Telling About People and Events in the City and County

C. O. King was in from McKinley Monday, making what he said was his annual trip to town.

Casey Jones has just finished the installation of a new radio set in his pool hall on Taylor street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold K. Hodge left for Eugene the first of the week after a few days' visit with home folks at Fishtrap.

One Marshfield clergyman, Rev. Neil J. Barnes, of the Baptist church, was called to solemnize four marriages last Saturday and Sunday.

It is reported from Powers that the Smith-Powers camps in that section will be closed two weeks for the Fourth of July—from June 21 to July 7.

Wednesday afternoon's mail train from Portland was held up by a freight train off the track near Canary, and did not reach here until bedtime.

Mrs. E. E. Johnson, Mrs. Philip Johnson and Miss Mary Esther Johnson returned Sunday from Portland. They drove out Wednesday of last week.

L. A. Parr has purchased the J. E. Norton lots on east Second street, just west of where E. L. Perrott lives, and expects to build a home there this year.

The ladies of the Church of Christ will hold a Cooked Food Sale, Saturday, June 14th, at Noesler's Grocery beginning at 10:00 a. m. Picnic lunch foods a specialty.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnson and daughter, Mary Esther, left Tuesday by auto for a week's trip to San Francisco and Oakland. Mr. Johnson had to go south on business.

Geo. H. Chaney has rented one of the suites of two rooms at the front of the second floor of the Noesler building, which he will use as an office for his logging business.

Superintendent Charles A. Howard, of the Marshfield school, is beating the brush in the Willamette valley this week in search of more teachers for the schools at the Bay.

Floyd Price has purchased the cottage, which A. C. Lukens is just finishing on Division street, opposite the Roy Neal residence. It will be ready for occupancy in a few days.

No more cranking your car when you have your battery repaired at Coquille Service Station. AT work guaranteed.

Since Finley contributed a couple of dollars to the city's coffers Wednesday for running over the fire house on Front street with car Tuesday evening after the department had made his record run.

Lafe Compton, manager of the Hotel Coquille, left for Portland Wednesday evening. He went with the Coos Bay Pirates, who were scheduled to take a prominent part in the Rose Festival there this week.

Cards have been received announcing the birth of a baby daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Marshal B. Pointer at Prince Rupert, B. C. The little lady's name is Marian Ann and she weighed eight and one-half pounds.

Remember there is another of those popular S. O. S. dances at the Masonic Temple this evening. Music by Belrdeaux's Happy 5 Orchestra.

The Community Club of Sanford Heights and Sunnyside will hold a cooked food sale in the former People's Market building, adjoining Stevens new meat market for 3 days beginning Monday, June 16 at 10 a. m.

S. M. Nosler says the furnishings for the apartments in his new building will be shipped from Portland June 20, and that they will be ready for occupancy by the first. About a dozen of them have already been rented.

The fire department was called out at 1:15 Tuesday night to the Henry West property, west of O. A. Minto's residence. The outhouse, in which the blaze started, was destroyed, but the boys kept the flames from spreading.

The drawing power of advertising was demonstrated at Marshfield Wednesday, when a foot specialist had to appeal to the paper that had made the mistaken statement that his treatment was to be free, to help turn the crowd away.

Mrs. F. L. Greenough and two sons accompanied her sisters, Mrs. Louise Carruthers and Mrs. W. E. Tallant, when they left for their home in Astoria yesterday morning. Mrs. Greenough will visit in Astoria for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Leslie left in their car early Tuesday morning for Portland. Mr. Leslie went as the representative of Chadwick Lodge No. 68, A. F. & A. M., to the Grand Lodge, which met Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

Don't worry about your battery when you can take it to an expert at the Coquille Service Station and have it inspected.

Blanco Lodge, A. F. A. M., is going to hold its annual birthday party at the lodge rooms in Marshfield on Thursday, June 26, and an invitation has been extended to all Masons here to attend. There will be work that night in the Master Mason degree.

The completion of the interesting Alaska article from Scribner's Monthly, which we began last week, is necessarily deferred until next week, to make room for the page advertisement of Coquille's coming industry—which means a whole lot to the city.

Another Marshfield banquet was held in the Hotel Coquille here Wednesday evening when about fifteen members of the 1922 graduating class came over here to hold a class reunion. They seemed to enjoy the dinner served and to be having a very glad time.

I am in the market for Chatham Bark, Wool, Mohair, and Hides. Geo. T. Moulton. 101f

Harlow Brown was slightly injured Tuesday morning at the Geo. Davis ranch above town when the car in which he was riding tipped over and rolled on to the Davis place. Another car cutting in ahead of them too quickly is said to have been the cause of the accident.

R. A. Caples, a newspaper man from Crescent City, California, who he recently helped get out a special edition for Jack Jusa's paper, made the Sentinel a call yesterday evening, coming up from Gold Hill, Jackson county, where he had been attending a mining conference.

The E. D. Webb family has moved into the residence on Spurgeon Hill recently vacated by Lynn A. Parr, but he expects soon to build a home of his own on the lot he recently purchased on Second street from Marc Shelley across the street east of the Grade school building.

Hardy Mast was in from Lee early this morning to meet his daughter, Miss Myrtle, who came in on the night train from the University at Eugene, for the summer vacation. She was highly honored last month by being elected secretary of the sophomore class of next year.

Special Chicken Dinner at the new Coquille Hotel every Sunday.

Wm. Norris, who has been cared for at the home of his nephew, Jas. W. Laird, for several years, has been failing much more rapidly lately. He is practically helpless and requires so much care that Mrs. Albert Merchant, of Marshfield, has been over here for several days assisting in taking care of him.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Lorenz, L. H. Hazard and Miss Pauline Lorenz drove out to Eugene last Sunday in the Hazard car to spend the day. The L. A. Liljeqvist family was down from Portland, and the Hazard family, the Liljeqvist family and Helen and Delia Sherwood were entertained at dinner at the Rev. F. G. Jennings' home.

L. H. Hazard intends leaving tomorrow for Eugene to be in attendance at the baccalaureate sermon Sunday and at the graduation exercises Monday when his daughter, Miss Marjorie, graduates from the University of Oregon. The Hazard family and Mrs. Hacker will probably return home next Tuesday or Wednesday.

Geo. W. Marshall, accompanied by his wife and daughter, drove in here from Tacoma last Saturday and remained over Sunday. He is the tax assessment man for the Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. on the coast and gets in here about four times a year. They are old friends of C. J. Fuhrman, having lived in the same section of Wisconsin years ago.

Mrs. F. G. Bunch left last Friday on her way to Oklahoma in response to a wire that her father was not expected to live. After she had started Dr. Bunch received word that her father was dead and the funeral was to be held before she could get there. She accordingly left the train at La Grande, on receipt of the doctor's wire and got back home Tuesday.

L. D. McDams returned this week from Salt Lake, Utah, where he has been in the painting and decorating business for the past four and a half years. He has a small card in our advertising columns this week. He recalls having a card printed in colored ink in a Salt Lake daily for which he paid $150 for one issue, which he says brought him business enough to pay well for what it cost.

Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer and children and Dr. L. E. Glaisyer left last Saturday morning for Portland, where she was attending Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star this week. From there she will go to Tacoma to visit her parents for a couple of weeks. On their return Dr. Glaisyer intends to take his family up to the homestead above Remote, on Rock creek, where they will spend the summer.

J. L. Smith left Wednesday noon for Grants Pass where he is going as a representative of O. A. C., to sell pure bred bulls. The college, the banks, the county agent's office of Josephine county, and the breeders, have been conducting a "better bull" campaign and Mr. Smith is to handle the sales. He will be back in a week or ten days to get his family and they expect to remain there for several weeks this summer.

Fine Job of Graveling

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sherwood and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lorenz returned Wednesday evening from a four days' camp at the Kanu Klub grounds at Brewster.

Mr. Sherwood is enthusiastic over the rock work being done in the Brewster valley section. He says that he never saw gravel being spread so rapidly, that the Brewster grade has all been covered and that the crew is working both directions from the rock crusher.

He also says that he never saw a finer lot of Alsye clover hay than that which R. A. Easton has just cut on his ranch out there.

Chapter Delegates to Portland

There was quite an exodus for Portland last Sunday morning when a number of the members of Beulah chapter O. E. S., left for the meeting of the Grand Chapter there this week. Those going were Mesdames H. W. Pierce, Annie Rooney, J. W. Miller, C. T. Skeels, G. E. Low and Misses Marvel Skeels, Jere Low and Marvin Hawkins. Several of the ladies are members of the team from the Coos County Natal Day Association, which exemplified the work for the Grand chapter Tuesday evening. Miss Skeels was on the program that evening for a solo and her mother was her accompanist.

Arrayo Sentenced to 20 Years

Macao Arrayo, the Mexican who was indicted by the grand jury a couple of weeks ago for assault with intent to commit rape was found guilty Tuesday evening after the jury had been out a short time. He was sentenced Wednesday morning to 20 years in the penitentiary by Judge Kendall, who stated that he would recommend to the federal authorities that Arrayo be deported after he had served his time. Arrayo's assault was on a 16-year old girl, who fought him off for an hour before she finally escaped.

Coquille at Marshfield Sunday

Should Coquille and North Bend win their games next Sunday the Coos County League would be tied from top to bottom—all four clubs having a percentage of 500. Coquille plays Marshfield at the Bay, and should have no trouble repeating last Sunday's performance. North Bend plays at Powers and they stand an even chance of taking the game.

O. A. C. Students Home

The O. A. C. students from Coquille and vicinity returned home this week. Fred Wimer and his parents, who went out for the commencement exercises, came home Tuesday, as did Dorothy Bean, of Riverton. Wm. Oerding got home on Sunday, Lorin Schroeder on Monday and Fred Harlocker on Tuesday.

Street Dance a Success

The street dance for the benefit of the Coquille Baseball club Tuesday evening was a success. A large crowd was in attendance and all fully enjoyed themselves. The receipts were $125, and the net something over $80. It is planned to give another in a couple of weeks.

Bandon's Sons of Beches

The Bandon Sons of Beches is the name adopted by our sister city at the mouth of the Coquille for its booster organization. With Umpqua Chiefs to the east of us, Pirates to the north of us and Sons of Beches to the west of us, Coquille will have to organize for self protection with a gang of River Rats.

If you want to subscribe for a Portland daily the clubbing combination we offer with the Sentinel will save you money.

Broke All House Records

The most surprised man in town Tuesday evening was C. A. Gage, of the Liberty Theatre, when 700 paid admission to see the show. This was the largest attendance that ever entered a show house in Coquille.

The motion picture "Brass" was a mighty fine film but the magnet which drew two full houses that evening, was the curiosity attending the snap shots made by C. Wilson, local photographer, the first of the week. "See yourself as others see you," was the advertising card Mr. Wilson handed to those he snapped, and they came to see.

When the first show was over the crowd waiting for admission extended well up the street and many were unable to get in at all.

Letter from Mrs. Paulson

Last Tuesday Mrs. J. E. Paulson wrote to the Sentinel from Butte, Montana, requesting the forwarding of their paper to Superior, Wisconsin. She says, "We have had a lovely trip so far. Though it has rained every day but one, we haven't minded it. It has been snowing up here, too, but fortunately we haven't been caught in a snow storm."

It is encouraging to hear that it is raining somewhere, even though we have not had more than a trace for weeks.

Along the Highway

Mrs. Marion Clinton entertained the C. F. Club Friday afternoon. Seventeen members responded to the roll call. After discussing plans for the cafeteria lunch to be served during the Chautauqua week, Mrs. Clinton served delicious refreshments assisted by Mrs. Lund.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sanders and baby arrived Saturday afternoon in their Ford sedan from Portland to visit Mrs. Sanders' parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Lund and family.

Shelton Von Pegert and Miss Olive Gisholt were married Saturday and departed immediately for Marshfield, where the groom is employed.

Louis and Edwin Lund have gone up Coos River, where they will help build roads during the summer.

The infant daughter of Marion Clinton, who has been quite sick, is reported much better.
