EAST FORK NOTES

Friday night a flock of geese went honking across under the stars. Somehow their call put the travel stir in my blood and interested me more than the whir of a man's flying machine that went across a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Royer, who has been the cook for Lawhorn and Summerlin's camp the past several years, has given up her job, and is getting ready to go to North Bend next week to be operated on by Dr. Keizer.

Mrs. Barker is the new cook at the camp.

Edna Alford was at North Bend last week receiving radium treatment from Dr. Keizer. Mrs. Christensen went to Coquille with horse and buggy to meet her and bring her home.

K. E. Marcy was knocked out with rheumatism part of last week. This week he is on the jury.

If Germany could find a market for her waste paper on which she has made "marks," she would have no worries. For she has no thought or worry over her evil, wicked, abominable soul.

In recent copies of the Christian Science Monitor sent me, I read that the boozers of Wisconsin and Missouri are going to try and amend the constitution of the United States for the benefit of boozers and booze makers. Nothing doing in favor of the boozers. R. A. Easton.

Set Fire to the Jail

If you don't like the comforts of a jail, burn it. This is the motto of a good many loggers who have been locked up recently in the Powers jail. Last Saturday evening a logger was arrested for connection in a street brawl and immediately put to rest by Marshal Brown in the town lockup. The logger evidently did not have the comforts of home, so set fire to the interior. The interior and bedding was so badly damaged that the offender was sent home. This same stunt has happened a good many times in the past and Marshal Brown is now looking for fireproof bedding. Might be a good stunt, at that.—News.

Anna Q. Nilsson, one of the screen's most beautiful women, was born in Sweden, and had a long and varied stage career in her native country and in America, some of her more recent appearances in screen plays have been in "Without Limit," "Kingdom of Dreams," "Auction of Souls," and "The Fighting Chance" will appear in "THREE LIVE GHOSTS" at the Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday.

The football game played with Marshfield here last Saturday ended with a score of 13-0 in Myrtle Point's favor. A large number of rooters attended the game. Several carloads were over from Marshfield also. The team will play their third game of the season with Coquille on their field this Saturday. Everyone should attend the game and support the boys.

W. E. Burrows passed away in the Pemberton hospital Monday morning. Heart trouble is thought to be the cause of his death. He was in the hospital as the result of a broken leg. H. A. Schroeder took the body to Gold Beach where the burial services will take place. Mr. Burrows was over seventy-seven years of age and was the proprietor of a livery stable in this city.

The people of the M. E. church gave a Harvest and Experience Social on Tuesday evening. Each member brought from one to fifty pounds of something as a present to the pastor. The church was very beautifully decorated in autumn leaves. Following is the program given:

Address of Welcome, C. O. Jennings
Reply by the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Cook, who expressed his appreciation of the many donations.

Reading - Mrs. Geo. Spencer
Vocal Solo - Mrs. Felsher
Song, Genevieve Clark, Joyce Wood-
fin, Merle Clinton and Elsie Moller
Reading - Mrs. Percy Peel
Pianolog - Mrs. O. H. Clarke
Reading - Dr. O. H. Clarke
Solo - Mrs. Felsher
Reading - Mrs. Jack Campbell

The members of the Ladies Aid each deposited their dollar telling their experiences in earning it. Refreshments were then served to all present.

Rev. Walter L. Straub gave a lecture in the M. W. A. hall Tuesday evening on the school measure. A large number of persons attended the lecture.

The four months old baby of Mrs. Lawrence Rackleff is very ill in the Pemberton hospital.

Mrs. John Warner, who has recently returned from California, was down from Sunshine on a shopping trip one day this week.

Mrs. Irene Curtiss, of Bridge was in town Wednesday.

The six-months old child of Ervin Nelson, of Broadbent, passed away Monday after an illness of several weeks. The interment took place in the Broadbent cemetery Wednesday.

Chas. Hall, president of the Coos and Curry Telephone Company, was in Myrtle Point Saturday.

The members of the Royal Neighbors are planning on a Halloween social to be given in the M. W. A. hall October 30.

Edwin Barker is having a fireplace built in his home this week.

Jim Green, who has been in Alaska for many years, was calling on old friends in this neighborhood a few days ago. Mr. Green is a brother of Mrs. Wm. Grow, of Coaledo, and Mrs. John Chaney, of Powers. He will make an extended visit with Mrs. Grow, who lives on the old home place, "Green Arbor," where he spent his childhood days.

McLeod Bros. have completed the work with the pile driver on the Corey bridge which connects the Beaver Hill road with the North Bank.

John Merchant is having a bridge built across Beaver Slough to make his property on the north side of the North Bank more accessible.

Fred Hiekok has been employed to build a tide gate in the Beaver Hill ditch for the Coaledo Drainage district.

Charlie Wickham, with his crew, is progressing with the bridge under construction near Randleman's. When this bridge is decked over, the North Bank road will be open to Riverton. This will be a short cut from the highway to Bandon, making the distance ten miles less from Marshfield. Roadmaster McCulloch was here Sunday inspecting the bridge.

D. L. Buckingham will be here the latter part of the week to set the stakes for the slashing on the upper part of Beaver Slough, preparatory to dredging.

D. P. Plymale will soon complete his grading contract and will then move his camp to the lower river.

Ted Eavns was a business visitor at the camp recently.

Ben Currie and Hugh Harlocker, of Coquille, were trying to introduce the Chevrolet here Friday.

If you have tears of laughter, prepare to shed them when you see Anna Q. Nilsson and Norman Kerry in "THREE LIVE GHOSTS" at the Liberty next Tuesday and Wednesday.
