A young lady of Coquille was somewhat flustered yesterday morning when her roadster refused to stop, as she intended, in front of J. L. Stevens' market, and when it finally came to a halt its nose was in the doorway of S. M. Noeler's grocery—all four wheels on the sidewalk. Fortunately no damage of any kind resulted.

A. T. Morrison is enjoying a visit from his mother, who came in Tuesday morning from her home in San Diego, Calif. Mr. Morrison met her in Roseburg and she will spend the summer here. Although 82 years of age, Mrs. Morrison is in excellent health and stood the trip up here very well.

Chas. D. Walker, another of the Walker brothers, who was up here a month ago on a visit, returned to Coquille last Saturday and is now employed at the Coquille Service Station. This makes four of the boys now connected with one of the finest service stations in Oregon—A. O., Paul, Edw. and Chas.

Miss Emma Kennedy, formerly a teacher in the Coquille schools, has been here this week visiting at the J. W. Laird home. She has also spent a few days at the J. H. McCloskey home at Norway. She intends leaving Sunday morning to spend the summer at her old home in Minnesota. She expects to return to the coast before schools open in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vinton enjoyed the visit this week of a carload of visitors from Heppner. The party included his mother, Mrs. M. E. Vinton, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McCullough; her two sisters, Misses Mae and Odette Goshens; a brother of Mrs. A. W. Chapin Jr., Paul Hieser, and Master Louis Gilliam. The party arrived last Saturday and left yesterday.

Alf Johnson Jr. was taken over to a Bay hospital last Saturday suffering with septicemia, or blood poisoning. At that time it was doubtful whether he would pull through or not but the last day or so he has shown decided improvement. The trouble started a couple of weeks before he had the flu and resulted from a mashed finger and which he received one Sunday at the beach.

The C. E. Convention

L. E. Alexander states that the Sentinel was in error last week in naming him as chairman of the caravan going out to Portland for the international Christian Endeavor convention which begins July 4. Loren Musgrove, of this city, has that matter in charge.

The session the first evening, at which Gov. Pinchot of Pennsylvania, will speak, will be held in Multnomah field, there not being an auditorium in Portland large enough to accommodate the anticipated crowd. Fifty to sixty thousand are expected to be present.

Another world-known speaker expected for the convention is Lloyd George, of England.

Dr. Clarke, founder of the Christian Endeavor movement, is expected to be present at this biennial convention which it is thought to be the last he will be able to attend.

The C. E. convention will be the second largest of the many national assemblies held in Portland this year.

Made a Fast Trip

Five hundred and twenty-five miles in 26 hours was the record made by four Coquille citizens who left here at 7:30 last Saturday evening in L. H. Hazard's new Nash sedan. He was accompanied by J. P. Beyers, Dr. C. A. Rietman, and J. A. Lamb. They arrived in Klamath Falls at six o'clock Sunday morning, spent two or three hours in town and after making a trip up to the lake they started back, arriving here after eight that evening. On Green Spring mountain, shortly after dawn, they found hoar frost all over the ground and a chill in the air which made the closed car a comfort. The trip was made in less than twenty hours of running time.

Prominent Men Here Yesterday

The Sentinel senior and its line-type compositor, Miss Marian, had the pleasure of meeting yesterday at the Hotel Coquille the two leading Portland editors, E. B. Piper, of the Oregonian, and B. F. Irvine, of the Journal; also two members of the State Highway Commission, H. B. Van Duser and W. H. Malone, and Bill Hanley, of Burns, Ore. Messrs. Irvine and Hanley were later welcome callers at the Sentinel office.

K. P. Convention June 23

The annual district convention of the Knights of Pythias will be held in Coquille next Tuesday night. The district comprises Coos and Curry counties. Walter Gleason, Grand Keeper of Records and Seals, will be here from Portland on that occasion. The Pythian Sisters will serve the convention with a midnight lunch in the W. O. W. hall.

Realty Board Meets Tonight

The Coos County Realty Board will meet this evening in the Hotel Coquille at 6:30 o'clock. S. J. Cotton says that nearly a dozen will be present for the monthly business meeting and banquet.

ROAD, RAIL AND SAIL BANQUET

Highway of prime importance; that they will have all sections in Curry county under contract by the end of this year and expect to have it completed by the end of 1926.

He stated that it would require $275,000 to connect the highway north of the bay with the highway down the Umpqua from Drain, and that the commission was ready to move when Douglas county would cooperate.

The music by the Coos Bay Band and the two vocal solos by Clayton Bernhard were greatly enjoyed and appreciated.

The banquet itself, provided by the ladies of the American Legion auxiliary and served by Marshfield ladies was all that could be desired. It was an excellent repast. We noted that Cream o' Coos products occupied two places on the menu.

Those who attended from Coquille were Mayor E. E. Johnson, Judge R. H. Mast, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Scoy, Geo. Bryant, Geo. Chaney, J. E. Norton, C. T. Skeels, L. H. Hazard, J. A. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Newman, F. G. Leslie, Geo. Oerding, Fred Wimer, Lafe Compton, C. C. Archibald, N. C. Kelley, J. P. Beyers, A. T. Morrison and H. A. Young.

Barclay-Abel

Married, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gage in this city, at 3 p. m. Sunday, June 14th, 1926. Mr. Ellis L. Barclay, of Portland, and Miss Susie Elizabeth Abel, of Coquille.

The ceremony was performed by Elder A. V. Rhoads, of Sutherlin, president of the Southern Oregon Conf. of S. D. Adventists.

Just before the bride descended the stairs "O, Promise Me" was sung by Prof. H. O. McCumber of Walla Walla College, accompanied by Mrs. C. T. Skeels, at the piano.

As the strains of music changed to "The Wedding March," the bride appeared on the arm of C. A. Gage. Approaching the arch of ivy and roses, she was met by the groom where the vows were taken which made them husband and wife.

She was attired in a beautiful gown of cream mesaline with a veil and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

Her bridesmaid was Miss Glenda Johnson, who was clad in a charming pink yule with a bouquet of pink roses. Little Bonnie Gage acted as flower girl.

Mr. Barclay was attended by Mr. Joseph Marshall, of Roseburg.

Among the relatives and friends present for this happy occasion was the mother of the groom, Mrs. Barclay, of Portland. Mrs. Barclay is a graduate of the normal department of Walla Walla College. The groom is taking a ministerial course in the same school, which he will complete next year.

After congratulations a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Gage, assisted by Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Della Fish. The decoration for the occasion were beautiful ferns and roses.

The happy couple will make their home at Pendleton, Oregon, for the summer, where the good wishes of their friends will follow them.

Railroad Men Were Here

L. L. Graham, district freight and passenger agent, was a visitor in Coquille Wednesday. He came down with John M. Scott and Ben Dey, S. P. officials who were on the Bay Tuesday. They had expected to be in Marshfield for the "Road, Rail & Sail" banquet but were unable to change their plans when the date for the banquet was changed from Tuesday to Thursday.

Mr. Graham says that the freight business in Coos county for his line is improving, but that local passenger business is not. In fact, there isn't any.

Coquille Team Lost

The Coquille ball team suffered the first smirch on their heretofore perfect record last Sunday when the Marshfield team set them down at the Bay. The score was 20 to 12. Lots of hitting and a comedy of errors were features of the game. Zosel and Gilbert for Coquille, and Sutherland for Marshfield, were the victims of a savage assault of hits that ran the score to high figures. King, Coquille shortstop, was the scintillating star in the field.

Father's Day, June 21

On a par with Mother's Day, as the occasion for reverent thought and loving remembrance, is that of Father's Day, which occurs next Sunday, June 21. "Father" was long overlooked in the matter of a special day set aside for him, but this lack of a time in which to properly express our appreciation of father's self-sacrifice has been rectified and "Father's Day" is now an established custom.

Creamery a Busy Place

Probably the busiest place in town every morning in the week is the Coquille Valley Creamery. Right now at the flush of the season, 20,000 pounds of milk are being received daily and sufficient cream to make a ton of butter.

Most of this dairy product is now coming in by truck, although some still comes by boat, and it all arrives at about the same time, meaning that 250 cans have to be raised to the second floor, weighed in, emptied and the cans washed and returned at top speed.

Seven men are employed in the factory this season beside J. H. McCloskey, the manager, and as he works as hard as anyone, there are eight men on the jump there all day.

The 20,000 pounds of milk means a daily production of just about 2200 pounds of cheese. And so great is the demand for this Coquille Valley brand of cheese that they haven't been troubled yet for storage room. Swift & Co. have been buying tripelets—three of the large round cheeses to a case—by the hundred case lots right along, but last Saturday Mr. McCloskey sold them a carload—30,000 pounds, or 400 cases.

Tuesday he received three telegraphic orders for butter and cheese—all good sized orders. Much of the cheese going out now will go into storage for curing.

Mr. McCloskey says that the "Young America" shape of cheese is not very popular now, the "triplets," "slonghorns," and five pound "loaves," being most in demand.

The greatly increased milk receipts this year have made Mr. McCloskey consider the possibility of enlarging the plant before another season for every available foot of space is used now. One determining factor will be the outlook this fall for cheese next year. Another will be the possible opening of the Norway factory next spring. Mr. McCloskey was asked to operate it for the stockholders this year, and should they have the same desire next year he will very likely be in a position to do it. This will curtail to a large extent the milk receipts at the Coquille plant and may enable it to continue with its present equipment and space. However, ranches from down the river may be sending here another season and Mr. McCloskey intends to be ready for whatever may come to the local plant.

There is a matter which the dairymen of this section might do well to consider, and that is the possibility of year round production. As it is now the creamery here receives barely enough cream during the winter months to supply the river trade. In the Willamette valley they have two flush seasons instead of one as here, and the dairyman would really be better off to have the fresh season for his herd spread out over the year instead of having it dried up and producing nothing in the late winter and early spring.

This is a subject which has been frequently considered by dairymen here, and still the same practice holds. It would seem to be good business to make dairying a year round industry instead of a nine-months period.

Old Men Beat the Kids

Hail to the old men! They gave the kids a licking Tuesday evening at the ball park. Not much of a licking at that—just enough to crow over. The affair only lasted five innings and the final score was 24 to 23.

Jim Stevens, captain of the has-beens, was limping around Wednesday and some of the rest were taking things as easy as possible.

Levi Wilson, captain of the kids, was growling about how ineffective they were. In the second inning they made seventeen runs before a man was put out and he was sore that they couldn't make it 25. After eight men had made two runs each and the other one run, in this hectic inning of hits, errors, etc., Doc Gillis fanned, Levi was out on an infield out and Brick Leslie struck out, all in succession. It was a great game, especially for the scorekeeper.

Organizing a Lions Club

Erec W. Merrell, of Eugene, has been in Coquille this week organizing a local branch of the Lions International Club. This is a service club similar to the Kiwanis and the Rotarian, which has for its main purpose the boosting of local and municipal affairs, assisting the Chambers of Commerce in putting things over. It is the intention to hold the organization meeting at the hotel this evening. Twenty-five members are required to secure a charter.

Spike Gets New Position

Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Leslie came down from Eugene last Saturday to spend the summer vacation with home folks. "Spike," however, is going out again at once to take the two weeks' coaching course which Knute Rockne is to conduct at O. A. C. beginning next week.

Spike has been elected to the position of athletic instructor at the University for next year which includes the position of freshman coach for football, basketball, track and baseball. It is a recognition of his ability as an athletic coach that he was chosen from a large number of applicants. Last year he was coach for the Eugene high school.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lyons have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Frances Lyons, to Franklin O. Wright, of Reedsport.

Candy flower nose-gays, with an announcement card tucked in the heart of each, were distributed by Betty Jeffries, alias "Cupid," and dressed for the part, among guests at 1:30 luncheon Wednesday afternoon.

where will you go—when your home burns?

GRANTED that you have your home insured against fire, but how about the rent you will have to pay until you rebuild? Here is the proposition: you pay a small amount now and we'll pay you rent from the time your house burns until it is rebuilt. The cost of this Dwelling Rental Insurance is insignificant—often only $1 a year.
