Norton, J. E. Norton, E. L. Vinton, T. B. Currie and Jennie Price. The rooms of the Burket home were very attractive with wild flowers and greens. Mrs. Viola Collier held high score for the evening's play and received a beautiful oriental vase. Mrs. Burket was assisted in serving refreshments by her daughter, Miss Orpha.

The senior "500" club met with Miss C. A. Baer Tuesday evening. Huckleberry greens and red roses were used very effectively about the rooms. Club members present were the Mesdames Viola Collier, T. B. Currie, C. C. Evland, Bert Folsom, L. H. Hazard, A. J. Sherwood, Frank Thrift, A. B. Collier, H. A. Young, H. W. Pierce, Geo. Lorenz, and E. W. Lorenz and special guests were the Mesdames H. C. Getz, F. C. Hudson, A. W. Chapin Sr. and E. L. Vinton. Mrs. B. Folsom held high score.

The Justamere club met with Mrs. Thos. White Wednesday afternoon. Sewing and chat occupied the early afternoon hours and later the guests were invited to the dining room where places were laid at the beautifully appointed dining table for the Mesdames J. A. Lamb, F. L. Greenough, L. H. Hazard, H. W. Pierce, J. L. Smith, Bert Folsom, Nels Osmundson, Paul Van Scoy, M. O. Hawkins, Miss Ann Hawkins and Miss Ruth Barton, of Yakima, Wash.

Mrs. James Brady and Mrs. H. W. Pierce were joint hostesses at bridge Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pierce, honoring Miss Ruth Barton, of Yakima, Wash., house guest of her sister, Mrs. Will Lundy, of Myrtle Point. The rooms were made attractive with pink roses and white carnations. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mesdames H. C. Getz, Nels Osmundson, J. L. Smith, J. A. Lamb, E. McKeown, J. E. Paulson, L. Shaver, H. S. Norton, J. A. Burket, J. L. Aasen, M. J. Hartson, G. Earl Low, R. F. Miller, Roy Neal, W. V. Glaisyer, H. A. Young, M. O. Hawkins, D. D. Pierce, Paul Van Scoy, A. B. Collier, Frank Thrift, F. C. McNelly, and Mesdames Harry Dement, Ray Dement, Will Lundy, Chas. Harlocker and Miss Mabel Lundy and the honor guest, Miss Ruth Barton, from Myrtle Point.

Mrs. Paul Van Scoy entertained at a luncheon Tuesday at her home on Second street. Her guests were Mr. F. L. Greenough, Mrs. J. A. Lamb and nephew, Maurice Williams, of Medford, Mrs. W. E. Chandler and daughter, Alice, of Marshfield, and Mrs. C. W. Parker and son, Billy, of North Bend.

Mrs. Clarence Tuttle entertained at a bridge luncheon Thursday with the following guests: Mesdames T. B. Currie, F. C. McNelly, Jas. Brady, J. L. Aasen, Roy Neal, A. B. Collier. Rambler roses were used as table decorations and about the room. Mrs. Currie held high score for the afternoon's play.

Mrs. Viola Collier entertained with a bridge luncheon Thursday, covers being placed for Mesdames C. C. Evland, A. W. Chapin Sr., H. A. Young, F. C. Hudson, A. J. Sherwood, L. H. Hazard, C. A. Baer and the hostess. Mrs. Baer received high score prize at bridge.

Hufford Family Reunion

A most enjoyable and interesting family reunion was held on Sunday, June 7, by the children and grandchildren of Samuel A. and Ardelia Hufford. The families to the number of thirty-three, gathered at the Hufford home just outside of Myrtle Point on the Gravel Ford road, as a surprise to the old folks, and it proved a complete surprise. It was the first time in nearly sixteen years that the family had all been together. All brought picnic lunch, which was served under the trees in the yard. The children present with their families were: Frank M. Hufford, L. A. Hufford, E. D. Hufford, Mrs. Mary Ward, Sherman Hufford, of Newport, Oregon; Mrs. Lillian Tozier and Mrs. Ralph Fox.

Attractive Home Wedding

At six o'clock Wednesday evening, June 10, Mr. Glenn Minard and Miss Irene Swartz were united in marriage, Rev. Milton F. Hill officiating. The ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Minard, the family and a few friends being present. At the conclusion of the service, dinner was served. The bride and groom were college students together in Nebraska, where, until recently Mrs. Minard has made her home. Mr. Minard has been in charge of the Star Automobile agency in this district, and will make Coquille his headquarters. Mr. and Mrs. Minard will make their home in the Knife apartments.

The Oregon Coming Home

The battleship Oregon cleared from the Bremerton navy yard promptly at 8:30 Tuesday morning, says a Puget Sound press dispatch of that date. Lashed fast to the powerful navy tug Mahopac, which furnished all the motive power, the brave old hulk moved down the sound at somewhere around seven knots an hour, with the tugs Tatanuck and Swallow trailing along ready to take shifts or to add to the pull and push that will bring her to moorings in the Willamette by next Saturday.

Not a flag fluttered from the Oregon as she was hauled from her Brewerton berth and headed for the sea. The two great stacks from which the black smoke used to billow were empty and cold. The main battery of 12-inch guns looked about the same as ever under their tarpaulin coverings and with bestarred tampions stopping their muzzles but they are batteries that have been made silent for all time by the gashe cut in the guns with acetylene torches in the process of demilitarization.

The old warship rode easily and proudly and looked spick-and-span in her new paint. As the Oregon and her tugs passed Restoration point the Seattle harbor patrol boat No. 1 was brought close by, bearing the official representatives of the city and chamber of commerce and the Oregon and her company were showered with cordial calls of good-bye and good luck.

Missionary Society Meets

The Missionary Society of the Church of Christ was entertained at the home of Mrs. Edna Kern on June 9. She was assisted by Mrs. Hooton, Martha Custer and Maude Bean. Others present were Mesdames E. A. Palmer, Calvin Young, Ethel Braning, Vera Hooton, Ann Dungey, Frances George, May Tyrrell, Merle Aber, Ray Norris, Fred Schaer, Martha Mulkey, L. P. Maury, W. P. Gaslin, Judith Collier, Elizabeth Ward, Grover McQuigg, J. A. Stammer and Hollenback, Misses Jennie Lafferty, Clare Bean, Rosa McQuigg, Lena Williams, Minnie Finley and Eileen Kern, Yvonne Kern, Emma Frances Mulkey, Dorothy Palmer, Beth Hooton, Junior Mulkey, Charles Young, Cecil McQuigg. A short program was given and refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Paroled, Steals Car, Paroled

Rex O'Brien, who was out on parole from a state institution, was yesterday paroled in the care of his father by Judge Mast in juvenile court. The following is the story of his last escapade which occurred Tuesday night:

Charles O'Brien, 16-year-old son of Rex O'Brien, of Broadbent, took Emerson Strong's new Chevrolet coupe from in front of the Elks' temple at Marshfield about 9:30 Tuesday night. Driving towards Coquille he struck a Ford sedan driven by Mrs. Wayne Lockhart of Marshfield head on, at the north approach of the China camp bridge. No one was injured and the only damage done to the cars was broken front wheels and bent axles and steering gears of both.

Traffic Officer C. C. Williams arrived at the wreck shortly after and took the boy to Coquille with him and got his father on the phone. Young O'Brien took responsibility for the accident, stating that he took the turn on the bridge a little too wide. He stated then that the car was his father's.

What $2.25 Will Do

For $2.25 you can have the weekly visits of the Coquille Sentinel and the Oregon Farmer—52 of each—for a year.

The Sentinel's New Serial

When she thought back, years later, on that period of her High Prairie experience, stoves seemed to figure with absurd prominence in her memory. A stove changed the whole course of her life. Read the new novel soon to begin in The Sentinel. One of the greatest literary triumphs of 1924 will be published serially in The Sentinel. Watch for announcement.

Calling Cards, 100 for $1.50.

M. E. Church, South

Read The Sentinel's New Serial "Living," the gambler told his daughter, "is all mixed up. The more kinds of people you see, and the more things you do, and the more things that happen to you, the richer you are. Even if they're not pleasant things. That's living. Remember, no matter what happens, it's just so much—" he used the gambler's term, unconsciously—"just so much velvet." Read the serial story soon to be published in The Sentinel.

18,000 Miles, $30 Repairs

Ralph E. Mathews, of Fairview, who had been gone for two or three years, returned recently from a tour of the United States. A year ago he left Los Angeles in a 1924 touring model Star car, pulling a 1500 pound trailer, in which the goods were piled a foot higher than the car. He left the trailer at St. Louis and went down to Florida. Returning he came by way of Battle Mountain in Nevada, which most motorists go around rather than try to go over. He went over.

He drove his car 18,000 miles on the trip and was out only $30 for car repair bills and $21 of that was his own fault for letting the differential become dry.

Aside from a couple of broken curtains the car is just as good as the day he took it out of the salesroom, for all utility purposes.

Bandon Stuck for $2500

The jury sitting on the case of Axel Sandstrom vs. the City of Bandon, last Saturday awarded the plaintiff a judgment of $2500 for the death of his son, which was caused by a loose wire of the municipal system there.

If you want to subscribe for the daily and Sunday Oregonian you can still save half the cost of the Sentinel subscription by taking the two papers together.
