Along the Highway

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon VonPegert left for Gold Beach this week, where they will make their future home. Sheldon has accepted a position with the Coast Auto Lines.

Two very successful community meetings have been held at the home of O. C. Harvey, the first one Saturday night and the second Tuesday night. Further plans were discussed for financing the Community Hall and at the same meeting the community decided to have a stand during the Corn Show, where we might display our wares and dispense good things to eat.

P. F. Gehlke has been confined to his home this week with a sore foot and a boil on his face, both of which are very painful.

The C. F. club met with Mrs. Harry Varney last Friday to make articles, which the club will sell during the Corn Show.

Missionary Society Tuesday

The Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Dr. Richmond Tuesday, Nov. 25th, at two o'clock, everybody welcome. Anyone who wishes to contribute canned fruit or vegetables or new or worn garments to the missionary box will please leave same at the parsonage or church, so the box may be packed by the last of the month.

"I saved the price of a new tire this week. I had the Coquille Service Station fix that blow out, and now she's jake." Better take your old tires to them and have them vulcanized.

Thanksgiving Services . . . . . St. James' Church, Coquille, Thanksgiving Day service at 10:30 a. m. Celebration of The Holy Eucharist with short address. Offerings will be for the "Newboy's Cot" in the Episcopal Hospital of "The Good Samaritan" at Portland. Everyone cordially invited. A. W. Bell, Vicar.

M. E. Church

All services at the usual hours Sunday. Prayer meeting 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. You are welcome.

Morning sermon, Thanksgiving: "The Son of God Glorified." Luke 24: 49-53.

All true thanksgiving has its source in the crucified, risen, ascended, glorified, and returning Lord and Savior. Aside from the "new birth" we cannot know Him as Lord and Savior. "No one can call Jesus Lord but by the Holy Ghost." All other thanksgiving is empty.

Evening sermon: "Returning Apostates Acknowledge God and Give Thanks." "Then the fire of the Lord fell, and consumed the burnt-offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench." First Kings 18:28 J. S. Penix, pastor

Presbyterian Church

"Trust no party, sect, or faction; Trust no leaders in the fight; But in every word and action Trust in God, and do the right."

Sunday morning at eleven, just off the Court House Square: "Unsectarian Religion."

Charles S. Bergner, Minister.

M. E. Church, South

"Just or Generous" will be the subject of the message at the morning service. At the evening service, 7:30 o'clock, the pastor will speak on the theme, "In our own Streets."

The Church School, Mr. M. O. Hawkins superintendent, will begin its session at 9:45 a. m. Good music, well organized classes, and other features of interest to all.

The Epworth League holds its meeting at 8:30 p. m. An interesting and enthusiastic service for young people.

Boys' meeting, Monday evening at 7:30 for boys of 12 years or older, Tuesday evening for boys under 12. Young People's Chorus, Tuesday evening at 7:30.

Prayer Service Wednesday evening at 7:30. This service will be led by Mr. A. T. Morrison and will be interesting and helpful.

You will receive a cordial welcome at the church and are invited to attend all the services.

Milton F. Hill, Pastor.

Church of Christ

Young Peoples service next Sunday morning. All young people are urged to be present. Others, of course, will be welcome, but the young people will have first thought and consideration in the conduct of the service. The message will be applicable to all, but especially adapted to the needs of the young. The theme for consideration will be: "Getting the Most Out of Life."

Come to the Bible School at 10 a. m. Communion and Preaching at 11. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

Song service and sermon at 7:30 p. m. Sermon subject: "The Triumphant Gospel." Don't fail to get this message.

Prayer service on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m.

Eugene A. Palmer, minister

Christian Science Society

Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Sunday Service at 11 a. m. Subject for next Sunday, "Soul and Body."

Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock.

Free public Reading Room open in Church Building every Tuesday and Saturday afternoons from two to four.

Church of God

You are invited to attend the regular services of the Church of God at the corner of Henry and Seventh Sts., where the people believe the Bible to be the inspired Word of God.

Some of the distinctive features of our faith are: The Spiritual Birth, the Baptism and Gifts of the Holy Spirit, Bible Unity of Believers, Divine Healing, the Second Coming of Christ.

Services Sunday, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Baptist Church

Rev. J. D. Chappelle, Home Board Missionary, now in charge of the Chapel Car "Good Will," will have charge of the new movement, which will result in a Baptist church for Coquille. A Sunday School will be organized and the church perfected in a few weeks. It is now known that there are more than thirty-five Baptists in the city, who are anxious to become charter members of the new church.

These Baptists have secured the Woodman hall and will hold Sunday School at ten o'clock and preaching service at eleven and seven thirty each Lord's day. Mr. Chappelle, who is supported by the American Baptist Publication Society and the American Baptist Home Mission Society will act as pastor for the new church until it is able to settle a regular pastor on the field.

Mr. Chappelle announces his program for next Sunday, as follows: Sunday School at ten o'clock. All Baptists and all persons not now in any of the Sunday Schools in Coquille are urged to come to the new school at the Woodman Hall. At eleven o'clock the sermon theme will be, "Essential Elements in Christian Growth." In the evening the minister's theme will be, "The Spirit of Prayer, the Acme of Soul Life."

The Baptists extend a cordial welcome to the entire public to worship in these meetings.

Meet at Arago in 1925

L. E. Alexander, of Coquille, was elected president of Myrtle Union Christian Endeavor, during the annual banquet in the basement of Marshfield Church of Christ Saturday evening. Arago was selected as the location for the 1925 convention but the date was not set.

Other officers chosen were: William Stauff, of Arago, vice president; Eleanor Foley, of Coquille, secretary; J. A. Jackson, of Marshfield, treasurer; and Stella Parker, of Myrtle Point, secretary of the devotional department.

The banquet was attended by about 75 persons, including representatives from Coquille, Myrtle Point, Arago, Marshfield, North Bend and Eugene. Rev. H. E. Russell made the address of welcome and response was given by William Stauff, of Arago.

Miss Hazel Duvall, retiring president, served as toastmistress, calling upon the following for short talks: Dr. Walter Meyers, of Eugene, Miss Stella Parker, of Myrtle Point, F. F. Cooper, of Arago, Mrs. A. R. Knowlton, of North Bend, Guy Armstrong, of Marshfield, and Miss Eleanor Foley, of Coquille.
