most obscene and vulgar language he could lay his tongue to, the Marshfield outfielder called Rupert name after name, at the top of his voice and his stream of epithets were heard all over the grandstand. Rupert fined him $5 and then $10, but confessed to one of the Coquille players that night that he didn't turn the fine in to the president. He umpired a good game but made a mistake in not insisting on the payment of the fine.

Of the game itself there was a lot of good playing and some very poor. Wilson, a Marshfield man playing with Coquille, did his part to win with three hits out of four times up, one a home run in the fourth, scoring Thomas ahead of him, after Hobson had stolen home while Fitchner was ranting at Page. It looked mighty good to see Billy out in the field and wielding his trusty bat.

Spike Leslie, a Coquille man, catching for Marshfield, won the game for his team when he singled in the ninth inning, scoring Gravelle, who had previously doubled, before a man had been put out.

Babe Thomas made the star play of the game and one of the most sensational seen this year, in the seventh inning when he caught a cannon ball line drive off Gravelle's bat with one hand and tagged Feichtenger before he could get back to first making an unassisted double play.

Ottie Slade made a lot of nice stops at short but is credited with four errors on his legs to first. He claimed the wind carried them too far over.

Berg made a high throw to second which let in a run and King's poor throw to third cost one.

Without the errors Coquille would have won hands down for Berg kept the ten hits made off him well scattered, not more than two coming in any inning. The six walks he contributed, however, figured in the score.

It isn't the loss of the game that Coquille fans deplore, for they are good sports who can take a loss philosophically, but it is the ruffianly conduct of four of the Marshfield team which has soured them. Many Marshfield people condemned the home players' actions in emphatic terms. Let's have clean ball or none. The score:

Player	AB	R	H	P	A	E
Marshfield	35	6	10	27	15	3
Coquille	35	5	6	24	12	8

*None out when winning run was scored.

Score by innings:
Coquille 0 0 3 0 0 2 0—5
Marshfield 1 1 0 1 0 2 0—6

Summary—Earned runs, Coquille 3; Marshfield 4; sacrifice hits, Abbott 2; home run, Billy Wilson; two base hit, Gravelle, Leslie; bases on balls, off Berg 6; off Fitchner 6; hit by pitched ball, by Berg 2; stolen bases, Edwards 2, Hobson 2, Wilson, Medley, Willis; double play, Thomas, unassisted; umpires, Rupert and Page.

Bandon slaughtered North Bend at Bandon last Sunday to the tune of 23 to 1. North Bend quit at the end of the seventh, being willing to call it a day. The bay team used four pitchers in an attempt to stop the massacre but the college boys had their hitting clothes on and would not be denied.

Presbyterian Church

There will be no services held next Sunday, August 27, but with the first Sunday of September all services will be resumed. Sabbath school at 10 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

By that time we will all have enjoyed our vacations, and it is earnestly hoped we will then be in our places ready for the winter's work.
W. S. Smith, Pastor.

M. E. Church

There will be services in the M. E. church Sunday morning as usual. Sunday School at 10. Preaching at 11 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Jennings, of Myrtle Point. A cordial welcome is extended to those who have no preaching service.

Christian Science Society

Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.
Sunday Service at 11 a. m.
Subject for next Sunday, "Christ Jesus."
Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock.

Church of Christ Notes

Welcome. We are Christ-like enough to welcome all. "Whoever will, may come." Welcome.

10 a. m.—Bible school. Attendance last Lord's day 104, an increase of 7. We are growing numerically and spiritually. We invite you and your children to learn of God's word with us.

11 a. m.—Morning Worship. Sermon subject, "The Common Error of Humanity."

7 p. m.—Christian Endeavor.

8 p. m.—Evening Worship. Congregational song service, special by choir. Sermon subject, "Miracles in the Christian Dispensation."

Take yourself to dinner. One goes to church regularly and punctually because one has a soul—rather is a soul that needs nourishment. Church attendance is the real person dining.

Throw it a bone. You feed your body 21 times a week, whether it is hungry or not. Then why not throw your soul a bone at least once a week, even if it doesn't seem hungry? The poor thing may be too weak from starvation to make its wants known.

Excuses. The best excuse for absence from church is not as good as actual attendance. The sermon applied might save your soul but the excuse will not.

"My house shall be called a house of prayer for all people."
L. Farris Powell, Minister.

DEATH OF HENRY SENGSTACKEN

self to early and late. Mr. Sengstacken served as deputy collector of customs at Empire in 1877 and 1878, was justice of the peace at Empire, and in 1903 was elected mayor of Marshfield, serving two terms. He had also served on the Empire city council.

He was a member of the Port of Coos Bay commission from the time of the organization of the port until early this year.

Henry Sengstacken was born in Hanover, Germany, June 12, 1851. At the age of fourteen he left Germany, coming to San Francisco to work for an uncle, the late Claus Spreckels, the sugar magnate.

He spent eight years in San Francisco but he wanted to get into business for himself and in 1874 came to Coos Bay. He first had a general store at Utter City, the then terminus of the old Coos Bay wagon road stage line. Later he moved to Empire and in 1879 he opened a store in Marshfield and continued in business there until 1908.

Mr. Sengstacken was a man of many lines of business. In addition to the Title Guarantee & Abstract Co., he engaged in the real estate business, insurance business and did a considerable brokerage business.

Mr. Sengstacken is survived by a wife and three children. Mrs. Sengstacken was formerly Miss Agnes Lockhart. His first wife was Miss Lillie Lockhart. To the first marriage two children were born. They are Alton Sengstacken of San Francisco and Miss Genevieve Sengstacken, of Honolulu. Miss Doris Sengstacken is the only child by his second marriage.

Mr. Sengstacken was member of the L. O. O. F. lodge and encampment and a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen.

A cablegram was sent Judge Jaa. L. Coke to notify Miss Genevieve Sengstacken who is absent from Honolulu on a vacation trip to the Island of Hawaii.
