Telling About People and Events in the City and County

The Episcopal Guild met with Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman Wednesday afternoon.

J. J. Stanley has been confined to his home since Tuesday with a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rose were in town yesterday from their McKinley ranch.

F. G. Leslie is improving now, after being laid up all week with an attack of flu.

Wm. A. Shultz returned yesterday afternoon from a visit of several months at Coming, Calif.

The Ladies of the Church of Christ will hold a cooked food and fancy work bazaar on March 31.

Don't forget your babies number Friday and Saturday night at the Liberty Theatre. Meet me there.

COAL—South Port Coal the best. Try a load. C. W. Hill. 441f

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Willey Jr. came in from Eugene last Saturday for a three weeks' visit with home folks here and at Myrtle Point.

Coquille future citizens on the screen in a galaxy of beautiful poses and expressions Friday and Saturday night at the Liberty Theatre.

Money to loan on approved city and farm property. See Geo. T. Moulton.

Milo Dunham purchased the new bungalow of A. J. Jones in Academy Addition this week. The deal was made through the T. A. Walker Real Estate Agency.

Stirling Smith was arrested at North Bend and brought over here Wednesday on a warrant from Hillsboro. He is charged with non-support of his family.

Do you know that you can sell or buy second hand engines at GARDNER'S GARAGE. Phone 46J.

Geo. Lorenz, who has been down with typhoid for several weeks, has had no fever now for ten days and has so far improved that he is able to sit up a part of the time.

The Pythian Sisters are advertising a St. Patrick's Day dance this evening to be held in the K. P. hall here. Everyone is invited to attend, admission for gentlemen being $1.00.

The Coquille Health Association will meet next Tuesday evening, March 20, at the court house at 7:30 p. m. Dr. H. W. Irwin, county health officer, will be the speaker of the evening.

L. J. Roberts, of the Middle Fork section, was a caller Tuesday afternoon, having been summoned as a special jurymen on the Peare murder case. He was among those excused, however.

County Judge Mast received word this week from Supt. Stiner, of the Oregon State Hospital, that Mrs. Sarah Lamson, committed to the institution from Coos county a year ago, died there on March 9.

Judge Kendall issued a warrant yesterday for the arrest of Jesse E. Foster at Tillamook. He is wanted for contempt of court in connection with the divorce suit by his former wife. The case came from Bandon.

Ina Sell, of North Bend, filed her declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States with the county clerk on March 7. She is a native of this country but lost her citizenship when she married an alien.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Strong, of Myrtle Point, have just celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage, which took place in Lancaster, Iowa, in 1863. Such a celebration is an unusual—we might well add an extraordinary event.

Hezekiah Root, an insane man, who was picked up near the China Camp bridge on the highway, has been committed to the asylum and will be taken out as soon as attendants get in for him. No one seems to know him nor where he came from.

Mrs. J. A. Lamb returned last Sunday afternoon from her extended visit at Los Angeles and San Diego, California. She says the former Coquille people—the Fay Jones and Fred Slagle families—are delighted with the country there and that they are doing well.

If you want the Portland Telegram in connection with the Sentinel, we can save you some money.

MURDERER PEARE TELLS IT AT LAST

A. E. Glossop, Marshfield, barber, Attorney Neuner made the opening statement for the prosecution.

Besides the defendant the other witnesses for the state were examined in the following order: Sam Stephens, O. J. Hamburg, Elmer Stanford, Robert L. Hildebrand, Ed Ellingsen, F. E. Wilson, Sam Malehorn, Mrs. Bushnell, daughter of the defendant.

Besides the defendant, the witnesses called for the defense, of whom the first had taken the stand just before dinner are Ray Demant, Taylor Demant, H. W. Pike, Sam Malehorn, Harvey P. Smith, and J. L. Knight.

This noon the Sentinel asked Attorney C. F. McKnight how long it would take to finish the trial of Peare. He thought that perhaps the defense's witnesses might all be examined this afternoon; but that it might take most of the day, to-morrow to hear the two distinguished specialists in nervous diseases, who will be called to the stand last, Mr. William House, of Portland, for the state and Doctor W. T. Williamson, who has two sanitariums in Portland, for the defense. Both are being called to give opinions all over the country and Dr. Williamson has just returned from Chicago.

So he hardly thought the case would go to the jury before Monday.

Social Notes

One of the most enjoyable parties of the winter was held at the home of Miss Edna Harlocker Wednesday evening when she entertained the junior "500" club. Club members present were the Mesdames J. S. Barton, T. B. Currie, H. C. Gets, G. Earl Low, F. C. McNelly, H. S. Norton, H. W. Pierce, J. L. Smith, M. J. Hartson and special guests were Mesdames Viola Collier, H. A. Young, W. V. Glaisyer, Keith Leslie, E. H. Harnden, Tracy Leach, Lynn Parr, Lans Leneve, R. A. Jeub, Ed McKeown, R. F. Miller, J. W. Miller, E. J. Page, J. E. Paulson, Chas. Harlocker, of Myrtle Point, and P. J. Rooney, of Marshfield, and the Meses Erma Price, Irene Whitfield and Alete Ahlson. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Young each received a beautiful vase for holding high score for the evening.

Mrs. Bert Folsom, Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. E. W. Lorenz and Mrs. H. A. Young were hostesses at a seven o'clock dinner Monday evening at the Young home to the members of the Coquille Bridge Club. The hostesses were very unique costumes. Original place cards marked places for the following: Mesdames L. H. Hazard, H. N. Butler, H. W. Pierce, F. L. Greenough, J. A. Lamb, Miss Marian Young and the hostesses. Mrs. Pierce held high score for the evening at bridge which followed the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Norton entertained at three tables of bridge Thursday evening. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. G. Earl Low, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hartson, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McNelly, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gets, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Pierce. Mrs. McNelly and Mr. Hartson each received a deck of cards for holding high score.

Baby Show at Liberty

Final arrangements are being made by B. H. Osborne and H. G. Bowers of the Elite studio of Marshfield for the screen baby show at the Liberty theatre at Coquille Friday and Saturday night.

Through the novel methods employed by the local men the baby contest will be held on the moving picture screen by means of slides. The little tots entered in the contest were photographed and the pictures reproduced on slides. Many natural and original poses which will be true to life are promised by the promoters.

Prizes will be awarded on prize night, March 23. These awards are being made possible by the various merchants of Coquille.

Mr. Osborne and Mr. Bowers announce that similar baby shows will be held in the near future in North Bend, Marshfield, Bandon, Myrtle Point and Powers.

Krantz Buys Lamb Home

D. C. Krantz has recently purchased the J. J. Lamb residence from the heirs for $2500 which seems a remarkably reasonable price for such a property located as it is. The house was moved a little to the south when the city bought the Lamb Grove near to the Lorenz property. We expect some time to see the property on the west side of the street opposite the Liberty theatre in demand for business purposes. Mr. Krantz, whose home is farther north near the west end of Second street does not intend to occupy the place but purchased it for an investment.

Mrs. Ada W. Nichols

Mrs. Roy E. Nichols, who last month resigned her position in the sheriff's office, has been in poor health practically ever since and had been ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Witteman, of Norway, for three weeks; but the serious nature of her illness was not generally known to her friends here and it was a great shock when they learned last Saturday morning that she had passed away on Friday night. She suffered from a complication of troubles and though influenza is given as the cause of her death, a weak heart was one of the contributing causes.

Her funeral services were held at the undertaking parlor here at 3:30 Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. S. Smith, of the Presbyterian church, and the large congregation in attendance was a testimonial to the esteem in which she was held. The interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

Ada Pearl Witteman was born at Franklin, Ohio, June 4, 1887, and was the only child of her parents, mentioned above. She removed with them to Oklahoma in 1888, while an infant. In 1909 she graduated from the Oklahoma Agricultural college, and during four years following held clerical positions in Oklahoma City. She came to Portland, Ore., in 1915, and for two years was employed there and at Bend, her parents first settling in eastern Oregon, but coming to Coos county and settling at Norway three years ago to be nearer her.

Five years ago she came to Coquille and took a position in the sheriff's office as typist in the legal department where she has since been in charge of that end of the business as a deputy.

Here by her uniform courtesy and accommodating disposition, she became deservedly popular, holding first office under Sheriff Gage and then being retained by Sheriff Ellingsen when the republicans displaced the democrats. When Miss Bunch was elected county clerk, she offered Miss Witteman a place as deputy in that office; but for some reason the latter was unable to accept it.

Less than a year ago, on June first, Roy E. Nichols and Miss Witteman were united in marriage, having been old friends before he came here at that time from New Mexico. Mrs. Nichols, recent resignation of her place in the Sheriff's office was not as might now be inferred because of her health, but for the reason that Mr. Nichols and she had decided to remove to Portland.

She united with the Methodist church in childhood, and has since been a consistent and faithful member.

When the Girls Hiking Club was organized two or three years ago, Miss Witteman became a member. She was universally esteemed and the sympathy of a host of friends goes out in full measure to her bereaved husband and deeply stricken parents. Just why she should have been so untimely taken in life's richest bloom is one of the problems whose solutions will never be solved for us on the shores of time.

The Commercial Club

The Commercial Club held its weekly session in the Recorder's office Wednesday evening, on account of the baseball meeting in the council chamber, and was presided over by Vice President J. A. Lamb.

At the request of the Coquille Athletic Association, John Miller and James Laird were appointed a committee from the club to assist in soliciting funds for their year's ball team. The club also pledged its moral support in backing the team and requests its members who have positions open which might be filled by young men who come in to play ball this summer, to notify Dr. G. Earl Low or Carl King, of the local club.

The rest of the evening was spent in a discussion of ways and means for securing the establishment here of the fish and cold storage business which W. W. Miller, of Reedsport, desires to do.

Mr. Miller has made a deal with the Oerding Mfg. Co. for their building on Ferry street, provided he can have time for its payment, and he asks the club to help him raise the $3,000 necessary to make the deal. He will, of course, give a mortgage on the building and pay seven per cent interest. He would expect to make a one-third payment on the principal at the end of the first, second and third years. The Oerding Co. expect to build a wood-working plant on the river above the E. E. Johnson mill if Mr. Miller purchases their present location.

To see what could be done toward financing Mr. Miller's proposition, the chair appointed a committee consisting of J. E. Norton, J. E. Ross and S. M. Nosler.

The Sentinel and the Oregon Farmer can still be obtained for $2.15 for one year.

Death of Mrs. Mark Windle

Mrs. Mark H. Windle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Custer, of this city, died at Mercy Hospital, where she was taken for a major operation last Saturday, at 1:20 this morning. A weakened condition prevented her rallying from the effect of the operation.

The funeral services will be held at the Christian church Sunday afternoon at 2:30, the interment to be in the Masonic cemetery.

Pauline Susie Custer was born in Fortuna, Calif., Dec. 12, 1890, being now past 32 years of age. She came with her parents to Coquille nineteen years ago.

September 4, 1919, she was married to Mark H. Windle, of Bandon, a brother of Mrs. Florence Sesay, of this city. They made their home in Bandon for a time, spent a year in Walla Walla, Wash., and have been living in Marshfield since two years ago last October.

Before her marriage Mrs. Windle was employed by the local telephone company, being at one time chief operator here and at Myrtle Point, and also being for some time in the Bandon exchange. She had been a member of the Christian church since girlhood.

Besides her husband, father and mother, she leaves a sister, Mrs. H. G. Frey, of Myrtle Point, and three brothers, Marion, Irvin and Alva. The two latter came in this morning from Portland.

Mrs. Windle was a highly esteemed lady with a wide circle of friends, and the united sympathy of the community goes out to the afflicted husband, aged father and mother, brothers and sister in this hour of bereavement.

It Can Be Settled

In conversation with H. E. Hess, the Sentinel scribe learns that Mr. Russ is not asking any more in the way of damages for the right of way across the lowland on the coast highway, but that it is simply a working out of the details that had been agreed to in a general way previously. In the first place, Mr. Russ has given more land for the right of way than he had intended to, the width being 85 feet of the 150 required, instead of 60.

Also he has no intention of asking more approaches leading to the highway than was first asked, and they are to be placed only where there is dirt available and a natural approach. These approaches, the graveling and the fencing are matters which could no doubt have been settled satisfactorily to both the county and Mr. Russ had he been able to be present in person, but telegrams and letters leave a great deal to be worked out later, especially when Mr. Russ is away from home so much and the affair has to be handled at the Eureka end by agents or attorneys.

When the county has the map prepared to submit to Mr. Russ, showing just the route desired, the approaches, etc., there will probably be none of the differences which seemed to loom large last week.

"The Christian" Coming

Sir Hall Caine's "The Christian," is coming to the Liberty next Thursday and Friday. Following the very successful run of this interesting drama of real life at the Rivoli Theatre in Portland, where the crowds stood in line for hours waiting to get in, the Liberty is bringing to the people of Coquille one of the best and finest plays yet produced and on a theme that touches every human heart.

This is one of the highest priced productions on the market at present and the minimum admission fee allowed by the distributor is 25c and 50c, stipulated in the contract.

There will be the usual run on Thursday and Friday nights and for the benefit of those that are unable to come at night the management will run one show on Saturday afternoon, starting at 1:30 p. m. sharp.

Can Now Loan Up to $25,000

George Hilton Jr., appraiser of the federal land bank of Spokane, who has been in Coos county this week on business for the bank, says that he has received word from the loan board at Washington, D. C., that the loan limit has been raised to $25,000 and that the raise will go into effect immediately. This would apply to present borrowers who have $10,000 loans and wish them increased, as well as to new applications.

Secretary Mast of the Coquille Federal Loan Board, is already in receipt of an application for a $25,000 loan. Mr. Hilton was in Coquille the first of the week and passed on three applications which Secretary Mast had on file and the latter hopes to have him pass on the large application while he is in the county.
