O. A. C. Memorial Building

Miss Clarabelle Minton, of Coquille, has had a part in raising more than $300,000 of the $500,000 required to erect a Memorial union building on the campus at O. A. C. Miss Minton was a lieutenant in the freshman division of the drive. Inspired by the example of the men who gave their lives in the Spanish-American and world wars, students and faculty pledged $263,000 to the project in less than a week. Of this sum faculty members contributed $31,000. Alumni in Portland and business men of Corvallis have contributed nearly $40,000 in campaigns not yet completed. With less than $200,000 to be raised and the entire alumni field practically untouched, the financial goal of $500,000 will be reached by April 1, say those in charge.

He Played His Hunch

Instinct saved Hans Linder, operator of a local taxi, from the loss of a considerable sum of money Sunday night, says a Kelso press dispatch. While waiting at the station for a train that arrives after midnight, Linder incautiously flashed a roll of bills. Shortly afterward, as the train came in, a man told Linder to return for him after handling any passengers he might get from the train. Linder took two passengers to a local hotel.

Before starting back to the station Linder obeyed a hunch and left his roll in the hotel safe. Returning to the station, which was dark by that time, the passenger climbed into the taxi and jammed a gun against Linder's ribs. He got $2.50 which Linder had retained.

Saved Three From Drowning

Rescued from drowning in Coos Bay late Thursday, three young boys of Bangor, a suburb of North Bend, were little the worse for their experience Friday, says a North Bend press dispatch.

Credit for saving the lives of Robert Thomas, Lyle Plank and Robert Claunch, each about 8 years of age, is given by the parents of the boys to Harry Younglove, who swam 100 yards to where the howboat in which the boys were playing had capsized, and rescued the trio.

Younglove was walking near the shore when he heard the cries of the boys. Robert Claunch was resuscitated with considerable difficulty.

Marshfield Sued by Oregon

The city of Marshfield, owning 1300 acres of land held as a watershed in the Pony inlet district, will answer a suit brought by the state of Oregon, the result of a fire in the summer of 1923, when the state warden, J. A. Walsh, had a big force of men fighting to stay the flames. One or two miles of trenching was done. The state asked the city to co-operate, it alleges, and was refused and now brings suit for pay for protecting the city's property and that adjoining.

M. E. Church

All services at the usual hours Sunday. Prayer meeting Wednesday. You are welcome.

Morning sermon: "The Word and the Soil." Mark 4: 13-20. Sowers that God sends sow the Word. Hearts that the Holy Spirit prepares receive the Word. Sowers that twist, dodge, dispute, distrust, distort, or discredit the Word or any portion of it are not sent of God. If your religious experience is flickering, examine its source.

Evening sermon: "The Angel and Jacob Westle by the Book." Genesis 32: 24-32.

The name Jacob (supplanter) becomes Israel (a prince with God.) At the close of an all-night struggle, the Lord gave him a new name to correspond with the new name. Ever after that night Israel was Jacob. Like Paul's "thorn in the flesh," his halting was an emblem of victory and grace. This reminds one of Bunyan's book, "Grace Abounding."
J. S. Penix, pastor.

For Disturbing the Peace

Last Saturday night Earl Oden and Wm. Smith got into an altercation in a front street business house and were locked up for disturbing the peace. Oden was fined $20 and the marshal instructed to lock him up for 15 days, he having a fine of $10 hanging over him from two weeks previous. It was paid Monday afternoon for him, however.

Smith was fined $10 on Monday and that also was paid for him.

Two Fines in One Day

It seldom happens that a man is fined twice on one day for the same thing but that is what happened to Pete McDonald last Saturday. Marshal Hallenbeck picked him up at noon that day for being drunk near the Masonic Temple. He paid a $10 fine and was released. Again that night he was both drunk and disorderly and the ante was raised to $15 which he paid.

Don't worry about your battery when you can take it to an expert at the Coquille Service Station and have it inspected.
