Presbyterian Church
Did you ever have a consultation of doctors at your bedside? Didn't you feel good when they disagreed? Nobody knew what to do next.
Doctors of Divinity disagree too. Some folks think that that means there is no hope in the church. That's the wrong conclusion.
Sunday morning at eleven: "When Doctors Disagree."
Charles S. Bergner, Minister.

St. James Episcopal Church
Septuagesima Sunday (Feb. 8th)
Services as follows:
10 a. m. Church School.
7:30 p. m. Evening Prayer and short address.
Everyone cordially welcome.
A. W. Bell, Vicar.

M. E. Church
All services at the usual hours Sunday. Prayer meeting Wednesday. You are welcome.
Morning sermon: "The Holy Spirit Speaking through a Holy Man." "And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke." Acts 6:10. Most so-called church work has no relation to the Church, and amounts to nothing because it is not wrought by the Holy Spirit. Satan laughs at impotent man and his frail works. We need the Holy Spirit. He is our victory.
Evening sermon: "What Shall I Do with Jesus?" Matthew 27:22. Solemn question. No one can possibly avoid it. Unsaved soul, how many times have you rejected Him? Professing Christian, how often have you betrayed Him? Have you exalted "cross-puzzles" and made much of trifles and tried to forget this supreme question? What have you done with Jesus? Have you mocked Him with your make-belief religion?
J. S. Penix, pastor.

M. E. Church, South
"The Nearness of the Living Truth," will be the subject of the message Sunday morning.
The Church School opens at 10 a. m.
Epworth League 8:30 p. m.
At the evening service the pastor will speak on, "The Rejected Son."
Prayer Service Thursday evening at 7:30 in the basement of the church.
You are invited to attend all the services of the church.
Milton F. Hill, Pastor.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. H. C. Getz was a charming hostess last Thursday afternoon when she entertained at a one-thirty bridge luncheon. Covers were laid for Mesdames Frank Thrift, T. B. Currie, F. C. McNelly, Jas. Brady, J. L. Aasen, A. O. Walker, H. W. Pierce, and the hostess. Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. T. B. Currie holding high score.

Mrs. Jas. Brady entertained with two tables of Bridge Monday evening. Those enjoying the evening were Mesdames W. V. Glaisyer, J. L. Aasen, J. A. Burket, H. S. Norton, H. C. Getz, G. Earl Low, and M. J. Hartson. Mrs. Low held high score for the evening's play.

The Coquille Bridge club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Tracy Leach Monday evening, with Mesdames F. L. Greenough, E. W. Lorenz, L. H. Hazard, H. A. Young, J. L. Smith, C. C. Eviand, Nels Osmundson, H. W. Pierce and Miss Marian Young and Miss Pauline Lorenz present. Mrs. Greenough held high score. Mrs. Osmundson assisted the hostess in serving delicious refreshments.

The "Justamere" sewing club met with Mrs. E. E. Johnson Tuesday afternoon. The rooms of the Johnson home were decorated with masses of pussy willows. After a pleasant afternoon of sewing the guests were invited into the dining room, where covers were placed for Mesdames L. H. Hazard, H. A. Young, J. L. Smith, H. W. Pierce, Thos. White, M. O. Hawkins, W. S. Sickels, Paul Van Scoy, Nels Osmundson, F. L. Greenough, C. J. Fuhrman and the hostess.

Mrs. Clem Walte and Mrs. Curtis Townsend entertained the members of St. James Episcopal Guild at the home of Mrs. Townsend Wednesday afternoon. It being the first meeting of the month, the monthly business session was held, presided over by the president, Mrs. Thos. White. Those present were Mesdames L. H. Hazard, A. J. Sherwood, C. C. F. Thompson, E. A. Wimer, Walter Simmons, Ed. Dettelson, Jim Jacobson, Pete Jacobsen, Frank Schram, Jim Schaffer. A lovely repast was served in the dining room at the close of the meeting. The club will meet in two week with Mrs. Walter Simmons.

Mrs. H. C. Getz entertained the social committee of the three links club of the Rebekah lodge at her home Wednesday evening. The committee decided to have a "500" party Tuesday evening, Feb. 24, at the I. O. O. F. hall. Everyone is invited and the score cards and lunch are to be 50c. The following were present at the meeting: Mrs. Jack Leach, Mrs. Annie Wimer, Miss Pauline Lorenz, Miss Agnes Whetstone, E. M. Dunn, Stanley Phillips and E. M. Kay.

One of the delightful parties on last week's social calendar was that given by Mrs. J. W. Rubie for the pleasure of her husband on last Saturday night. The guests motored out to the Rubie home on the highway and surprised Mr. Rubie just as he was leaving to attend the dance at Co-

Do You Know?

Where the wholesale prices on Flour and all kinds of Feeds have gone to?

Do You Know?

Wheat has gone to war prices? And do you know we are still selling everything in this line below wholesale cost, today?

Therefore we urge you to stock up on these commodities now as there will be no lower prices until next fall, and when we have to buy again, our prices will be much higher. It will pay you big to borrow, if necessary, and buy now. We always buy ahead of advances and protect our customers as far as possible, but our capital is limited, so we have to keep buying. Whether you buy from us or not, we advise you to buy NOW. We know we could make more money by holding our stock until later but we want to give you the benefit.

Sunday School 10:00 a. m.
Young People's Meeting 6:30 p. m.
Mid-week Prayer meeting Thursday, 7:30 p. m.

H. A. Norman, Pastor.

Church of Christ

There were 197 present at Bible School—just three short of our goal for last Sunday. We trust it will be easy to pass that mark for next Sunday. There was a fine spirit and attendance at all services. There were over sixty present at the Christian Endeavor. A fine service was led by President Eleanor Foley. The Junior service had over seventy present. We are planning on a big Revival to begin April 5. Brother and Sister Dallas will be here to lead this. Let us get ready.

Bible School begins promptly at 10. Morning worship at 11. Sermon subject: "Contagious Christianity." Christian Endeavor at 6:30. We hope for another good service.

Service following at 7:30, singing led by the Young People's Choir. Sermon by the pastor on the subject: "The Woman of Sychar." Come and have a part in these services.

Eugene A. Palmer, minister.
