"Any fool can waste money; it takes a smart man to save it."—Rudyard Kipling.

Thousands of years before Kipling penned the above words, another writer admonished the world that "a fool and his money are soon parted."

The possession of money does not produce happiness, but it is a means of eliminating worry, heart-aches, grey hairs and baldness.

TIRES VULCANIZED

We make them give you service

What's the use of throwing away your tires when you have many more miles of service in them? Did you ever stop to consider the money saving you can make by having them repaired?

We have been fortunate in securing a vulcanizer who is thorough and capable in his work and if you have any tires you have discarded, bring them in, we will tell you how much it will cost to repair them and whether they will give you mileage.

M. E. Church, South

The Church School meets at 10 a. m. Bring the children to the well-organized Primary department. Good classes for juniors, intermediates, and young people. Your attention is called to the Men's Brotherhood class and well-organized women's classes.

Topic for the morning service: "The Wisdom of the Short-Sighted." Read Luke, chapter 16, verses 1 to 13. The Epworth League for young people meets at 8:30 p. m. The service will be in charge of the Fourth Department. There will be special music and readings and the service will be of interest to all.

"Tremendous Trifles" will be the subject of the evening service. There will be a fine song service and other features of special interest. Prayer Service Thursday evening at 7:30 in the basement of the church. You are cordially invited to attend all the services of the church. Milton F. Hill, Pastor.

M. E. Church

All services at the usual hours Sunday. Prayer meeting Wednesday. You are welcome.

Morning sermon: "The Power of Temptation." First Corinthians 7:30. Purify thyself. Behold, the Tempter cometh. He would lead preachers into other callings and make preaching a side-line, or give them a half-way gospel, or make them afraid to preach boldly against sin. He would corrupt, scatter, devour the flock. Do you know the source, channel and purpose of temptation?

Evening sermon: "The Herald of Glad Tidings" Isaiah 52:7. That God takes away the penalty of eternal death, and gives eternal life, through faith in His Son, is the best news that ever came in the world. Lost soul, this is for you. This is your deliverance. Wordly church member, this is for you. This is your sanctification. J. S. Pentz, pastor.

Church of God

Sunday school, 10 a. m. Preaching service, 11 a. m. Subject: "Draw nigh to God." Young People's meeting, 6:30 p. m. Preaching service, 7:30 p. m. Subject, "The Stranger at your door." Rev. Mary Jarvis, of North Bend, will preach both morning and evening as Mr. Norman is out of town. A special invitation is extended to you to attend these services.

The Holy Name Catholic Church

Services on the first and third Sundays of the month at 8 and 10:30 a. m. Rev. James L. Garrio.

If you want to subscribe for the daily and Sunday Oregonian you can still save half the cost of the Sentinel subscription by taking the two papers together. Calling cards, 100 for $1.50.

Presbyterian Church

Sunday morning at 11 "Looking Westward."

Not of the Sunlight,
Not of the moonlight,
Not of the starlight!
O Young Mariner;
Down to the haven,
Call your companions,
Leave your vessel,
And crowd your canvas,
And, ere it vanishes
Over the margin,
After it, follow it,
Follow The Gleam.

—Tennyson.

Charles S. Bergner, Minister.

St. James Episcopal Church

"Passion Sunday" March 29th. The Rev. Thomas Jenkins, D. D., Secretary of the Board of Religious Education of the diocese of Oregon will preach at 7:30 p. m. I ask our members and others to greet him with a good attendance. A. W. Bell, Vicar.

Church of Christ

Now we are once more being released from much sickness, so let us respond to the services Sunday with a large attendance. Let us break our record in Bible School attendance next Sunday. On last Sunday the class having the largest attendance and collection was that of the young people, with 30 present. Shall they do so again?

Bible School begins at 10. Communion and Preaching at 11. Sermon subject "Efficient Soldier." Get in this service and let us get ready for a great meeting, led by Bro. Dallas, beginning the following Sunday. Christian Endeavor at 6:30. Song service and sermon at 7:30. Sermon subject: "A Fool Farmer." Not all farmers are fools by any means, but this one was and we can learn a lesson from him. Come and see. Eugene A. Palmer, minister.

Baptist Church

In W. O. W. Hall. Services in the W. O. W. Hall Sunday School at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 7:30 p. m. Subject, "The Tree of Life." Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30 p. m. You are cordially invited to be present at these meetings. Rev. E. N. Turner, pastor.

Christian Science Society

Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Sunday Service at 11 a. m. Subject for next Sunday, "Reality." Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. Free public Reading Room open in Church Building every Tuesday and Saturday afternoons from two to four.

Entertained Girl Friends

Miss Esther Mansell entertained her girl classmates at her home Monday afternoon in honor of her eighth birthday. The occasion was greatly enjoyed by everyone present. The time was devoted to games and the pleasure was in nowise diminished by the serving of a delicious luncheon consisting of ice cream, wafers, lemonade and a most tempting birthday cake, with eight candles. The beautiful table decoration of the "cute and cunning" description and the place cards with daintiest designs were a delight to all beholders.

Mrs. Chas. Mansell, mother of the small hostess, was assisted in the pleasant task of making the little ones happy by Mrs. G. W. Zerr, Mrs. Flossie Foote and Mrs. N. I. Warder.

Miss Esther was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts. Those present at this jolly little party were: Zelma Bosserman, Mary Elizabeth

Sudden Death at Lakeside

Solomon Kulju, sixty-year-old rancher near Lakeside, fell dead last Friday afternoon at his home. He had come in from the ranch to rest and sat down for awhile. He arose to start out, walked a few steps and toppled over dead. He had been in poor health for several years.

No more cranking your car when you have your battery repaired at Coquille Service Station. All work guaranteed.
