

April to Be the Largest

Custom Collector Clark at Coos Bay says that this month will be the greatest for business the port has ever had, although there have been heavy shipments of lumber in the past.

Hijackers on the Bay?

According to a story told in Marshfield Wednesday, a whole auto load of "bonded goods" was stolen soon after its arrival from the outside.

Leaves Ten Children Fatherless

Despondent from ill health, Silas Richards, Englewood resident, shot himself through the head in his home shortly after 9 o'clock Wednesday morning while his wife and several members of the family were nearby.

Change in Interest Plan

The Depositors of the Hibernia Savings and Loan Society of San Francisco will be glad to learn that this Bank has adopted a new system of computing interest on savings deposits, which is a step forward and an advantage to those who systematically add to their accounts from month to month.

Calling cards, 100 for $1.50.
