SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. H. S. Newton entertained at two tables of bridge Monday evening. Those enjoying the evening were Mesdames J. L. Aasen, J. A. Burket, G. Earl Low, Roy Neal, F. C. McNelly, T. B. Curris and Viola Collier. Mrs. Currie held high score for the evening play.

The quarterly dinner of the Coquille Bridge Club was held at the home of Mrs. F. L. Greenough Monday evening with Mrs. J. A. Lamb, Mrs. E. W. Lorenz, Mrs. L. H. Hazard, Mrs. H. A. Young and Mrs. Greenough as hostesses, who were very charmingly dressed as gypsies. The guests were Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. Neils Osmundson, Mrs. Tracy Leach, Mrs. Geo. Lorenz and Mrs. H. W. Pierce, who came dressed as school girls. All were seated around a beautifully appointed table, where a most excellent dinner was served. Later bridge was enjoyed until a late hour.

Wednesday evening the officers of Beulah Chapter, O. E. S., met at the hall for a practice and at 8:30 were joined by their husbands and all proceeded to the home of J. W. Miller to give him a real birthday surprise party. The guests all wore something to represent a song and they wrote down what song each one was trying to represent. Mrs. H. W. Pierce received the prize for guessing all but one. Dr. Low and Geo. Battey were captains for charades, which caused a great deal of mirth and merriment. In a guessing contest Mrs. C. T. Skeels held high numbers and received a prize.

With a few fitting remarks, Mr. Parr presented Mr. Miller with a card table from the guests.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following: Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer, Dr. and Mrs. G. Earl Low, Messrs and Mesdames H. S. Norton, F. C. McNelly, C. C. Eviand, C. T. Skeels, H. W.
