Ben F. Lawrence arrived here Wednesday morning for a two weeks' visit with home folks. About the middle of August he and Mrs. Lawrence, who has been here a month, will leave for home, going first to California, and making another stop-off at Denver, Colo. Wednesday's Oregonian had the following regarding one of Coquille's most prominent ex-citizens:

"More than 20 years ago Ben F. Lawrence was running a little country weekly in Coos county. He had aspirations and sold, coming to Portland. He became connected with The Oregonian. In a few years he was called to Indianapolis, and soon was business manager of the Star, the leader of Mr. Schaefer's chain of daily newspapers. Now his position embraces the business and editorial management of the half dozen or more papers in the chain. Once more is it demonstrated the east takes the best of the west. Mr. Lawrence is in the city, and yesterday visited the scenes of his early labors."

To Visit in Coos County

Mrs. H. P. Hansen, of Westport, California, called yesterday to renew her subscription for the Sentinel. Her first husband was W. H. Thomas and she used to be a resident of Coos county, where she has two daughters, Mrs. Howard Pointer, of this city, and Mrs. Jacob Bolander, of Allegany, whom she came up here, with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boyd, of Willows, California, to visit. Mrs. Hansen, who now lives directly on the Pacific coast in California, had to go down to San Francisco to get a start for Oregon. She says the climate at Westport is not as pleasant as it is at Coquille.

Former Resident Writes

In writing to renew for the Sentinel this week, Mrs. W. E. Colvin, of Gaston, who was until a few years ago a resident of Coos county, says that her daughter, Miss Ethel Colvin, started for Coos county Monday morning, and was to be met at Roseburg by her aunt, Mrs. Ray Mabley, who together are now visiting old home scenes in Coos county and hearing the roaring of the ocean's waves on our coast.

Arthur Hufford Married

A few years ago John Kerrigan, for reasons best known to himself, perpetrated a joke on Arthur Hufford by furnishing the Sentinel with a story of Art's marriage. Mr. Hufford wasn't married then, but he was married last week to Miss Ople Prier, of Roseburg, in that city. They spent their honeymoon in Grants Pass and returned to their home here the latter part of the week.

He is now shipping to every town in the county, and shipments of outside ice cream have dropped materially.

County Court in Session

The county court has been in session since Tuesday this week and had not completed their labors this noon. Besides auditing the month's bills they passed on many other matters.

One was the paying of cattle indemnity claims to the following parties:

M. M. Schmidt, $20; Mose Gemetti, $19.16; Bell Bros. $30; Claude Endicott, $10; V. L. Adams, $60; E. M. Hoffman, $7.50; Claude C. Noble, $96.50; Ben Monson, $20.

The amounts mentioned are the county's share, the state paying a like amount for cattle slaughtered on order of County Herd and Meat Inspector W. V. Glaisyer, which he found tubercular.

Wm. Bowron was appointed patrolman in Road District No. 1, from Templeton north to the county line.

The time for the completion of the Coal Bank Slough bridge at Marshfield was extended one month, M. W. Payne being given until Sept. 1 to complete the job.

E. A. Perkins was also given a month's extension, from August 15 to September 15, to complete his grading contract on the North Bend road.

Three bills, totalling $186, were paid by the court for expenses incurred by Harvey Smith who had an eye injured while working on the road. Smith was not employed by the county but was doing the work voluntarily to better the highway in District No. 26. The court specified that there was no legal claim against the county, and that it was paid as a moral obligation only.

Must Serve Two Sentences

L. B. McCool was taken before Justice Stanley Monday, charged with driving an auto while drunk. He pleaded not guilty, but later told Traffic Officer Williams that he was willing to change his plea. There is an old sentence of 10 days and fine of $25 standing against him, which has not been liquidated and he may have to serve a double sentence now.

Ernest Willard and A. McKelvey, who were with McCool at the time are charged with having liquor in their possession. Willard asked for time to secure an attorney and McKelvey has not been arrested.

A fourth man, by the name of Gaffey, has not yet been apprehended. He is wanted on the charge of being intoxicated on a public highway.

Something over half a pint of moonshine is held by Justice Stanley as evidence in the case.

Riverton Cases Not Settled

Nothing definite has yet resulted from the attempt last week to compromise the right-of-way cases at Riverton. A few of them probably will be but the larger ones seem to be beyond hope of settlement.

Eugene Hamblock, who has been offered $1000 by the court for the removal of his barn from the right of way, demands $2800. Neither side will go to the other's figure.

W. J. Floyd, who has been asking $3,000 for the strip through his ranch, has cut his request to $2,000, which is just double what the court has offered him. The only recourse left seems to be a suit for damages in the circuit court.

This Man Is Wanted

Sheriff Ellingsen received a telegram last night from the sheriff of Humboldt county, Calif., to be on the watch for a yellow Maxwell car bearing license number 321,946. It is driven by a young man wearing cowboy hat and riding boots, who has as a passenger his father, the man wanted at Eureka. The latter is 56 years of age, weighs 127 pounds, is 5 feet and 8 inches in height, sallow complexion, small brown mustache and wearing blue overalls. His name is Wm. R. Phelps. Deputy Sheriff Malehorn would like to hear from any one who sees them.

Setaspell Is Set

Robert C. Train this week finished the moving of the Setaspell into the Myrtle Grove Park. It is located on the north side of the 120 foot strip leading to the grove and about 30 feet to the rear of the front of J. A. Lamb's residence. When a sidewalk is built to it from Willard street it will be just as conveniently situated as when located in the street.

Notice to Juice Patrons

The power will be turned off at one a. m. Sunday morning and remain off until six a. m., or possibly later. The reason is that there will be a cutting over to the new switch board at the plant, preparatory to the installation of new machinery. It is hoped that service can be resumed at six a. m. or soon thereafter.
