For Her Eighteenth Birthday

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ellingson entertained at their home with a delightful dinner-dance, in honor of their daughter, Dena's eighteenth birthday. The party was planned as a surprise and all the guests that were present when Dena entered the room have every reason to believe that it was a complete surprise.

The evening opened with dancing and after all the guests had arrived they were invited into the dining room which was prettily decorated. In the center of the table was a large bowl of sweet peas from which four pink streamers lead to lighted candles near each corner of the table. Beside the place cards which were little dance programs, each girl found a large pink rose bud and each boy a pink rose boutonniere.

The Butterfly Gardens of Marshfield furnished splendid music for the evening.

The party was so planned that there was not an idle moment for anyone and all were hearty in their thanks to Mrs. Ellingson and Miss Edna Robison for the delightful evening they had spent.

Those present were: Misses Dena Ellingson, Georgianna Johnson, Avis Hartson, Myrtle Olsen, Mary Esther Johnson, Elva Wiley, Alleen Wilson, Alice Collier, Mary Watson, Marian Norton, and Clarabelle Minton, Messrs. Wayne Robinson, Hadley Curtis, Lawrence Moon, Layton Nesler, Don Pierce, Clare Lemonsky, Pat Harville, Tyler Walker, Eugene Laird, Allen Young and the hostesses, Mrs. Ellingson and Edna Robison.
