Presbyterian Church

Each one of us has his better moments, times when our thoughts and resolutions are high. The great man is the one who keeps his ideals. The idealism of some men is not preserving enough to keep the spiritual fires aglow.

Sunday morning at eleven: "The Temple of Good Intentions." Charles S. Bergner, Minister.

M. E. Church

All services at the usual hours Sunday. Prayer meeting Wednesday. You are welcome.

Morning sermon: "And great Grace Was upon Them All." Acts 4:33. The early saints knew an experience that gave courage and power, grace and victory. Lack of this experience leaves the Christian timid, impotent, wordly, defeated in service. This transforming power is clearly promised to every believer. Search the Scriptures.

Evening sermon: "For They Have Nothing to Eat." Mark 6:36.

Many weary, famished souls there are. Some have been deceived by a substitute and are still hungry. Many have rejected salvation outright. Others have simply neglected. All these are equally lost. Still others have received a draught from the living Fountain and are eating of the living Bread, and do live.

J. S. Pentz, pastor

Church of Christ

The program for Sunday will be as follows: Bible School at 10. A suitable class for every one who comes. New ones are being added each Sunday. You are wanted next Sunday.

Communion and Preaching at 11. Sermon subject: "A Missionary Church."

Christian Endeavor at 6:30. A helpful service for young people, but visitors are also welcome.

Song service and sermon at 7:30. Sermon subject: "Peter and Cornelius." A gospel message for all.

The Revival starts April 5. The Dallas Evangelist Co. will be here to lead this. Now is the time to get ready. Make your plans to attend from the beginning to the end. You will miss much if you miss any.

Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7:00.

M. E. Church, South

"The Miser of the Stricken City," a story from the dead past that lives and has a vital message for us today. This will be a part of the evening service, beginning at 7:30. Other features will be an anthem by the choir, congregational singing of the beautiful old hymns you know and love, a talk by Mr. A. T. Morrison on the subject "Neglected Assets of our Community." This will be a service full of inspiration and interest.

At the morning service the pastor will preach on the subject: "The Change, Supreme but Unseen." There will be special music by the choir. The service begins at 11 a. m.

The Church School meets at 10 o'clock. Whether young, middle-aged or elderly you will find at the school an interesting, helpful class and a cordial welcome. Attention is called to the classes for adults.

The Epworth League is now holding competitive services, led by the four departments. The second of these services will be held Sunday evening, beginning 6:30 o'clock.

Prayer service Thursday evening at 7:30 in the basement of the church. The subject will be, "Neglected Influences."

You are invited to attend all the services of the church.

An Ex-Service Man

Frederick Worthington, an overseas veteran, who was born in Roseburg in 1891, and educated in the schools of that city, died in the Portland army hospital the first of last week, and was buried at Myrtle Creek Thursday, February 26. He had been in this county over two years and had made his home here while he worked in the Powers camp, where he was stricken. He was a member of the American Legion.

Cast of Thanks

We wish to take this means of thanking all our kind friends and neighbors, also the Legion for their kindness and sympathy during the sickness and death of our loving son and brother, and for the lovely floral offerings.—Mrs. Anna Worthington, Victor Worthington, Eva Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. George Worthington and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Worthington and family, Mrs. Grace Schrader and Mrs. Ida Burrows.
