EAST FORK NOTES

Harlin Brown and Robert Fredenburg, of Coquille, were up on the East Fork Monday, cruising timber land.

The Leathermans recognized the voices of Mrs. Julia Pettie and Frank Howe, of Renton, Washington on a Sunday night when the Renton choir of the Methodist church was broadcasted from Seattle. Mrs. Lloyd Leatherman is a sister of Mrs. Pettie and Frank Howe.

The Germans voted for the days of brass buttons and the goose step. It will not get them anywhere for they have got to remember they are living under the plans laid down by the Dawes commission, not under the brass button days of Billie 2.
