A Kansas Battle Yesterday

Between 40 and 50 harvest field workers who seized a Santa Fe freight train at Syracuse, Kan., today were met by a hastily organized posse at Lamar, Colo., two hours after their rally and the train was stopped after hundreds of shots had been fired and 15 of the men captured, says an associated press dispatch dated Wednesday.

Vast Fortunes Theirs for Few Brief Hours

"I was a millionaire on paper for a brief few hours," said a clerk in a leading brokerage house and he added: "It is a matter of fact I did not know I had been a millionaire until the clerk brought a paper under my nose and commanded me to sign on the dotted line. I then observed that I had held 75,000 shares of leading industrial stock overnight, the certificate being in my name, and that I was about to sign away nearly $2,000,000. The stock was later."

In this strange business everybody from the wire boy up temporarily has wealth in his or her pocket. Some people are at certain houses had just the amount of shares of a Standard Oil stock in a clerk's name. When the stock clerk came with the customary water for the available shareholder to sign, he was home on Long Island neck.

A hurry call revealed he was dinged up 25 and in no condition to sign anything and would not be for some while, in fact, the doctor said, "I hope we can save him."

He came around and signed the paper some weeks later, but he had already been the possessor of $2,000,000 of stock for that time and if he had died, the firm would have had to go through some legal process to transfer the red tape around an unattended certificate.—Wall Street Journal.

Classification of Ties

Ties are divided as green and black, according to color, flavor and mode of preparation. The leaves for green ties are heated or roasted slightly in shallow pans over a wood fire since as soon as gathered, after which they are dried with the hands open a table to decrease the moisture and to color them. They are again roasted and quickly dried. The leaves for black ties are spread out in the open air for some time and then steamed with the hands out flat, roasted a few hours in a salt and water state. They are finally dried over a charcoal fire. The operation of rolling and steaming is sometimes repeated several times until the leaves have become the proper color.

When chicks are raised with hens, they are likely to become infested with lice. If the lice get very numerous, they greatly retard the chicks' growth and may even cause their death. The lice should be powdered thoroughly with some good insect powder. The powder should be put in the coop with the chicks and the intervals of several days should be given. Accident at Bear Creek

Mrs. Curt Turney was brought to Dr. Houston at Bandon Wednesday evening about 5 o'clock as the result of an accident at the Bear creek grade. Mr. and Mrs. Turney, en route to Bandon from their home in Pendleton, were following two trucks up the hill. On a long straight stretch they drew out to go around the trucks. At the same moment the second truck started to go around the first one, crowding the car off the road. It was apparent that the second truck did not know that the car behind was endeavoring to pass.

Mrs. Turney was badly cut and bruised about the head. It required 24 stitches to sew up the cuts on her head and face. They are now stopping at Hotel Westland—Western World.

What's Happening In Our Town

Bill Wilson has put his feet on that chair for the last time.

TALKING didn't do a bit of good. He'd promise not to—and up would go his feet again. But only on that old, worn chair in the living room. So Mrs. Wilson had an idea. She took a can of Acme Quality Great Lakes Spar Varnish and gave the chair the brightest, smoothest, new-looking finish you ever saw. And he's never once done it since, she says.
