EDITORIAL

Again the Holiday season approaches, bringing "good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people." Again our minds turn to the Babe in that humble manger—the Christmas spirit personified. We pause for a moment in the busy rush of things to consider what the birth of that Infant meant, what it has signified to the world then and ever since.

And along with this comes the thought of a New Year—a dawn, opening a new day in our lives. With it comes an opportunity to start over anew; it offers us the privilege of taking a firmer, surer grip on ourselves, permits us to take up any task with renewed determination and courage.

For all this we should be thankful. The "Laurel" Editor wishes to take this means of extending to every reader of these columns his sincere wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

This morning an assembly was held in the high-school auditorium. We had a Christmas tree with the boys buying presents for the girls and vice versa.

The following program was given. Piano solo by Harold Peart, a vocal selection by Mr. Bergner, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and a cello solo by Miss Nissen.

Another feature of the meeting was the awarding of the football letters for the past season. The lettermen were: Three-year, Don Pierce and Allen Young; two-year, Layton Nosler, Ted Bennett, Earl Rice, Lester Wilson and Zed Finley; one-year, Tyler Walker, Lee Stonecypher, Warren Brandon, Lyle Beyers, Wayne Robinson, Errol Sloan, Harry Varney, Levi Wilson and Pat Harville.

BASKET BALL

Sophomore-Freshman
Last Tuesday, immediately after school, the Sophs and Freshies mixed in a hotly-contested ball game.

During the first half the score was held very low, the period ending with the Sophs 4; the Frosh 2.

In the third quarter the Frosh crept into the lead with 5 points against the Sophs 4. It looked rather doubtful for the Sophs.

During the remainder of the game the Frosh seemed to weaken. The Sophs, on the other hand, put all of their energy into the game and made the floor look hot. Final score: Sophs 12, Frosh 8.

The lineup was:
Lester Wilson F Jimmie Augustine
Rupert Pounder G James Galbraith
Zed Finley C Levi Wilson
Arthur Pulford G Harlo Call
Hadley Curtis F Royce Richmond

Subs: Sophs, Lee Stonecypher, Kenneth Simmons. Frosh, Ermen Kime.

FROSH PARTY

Saturday evening, Dec. 15, the Freshman class held its first party with about thirty attending. The evening was spent in playing various games.

The upper classmen made an attempt to get the "cats" but failed. They got into the building, however, and caused a lot of excitement. During the commotion Layton Nosler, a Junior, was caught hothanded and several of his pet bolts were massaged. He took it good naturedly, however. About six other uninvited guests were present.

At 10:30 the Freshmen played follow the leader over to the home of the Rev. A. W. Bell where the refreshments consisting of sandwiches, fruit salad and whipped cream were kept.

Although the Freshies were kept rather busy defending their cats, the party was enjoyed by all.

CONTRACT PLACED

Mr. Harold W. Readen, of the Hicks-Chatten Engraving Co., a Portland firm, was here Tuesday in the interests of his house.

The Laurel editor and Mr. McCormack, faculty advisor, signed a contract with this company, placing all of the engraving work for this year's annual with them. As the Hicks-Chatten Company did our work last year and rendered us very satisfactory service we feel that we have done well to give them the work again.

A Vital Spot

The Freshies must have had a sort of a wild party last Saturday night. To quote Miss Nissen: "While Mr. Parr was preventing a raiding party from coming down through the roof, some one, not recognizing him for a moment, almost kicked him right on the ladder."

The following which is evidently an example of Freshmen poetry, appeared on the blackboard last week:

To a Sophie
You haven't the Pep,
You haven't the jazz,
You haven't the spizzerrinctum
That a Freshman has.
—Shakewell.

DEBATE

Class Debate

On Tuesday a debate was held in the Modern and Medieval History class; the question was: "Resolved that Henry IV was a traitor to the Protestants when he changed to the Catholic religion." The affirmative was composed of Verna Finley and Clara Brockman and negative of Sanford Wagg and Arthur Pulford. The negative won by a two to one vote. The judges were Wayne Robinson, Violet Shuck and Iva Baker.

Some new debate material was received this week and the debating class is taking hold of the work with a greater amount of enthusiasm. Frank George and Lewis Donaldson are two new members added to the class this week.

In giving the members of the orchestra last week, we overlooked Kenneth Jacobson, playing a violin, and Lois Kay, the slide trombone. This makes twenty-three members in all.

STUDENT BODY MEETING

A Student Body Meeting was held last Thursday to present the awards won in the Albertina Kerr Nursery one drive and attend to other business.

The first prize—a Parker fountain pen—was won by Clara Bean, who sold 50 tags. Edward Johnson came second with 38, winning the second prize—a silver pencil.

Fifteen Wahl Eversharp pencils were won by Vera Endicott, Bernice Alpine, Velma Gheer, Lena Hatcher, Reva Ricketts, Georgianna Johnson, Lois Kay, Grace Horner, Ruth Philpott, Marion Musgrove, Rolan Musgrove, Julia Hamblock, Robert Cotton, James Augustine, and Clarence Bean for selling ten or more tickets each.

The Laurel editor gave a report of the Laurel work and suggested buying five volumes of the Little Leather Library and give them as prizes in the Laurel work. For instance, one for the best cartoon, the best story, the best write up and so forth. This suggestion was taken up and the Student Body decided to buy them.

The matter of electing a new Assistant Editor was taken up because Allen Young had resigned for the reason that he only expects to attend school the first semester next year. Mary Watson was elected with 51 votes, Eugene Laird was a close second with 49, and Lyle Beyers received 37 votes.

Mr. McCormack brought up the matter of the ticket campaign for the play, and between forty and fifty students signified their intention of assisting in the ticket sale.

Don P.: "Stines is the fellow who put the mark on the rocks."
Pat H. (sleepily): "What rocks?"

FRESHMAN MEETING

At the Freshman meeting Dec. 19, the class chose their colors, motto, and tower for the school year. Light Blue and Silver were chosen for colors; "Spizzerrinctum" for the motto and the white rose for the flower.

If the Freshmen live up to the motto as they expect to the class will be one of the leaders in Student Body affairs.

CAPTAIN NEXT YEAR

Allen Young, who played center this year, was elected football captain for next year to succeed Don Pierce. Young was a tower of strength in the line this year and the boys feel that they should do well under his leadership.

THE PLAY

The Junior play last Tuesday night was witnessed by a crowded theatre. Everyone seemed pleased with the work of the cast and the High School is well satisfied with the way the town supported it. The net proceeds were $136.90.

A lively ticket sale between the various rooms resulted in the following amounts being sold:

Low Freshmen	$53.75
Sophomore	44.00
Junior	25.75
Senior	24.00
High Freshmen	14.00
