HOLLISTER'S ROCKY MOUNTAIN TEA regulates the bowels, purifies the stomach, and expels decay matter from the system. Nature's way to cleanse and purify your stomach, kidneys, liver. Satisfactory results will follow. Ask Your Druggist.

Graduation Plans

(From Coquille High Times) "Commencement, May 21," is the thought of the seniors nowadays. Dr. F. A. Magruder of the political science department at O. A. C. will deliver the address and the diplomas and scholarship cups will be presented by some of the business men from downtown.

The announcements have been received and all are quite well pleased with them. They are white folders with a gold "C" on the outside. It has been decided that they should not be mailed until two weeks before commencement.

At a recent meeting the girls decided to wear any of the pastel shades in soft silks and voile or organdy with white or silver slippers for graduation, and any dark dress which will be appropriate for Baccalaureate.

The Baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. M. F. Hill at the South Methodist church, May 17. The graduation will be held in the high school auditorium at eight o'clock May 21. The junior girls will probably usher.

Rev. O. L. Martin Here

Evangelist at M. E. Church South meets friends of former years.

Under the leadership of Rev. O. L. Martin special evangelistic meetings began Wednesday evening at the Methodist Episcopal Church South. Rev. Mr. Martin was in Coos county twenty-five years ago, and conducted several evangelistic meetings through this country, holding one here.

His work has carried him into many parts of the country, but he has always retained a high regard for this section and for the friendships he made here. Since his arrival here he has met with great success as an evangelist, and has had wide experience in this work. He is a speaker of rare power, and his messages have keen humor, force, and spiritual insight. He speaks at the church every evening at 8 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

A Double Funeral Tuesday

Robert Hamilton Goodrich died in North Bend, Oregon, May 3, 1925, at the age of 23 years and 2 days. He had been in poor health for more than a month and three weeks ago he became seriously ill and was taken to Mercy Hospital for a major operation from which he never recovered. Owing to the death of Robert, Mr. Goodrich's funeral which was to have been Sunday afternoon, May 3, was postponed until May 5 and a double funeral was held.

Robert spent his boyhood days in Coquille and he is survived by his mother, four brothers and five sisters.

A deep dark water
We safely pass through,
To heaven's sweet rest,
There waits for you.

For the kindness shown us and the sympathy expressed during our recent bereavement occasioned by the loss of our husband and son, father and brother, we wish to extend our sincere thanks.

Mrs. G. N. Goodrich and family.
Mrs. Rosa Wiggins.
Mrs. Bertha Liebhart
Mrs. Inez Crook

Death of 13-Year Old Boy

Oral S. Pullen, 13-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pullen, who lives near the Odd Fellows cemetery, died last Monday afternoon from the result of an abscess in his head following the flu. He was not known to be dangerously ill until the day before he died.

The funeral services were held at the Church of God Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

Delegates Appointed

Leave on a Year's Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wittman left Sunday in their Ford coupe for a year's trip, expecting to go as far east as Ohio. They will go by southern California and after visiting a niece in Los Angeles, will proceed to Oklahoma, visiting in Oklahoma City, Guthrie and Stillwater. Dayton and Franklin, Ohio, are their most eastern destinations.

Bootleggers at Bandon

Wm. Dobson and Albert Baird were fined $500 apiece and sentenced to six months in jail by Justice Radley at Bandon last Saturday for possession and transportation of liquor. They were arrested by Deputy Sheriffs Malhorn and Osmond after they had gotten rid of all but two gallons of moonshine which still remained in the car they were driving.

Nine Horses for Sale

Four teams of young, sound horses and one saddle pony, the stock that remained after the auction sale by J. L. Stanley on Wednesday, will be at the Rogers' barn here for a few days longer and anyone desiring to inspect them or purchase is requested to call. They are good stock, splendid workers, and anyone needing a team would do well to see them.

Quarry Machinery Here

The equipment for the Fairview work quarry has been received by the county and will soon be installed to get out rock for the roads of that section, especially the Fairview-Lee road. The machinery, valued at $7500, consists of a rock crusher, a 25 h. p. Diesel engine, screen and an elevator.
