Forecasting A Tremendous Spring Demand

more Ford cars and trucks were produced last year than the previous year, an increase of over 50 per cent.

In spite of this tremendous increase in production, it was impossible to meet delivery requirements during the spring and summer months when orders for 350,000 Ford Cars and Trucks could not be filled.

This year winter buying for immediate delivery has been more active than ever before—and in addition 200,000 orders have already been booked through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan for spring delivery.

These facts clearly indicate that the demand during this spring and summer will be far greater than ever, and that orders should be placed immediately with Ford Dealers as a means of protection against delay in securing your Ford Car or Truck or Fordson Tractor.

A small deposit down, with easy payments of the balance arranged, or your enrollment under the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan, will put your order on the preferred list for spring delivery.

Mrs. Maybelle Nordstrom

The death of Mrs. Maybelle Nordstrom, daughter of Peter Johnson who lives west of town, occurred Thursday, January 31 at the Salem hospital for the insane where she has been cared for most of the time for the past ten years. Her husband, C. L. Nordstrom, who was a section boss on the Southern Pacific, died about seven years ago. They were the parents of six children, Edward, Peter, John, Sidney and Emeline who now range in years from 11 to 23. Edward is living with his grandfather here. Mrs. Nordstrom's malady befell her at childbirth. She was 41 years of age and had been back here at her parents' occasionally during the past ten or twelve years.

The funeral services were conducted at the undertaking parlors Wednesday by Rev. H. V. Moore and the interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

Card of Thanks

Deeply appreciating the kindness of the friends and neighbors who assisted us in laying away the remains of our daughter, Mrs. Maybelle Nordstrom, I take this means of thanking them for their good offices and for the floral tributes they contributed.

WHY WOMEN USE GLYCERINE MIXTURE

Women appreciate the quick action of simple glycerine, buckthorn bark, etc., as mixed in Adlerika. Most medicines act only on lower bowel but Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, and removes all gasses and poisons. Excellent for obstinate constipation and to guard against appendicitis. Helps any cast gas on stomach in TEN minutes. By all leading druggists.

EAST FORK NOTES

Born Feb. 2nd, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Conley, at the Chaney and Lawhorn camp. Mother and babe doing well.

Nearly all of the men from the camp have been on the log drive for several days moving the first section of the floating logs, which filled the river from the Leatherman place to near the mouth of Elk Creek.

When a big rain comes to raise the river high enough, a jam of logs, which fills the river for half a mile from Oscar Bunch's place down, will be driven out.

Some days a lot of salmon are below the dam and make their way up the fish ladder or through the gateway when the gate is open.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rose are taking a few days vacation at Coquille and the Bay.

Governor Pierce prophesies that Hiram Johnson of California is to get the republican primary votes for president. If he is no wiser on that guess, than on his guess of lower taxes, his guess is a false cry. The pendulum of the depraved depravity of Oregon politics took it high swing when Walter Pierce was elected governor; since then people have learned what they got and are once more giving momentum to the forces of mind sobriety and truth. That means Hiram Johnson is not in on that swing.

A press dispatch states that "Jakey," a St. Louis goose, which took his whiskey straight, before prohibition days, is dead. Before prohibition days there were about 60,000 featherless geese and ganders died each year, because they took their whiskey straight or mixed. And he was a rare bird in that crowd of geese who got Associated Press special mention. A feathered drunk was a curiosity, a non-feathered toper was a common variety.

W. P. G. Harding, governor of the federal reserve bank of Boston, said, in speaking of the suicide of his daughter, Margaret Elliot, the act was due to "her love for social life, dancing every night and smoking cigarettes." It was with that girl as with the notorious James Stillman, the New York banker, as with Stokes, the hotel man, whose name is a stench. They fed on the wrong kind of "social life." The first Psalm recommends a social life without stings. And the Proverbs have some thing to say about the worth while kind of womanhood. They give a garment to character which contains no shoddy.

Caraway flavor and a teaspoon are two ingredients of a teaparty that congress has on hand, which causes the members to be more intent on being scandalously social than on the knitting of public business.

The man Fall proved himself a misfit as secretary of the Interior from the start, for he seemed to be lacking in intelligence and judging from articles in the Sunset magazine any man who comes out of the rotten borough of New Mexico, has itching palms.

Outside of Senator Caraway and a few others who exhibit brains, the other members of congress seem to be wholly interested in the arguments of You did and You didn't.

The man who stands above them all for absolute honesty of purpose and action is President Coolidge. It is not a question of political politics with him, it is the question of righteousness.

Alva Brown, the mail contractor, told us Monday that a radio message brought the news that Woodrow Wilson died Sunday morning. I am glad that he had my vote for President. He championed the cause of righteousness regardless of the consequences to himself or party, and stands out as one of the few great men of earth who won his cause even though he lost. The League of Nations lives and Woodrow Wilson's spirit emphasizes real living.
