Upper Valley Victorious

The upper Coquille Valley walked off with all basketball honors last Friday and Saturday evenings. Coquille won from Marshfield 22 to 7; Myrtle Point handed North Bend at 17 to 11 licking and Arago took Bandon down the line 21 to 13. On Saturday night Powers trimmed Coos River 29 to 7.

The game here Friday evening, while one sided in score, was fairly even in playing skill. But Coquille was better at basket shooting and ran up a much higher percentage than did the visitors for successful shots out of attempts made.

Marshfield started off with a rush before Coquille's defense steadied and scored two field goals in the first quarter, but that was all of it. Their other three points were from free throws.

Lester Wilson was the chief scorer in the second quarter, throwing three in the period.

Pulford tied that in the third section with three, and in the fourth Simmons and Richmond each tossed a two counter.

The play was not as sure and accurate as it will be in another game, but the whole squad showed up much better in this first game of the season than last year's team did in the first game. All of which augurs well for a successful season, for last year's quintet was no slouch.

The local boys made a 60 per cent record on free throws, scoring six and missing an equal number. Marshfield scored three out of 15 attempts.

The following shows the points scored by each player:

Marshfield	Coquille
Johnson R F 5	Wilson R F 6
Maginnis L F 2	Pulford L F 7
Dashney L F	Simmons C 2
Clinger C	Nosler R G 2
Hall C	Richmond R G 2
Colver R G	Rice L G 2
Mattson L G	Curtis L G 1

Johnson, for Marshfield, and Rice and Nosler, for Coquille, had to retire before the game's end with four fouls to the credit of each.

This week the Coquille squad was from the Coos Venue and Box Co. quitted Tuesday night 25 to 8, and Wednesday night 21 to 8. The game with Elks team 15 to 8. The game says the boys good practice.

A Poor Alibi

In the Coos Bay Times last night the Marshfield high school presents its alibi for its defeat here last Friday evening in basketball. "The floor is too small." Bah! Why not take defeat like men and admit that you were simply outplayed in all departments. "Our team was superior to the valley team in passing" is all bunk. Marshfield was not superior in anything but tripping.

Funeral Services Today

The funeral services of Mrs. Matilda Spencer, of Bandon will take place at that city this (Friday) afternoon and will be conducted by Rev. A. W. Bell. Mrs. Spencer had a paralytic stroke, Dec. 9 and two weeks ago was taken to a Salem hospital. Her husband died at Bandon four years ago, and she has since been doing a real estate business there and acting as agent and collecting rents for Arthur Ellingson. She was a little over 50 years of age and had been a resident of Bandon for the past fourteen years. She is survived by two brothers, G. A. Hoffman, of Nevada, and J. H. Hoffman, of Salem.

This Year's Market Roads

In certifying to the State Highway Commission the market roads in Coos county on which funds from that source are to be expended, the county court named the following: Myrtle Point to Sitkum. Norway to Lee to Fairview. Upper Two-Mile (below Bandon) from the highway east. North Bank. Coquille to Fairview. Highway up North Fork to Cooper bridge. Lee to McKinley. Another matter considered by the court at its session last week was the vacation of Ocean Drive in Bandon. The county surrendered jurisdiction to the city, which was accepted by it. They plan down there to improve that driveway to the ocean bluff this coming summer. The petition for the vacation of that old county road from Fifth and Henry streets in Coquille to the Marshfield Highway, was dismissed for insufficiency of names on the petition. S. A. Griswold was appointed constable for district No. 11, at Powers. Roadmaster W. A. Gilbert was given permission to use the small blue print room adjacent to the county surveyor's office and authorized to have the double opening closed up. The roadmaster's office is more cramped for space than any other in either section of the court house.

Drowned in Elk Creek

Oliver Train, 13-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Train, was drowned in Elk creek, near Buns, on the north fork of the Coquille near Wednesday, about noon. He was working with other log drivers during the frostiest getting out logs to the main river when the accident happened.

From what we can gather he was riding a log in the swift waters of the creek when the log he was on either hit the bank of the creek or another log and bumped him off into the swift water.

Oliver had been working in the William Oiler logging camp since last fall, helping place the logs in the creek until sufficient water came so they could be driven out. The body had not been recovered this morning, but searching parties are still out looking for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Train have the sympathy of the whole community in their bereavement. This is the second son they have lost by drowning.

Tic following from R. A. Eastern, the Sentinel's East Fork correspondent, throws additional light on the cause of the unfortunate accident:

"A maple sapling was ahead of the jam. He went and chopped it, gave one blow too many, so that when it gave way he was pitched into deep water." The jam did not give way but the boy on the hand said that Train only came up once and then only his head showed. The body has not been found at this writing."

M. E. South Missionary Society

The Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South held their monthly Missionary Tea at the passage Thursday, Mrs. M. F. Hill hostess and leader. After the regular opening exercises, Mrs. M. G. Hawkins gave an interesting review of the book on "The Child and America," which the society is to study this year.

Miss Marguerite Henny gave some readings, which were heartily enjoyed. Mrs. Paul Walker also favored the society with two songs, beautifully rendered.

Those present were: Mrs. M. F. Hill, Mrs. J. S. Lawrence, Mrs. E. Smith, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. H. Hill, Mrs. Johnson, E. A. Myers, J. E. Nosler, L. A. Pinkston, Wm. Way, Edna Hill, J. S. Hank, W. L. Along the Highway

Although everything was done the hump power could do, Alex Sandus passed away Thursday evening, Jan. 8, and was laid to rest in the Masonic Cemetery Sunday afternoon. A large number of friends gathered to pay their last respects to the deceased. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the family in their bereavement.

H. L. Varney has been engaged in repairing the building formerly occupied by Gooder's Garage. Mrs. Fred Van Fugent went to Myrtle Point Sunday to be with her son, Lawton, who has a badly infected hand.

Edwin Lund was called to Portland Tuesday morning by the illness of his brother-in-law, Claude Sandus.

Logs From East Fork

Successful driving of about 22 million feet of logs in the east fork of the Coquille river has been completed, leaving about two-thirds of the total amount still in the river, lumbermen say. A heavy drive was on in the east fork yesterday, while on the middle fork a jam six miles long was reported.

If you want to subscribe for a Portland daily the clubbing combination we offer with the Sentinel will save you money.

May Have Federal Building

Hope of a new federal building in Marshfield was renewed today, when Chester Clark announced that he had been asked to submit an estimate of space required in the building by the U. S. Customs office. Request was made by the architect H. A. Hayward, assistant director of customs.

Clark has filed request for 3447 square feet of floor space for the customs office and a like space for the immigration service. He pointed out the need of space for U. S. internal revenue department, an office for U. S. army engineers, U. S. weather bureau and U. S. land office. Senator Charles L. McNary introduced the bill for the new building and with Senator R. N. Stanfield promises to give every aid in securing its passage in Congress.—News.

Riverton School Notes

It was learned Monday that all the high school students had passed the first semester examinations and were ready to begin the new work.

The people of this community are much interested in the progress of our new high school, many have come to watch the carpenters at work.

The president of the Riverton School Student Body called a special meeting Wednesday morning to discuss a few matters regarding athletic supplies and to elect a new editor-in-chief, as Grace Johnson had resigned. Norma Carlson was elected.

Mr. G. H. Sell is still critically ill, at his home near Riverton, but we are hoping for his early recovery.

Another box of new books has arrived and the contents have been checked over and placed in the high school library.

Two new pupils, Harold Huston of the fourth grade his brother Clarence of the first, registered Monday.

While Miss Mabel Hull, one of the high school students, was in town Saturday, she called on Mrs. M. C. Harvey, her teacher.

Miss Grace Johnson, a ninth grade student, has quit school, much to the sorrow of her classmates and teachers.

Miss Helen Carlson, another ninth grade student, was absent from school Thursday afternoon and all day Friday on account of illness.

Gall Hufford, a fourth grader, has been confined to her home the past few days seriously ill.

Miss Mamie Cavett spent Tuesday night with her friend, Miss Gladys White.

Roy Smith was absent from school this week on account of tonsillitis.

Alta Gheer was absent because of illness Monday afternoon and Tuesday but she has recovered and is back in school again.

Special Chicken Dinner at the new Coquille Hotel every Sunday.
