January's Bargain Days
This week the Sentinel publishes the third Community page advertisement in which are listed special bargain offers by two dozen of Coquille's business houses.

The inauguration of this year's campaign was not simply an advertising scheme. It was entered into by the business men who knew what this sort of a campaign had accomplished elsewhere and knew, if entered into in the proper way would likewise be successful here. These advertisements offer inducements each month on some one article in each of the stores participating that are sold on Saturday and Monday at prices below the regular market. By watching the ads a considerable saving can be effected.

And it is not only on these special sale dates that it pays to trade in Coquille. We have heard of authentic instances where Coquille valley people have patronized the Portland concerns which promise big savings on groceries. Later they have taken the identical bill to their local merchant and have found that, as happened in one instance, the cost of a bill delivered in Coquille was over $21, while the local merchant would sell it from his shelves at regular prices, for a little over $17.

It pays to trade at home; you keep your money here where you will get a chance at it again, and you quite often pay more for your purchases, freight considered, away from home.

The same applies to the local merchant, and there are some of them here, who patronize Eugene, Salem, Portland and San Francisco printers. If the work is of such a nature that the Sentinel press cannot turn it out, we have connections whereby we can get the work done at no greater cost, if as much, as is asked by the flock of printing house salesmen who weekly canvass the town.

Oerdings Branching Out

One of the newest industries, which is showing signs of a healthy growth in Coquille is the saah and door department recently installed in the Oerding Mfg. Co. plant near the bridge. Five men are now employed there and from the way the public is responding to their advertising, they feel sure it will require a still larger payroll to meet the demand for the output of that department.

There are also employed in the plant one man at the turning machine, working on myrtlewood novelties, and three girls work part time there. The demand for these novelties is also on the increase and the company is booking some good sized orders for Coos county's beautiful myrtle.

By Boat, Auto and on Foot

S. M. Olson, over from his Fat Elk ranch Tuesday, said that he reached town by travelling three different ways. He left home in a boat, landed on the highway and then walked over the dike until picked up by a passing auto. Quite a little distance on the Fat Elk-Fishtrap road is out of sight during high water, indicating the need of moving it higher up on the mountain.

sureties, was approved and filed with the mayor.

Just before adjournment, which did not occur until after eleven o'clock, A. T. Boldon requested the council to have some of the culverts in the north end of town enlarged. He said they were damming up the water in some instances and causing ponds to be created, especially one on north Coulter.

The council will meet again, next Monday to act on the First street sewer assessment.

Mrs. J. H. Schroeder Is Gone

Mrs. J. Henry Schroeder, of Leneve, died yesterday morning, the cause of her death being double pneumonia. She had been suffering with bronchial pneumonia for a couple of weeks, and after their baby boy was born last Saturday, the trouble took the malignant form.

The funeral services will be held at the Ellingson Chapel here tomorrow afternoon at 1:30. Interment will be in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Born Bessie DeLong, March 15, 1892, at Prosper, she had lived in this county all of her life, except for a short time when, with her husband, she resided at Shasta Valley, California. For years they resided at Bandon and the first of this year moved to Leneve where they had just purchased the Conlogue & McGraw store.

She was married to J. H. Schroeder March 15, 1917, and the baby last Saturday was their first child, although they had a small boy some time ago.

Her father, Isaac DeLong, died at Arago in 1916. Her mother, Mrs. Gus Schroeder, now resides at Arago.

American Legion to Function

A re-organization meeting of Coquille Post No. 86, American Legion was held in the city hall last evening. The real purpose of the post is to put new life into the organization for the coming year and to function as do the posts elsewhere in the state.

Remodelling Leneve Building

The sale of the Leneve building at the foot of Taylor on Front street, to H. D. Jones, was approved this week by Judge Kendall in Circuit court and Mr. Jones now has clear title to the building.

He had already begun its remodeling by tearing out the small lean-to addition in which Ned C. Kelley for so many years maintained an office and which was later used by the Coast Auto Lines, and he plans to put the stairway to the apartments he will fit up above, on the east side of the building.

He will stucco the building, put on a metal roof, put in a plate glass front and remodel it in such a way that it will be much more nearly fire-proof than it is now.

Two store rooms will occupy the lower floor, one of which he has already leased, and eventually he expects to occupy the other room with his billiard parlor, but not at once.

G 'n G Entertained

Last Friday evening the G. in G. club were very delightfully entertained at the home of Miss Ella Horn and Miss Mabel Eisaman. After an evening of fancy work and a jolly good time the hostesses served a delicious lunch. At one time during the evening when a car outside was stuck in the mud, the girls rushed to rescue as though they were girl scouts performing their daily good turn. For this service Miss Maury and Miss Willoughby were especially rewarded. The fifteen girls enjoying the evening were Misses Myrtle and Maymie DeLong, La Verne Lamb, Connie Willoughby, Della Lund, Eva Haines, Eva Lenox, Bess Maury, Edna Asplund, Marian Young, Agnes Whetstone Mrs. Bertha Smith, Mrs. Anna Rooney and the hostesses.

First Street Stucco Building

The Radio-Electric Hardware Co. is just completing a 50x50 sheet iron enclosed warehouse at the rear of their storeroom on First street. They are also at work on the stuccoing of the store front. Show cases and racks, manufactured in the Oerding plant here, are soon to be installed in the store, which will give it a very attractive interior appearance.
