Coquille Teacher Married

The following from a Roseburg paper tells of the wedding of one of Coquille's teachers, who has been here for the past two years:

"At a very pretty wedding ceremony last night at 7 o'clock at the parsonage of the M. E. church South, Miss Anne S. Hendrickson became the bride of Earl Irons, Rev. Mr. Knotts reading the ring ceremony. Claude H. Post, a friend of the groom and only necessary witnesses were present. Mrs. Irons was a resident of this city and the groom is from Seattle. The couple drove to Corvallis last night, and from there will go to Seattle to make their home, and where Mr. Irons is engaged in business with Mr. Post."

Mrs. Irons was here Monday morning and will not leave for her new home until after the close of school next week.

Mary Elizabeth McEwen

"Auntie" McEwen, nee of Mrs. J. E. Norton, passed away at the home of the latter at three o'clock Wednesday, death being due to a wearing out of the body from old age rather than to any particular ailment.

Ever since the death of her brother, J. S. McEwen, last year, she has felt that she had nothing left to live for and has been ready to go.

The funeral services are being held this afternoon at two o'clock at the Ellingson Chapel, conducted by Rev. M. F. Hill. Interment in the Masonic cemetery.

Miss Mary Elizabeth McEwen was born in Lewiston, Milkin county, Penn., July 11, 1842, being 92 years, ten months and two days of age at the time of her death. After the death of her parents, her father's passing being in 1884, she came west to Denver and resided with a sister, Mrs. Jas. B. Belford, until seven years ago. After a three year stay back in her old home, where the McEwens had lived for generations, she came to Coquille in 1921 and has since resided here and kept house for her brother during his last years.

She was a gentle, kindly lady, always serene and lovable and her friends were only limited by her acquaintanceship.

She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church and a member of the Coquille Relief Corps.

She was the youngest of seven children. Several of her brothers were prominent newspaper men in Pennsylvania, while her sister, Mrs. Belford, was the originator of the Lincoln Highway idea.

REV. O. L. MARTIN, now conducting revival services in the Methodist Church, South.

RECIPE FOR JUGGED HARE IS OUTLINED

Thoroughly Tested by Department of Agriculture.

Obtained from the United States Department of Agriculture.

The United States Department of Agriculture has thoroughly tested the following recipe for jugged hare. Rabbits, jack-rabbits, or wild rabbits may be used.

Clean the hare, remove the tough skin and membranes covering meat. Cut into pieces of about 2-inch lengths; cut half pound of bacon into dice of about 1/4 inch square. In a plate mix three teaspoons salt, one teaspoonful black pepper, four teaspoon-fuls flour, half teaspoonful thyme, one bay leaf broken or crushed, three teaspoonful finely chopped onions, one teaspoonful grated nutmeg, and a pinch of ground cloves. Roll the diced bacon and one-fourth of the meat of the hare in this mixture. In a saucepan melt two tablespoonfuls of butter, or lard or butter mixed; when hot add the bacon and all the meat, brown nicely, add a little hot water or soup stock and simmer for half hour.

Cabbage Surprise

3 cupfuls shredded cabbage. 1 cupful celery. 1 red pepper. 1/2 cupful salad dressing. 1/2 cupful nut meats.

Blend finely cut pepper, nuts and celery with the cabbage. Moisten with cream salad dressing. Chill and serve on lettuce leaves.

One Point of View

"If a woman is unable to manage a husband after she has trained him, she doesn't deserve to have a husband," said a woman in an English county court.

$1,000 an Acre from Spuds

T. H. Stever, of Myrtle Point, brought in this week some samples of the early potatoes he has been marketing at the bay and for which he received about 10 cents a pound. He has sold some $50 worth there this spring from less than a twentieth of an acre and is talking of planting a full acre next spring, which, if prices are so good, will enable him to market $1,000 worth.

Pouper Office Not to Close

The Pouper postoffice is not to be discontinued. The Myrtle Point Transportation company early this week received instructions to discontinue delivering mail there at 11:15, however, Thursday morning the company received instructions to resume the service.

On a Serious Charge

T. A. Johnston and Don Adams, two Myrtle Point boys, were arrested Wednesday charged with attempt to commit rape. They persuaded two Bandon girls to take a ride with them and kept the girls out a good part of the night. Adams was released on $500 bond, but Johnston had his hearing before Justice Radley at Bandon yesterday and was bound over to the grand jury. He is held in lieu of $2000 bonds.
