MUNSING Wear HOSIERY

It is with real satisfaction that we announce to our trade that we now carry a line of Munsingwear Hosiery.

For a number of years it has been our pleasure to serve our discriminating trade with knitted or woven suits bearing the Munsingwear label. There is no line of merchandise in our store that we have sold with more confidence. The name Munsingwear is known everywhere to stand for the best in manufacturing and merchandising. Until recently it has been impossible to purchase Hosiery bearing the Munsingwear symbol. Now Munsingwear Hosiery is offered in a complete range of numbers for Men, Women, Children and Infants.

The Munsingwear Hosiery we believe will be as popular with our trade as Munsingwear undergarments.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. Philip Johnson was hostess to a bridge breakfast at 11:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, honoring her sister, Miss Esther Ramont, of Modesto, Calif.

Four tables of bridge followed the lovely three course breakfast. Mrs. Keith Leslie holding high score and winning first prize, Miss Ramont receiving the guest prize, both prizes being beautiful toilet accessories. Adorning the tables and throughout the rooms were magnificent pink dahlias and sweet peas.

A number of out of town guests included the following: Misses Thelma and Frances Lyons, Ruth Golden and Catherine Nicholson, of Marshfield. Coquille guests were Misses Helen and Della Sherwood, and Mesdames J. A. Berg, F. G. Bunch, Julius Ruble, L. A. Parr, Keith Leslie, E. E. Leslie, M. O. Hawkins, C. J. Fuhrman, E. E. Johnson, J. A. Lamb and Mrs. H. A. Young. Miss Dorothy Belle Endicott, of Bandon, and Miss Mary Esther Johnson assisted the hostess in serving.

The L. P. Maury family invited a number of friends to join them in a picnic supper in the city grove last Monday evening for the pleasure of their son and brother, Vane, who drove up from San Francisco for a brief visit with the family and friends. The occasion was a most merry one and the party numbered nearly forty, the following families and friends being present: Geo. A. Robinson, Roy Neal, G. E. Low, H. C. Getz, F. L. Greenough, H. W. Pierce, H. A. Young, L. P. Maury, Mrs. J. A. Lamb, Mrs. Sarah Jayes, Mrs. Bertha Smith, Mrs. Anna Rooney, Miss Marian Young, Miss Bess Maury, Misses Myrtle and Maymie DeLong, Miss Ella Horn and Miss Mabel Eismann.

Mrs. Carl Jorgensen entertained the L. L. L. Club Thursday afternoon at her home on the Marshfield highway. The time was spent at fancy work and social chat. At the close refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Geo. Gilman, Earl Cross, A. H. Gould, Mart Jacobsen, Walter Simmons, P. J. Jacobsen, E. L. Detlefsen, D. F. Thomson, J. Heckert, C. I. Kime, and the hostess, assisted by Misses Dulcie and Blanche Jorgensen.

Fleet to Be at Seattle

Many of us will want to go to Seattle next summer if both the Atlantic and Pacific naval fleets meet there for maneuvers, as it is now indicated that they may. The graduating class of the Annapolis naval academy will also visit that port on its training ship.

Rotary Clubs Banquet

The first annual inter-city banquet of the Rotary clubs of Roseburg, Marshfield and North Bend was held Monday evening at the American Legion room at the armory. The dinner was served by the Presbyterian ladies.

It will be easier and more pleasant to take your Sunday dinner at the new Coquille Hotel.

M. E. Church

All services at the usual hours Sunday. You are welcome.

Morning sermon: "The Final Verdict." This sermon will view man in his fallen, unregenerate state—the natural man in need of grace.

Evening sermon: "The Person and Nature of Satan." This will be the first of a series of Sunday evening sermons on Satan. Do you know what the Bible says about Satan and satanic teachers? Can you discern his doctrines and identify his teachers? Are you his servant? Have you heard his servants preach? How do you know? It is your duty to know. Satan can beguile the wise easier than the foolish.

J. S. Panix, pastor

Church of Christ

On last Sunday 136 came for Bible School and 109 stayed for church and others came for the later service. We hope all will plan to come for both services. The "Go to Church" campaign is on, let us all work for its success.

Bible School begins at 10. Morning worship at 11. We want you to consider a subject vital to the success of our work.

Christian Endeavor at 7. We had a fine service last Sunday evening. Let us make it better each time.

Evangelistic services at 8. A message for your need. Come and enjoy these services and we will try and do you good.

Eugene A. Palmer, minister
