

WE TAKE PLEASURE IN ANNOUNCING Auto Freight Service

Coquille, Coos Bay
and Myrtle Point

Daily Regular Service with Bonded Graham Trucks

We Solicit Your Shipments Large or Small

Farr & Elwood, Inc.

Marshfield Phone 707

Coquille Phone 16

Aeroplane Quality at Submarine Prices

	Cord Tires	Tubes
30x3 1/2 Oversize	$10.50	$2.65
30x3 1/2 Standard	8.50	2.25
31x4 Oversize	16.00	2.50
32x4 Oversize	17.50	2.75
33x4 Oversize	18.50	3.00
34x4 Gordon Oversize	19.00	3.25

Vulcanizing in all its branches
Your Money back if not satisfactory
Give us a trial
Battery Water FREE

WALLACE TIRE SHOP

Coquille, Oregon

Quality In Meats

Is Our Motto

PEOPLES MARKET
J. L. Stevens

"Your Ideal Meeting Place"

If you are in need of

FRUIT JARS

we can furnish them to you as follows:

1-2 Gal. Mason complete	$ .85
Qt. Mason, complete	.75
Pt. Mason, complete	.65
Qt. Economy, complete	1.00
Pt. Economy, complete	.75

Your lawn is going to get brown if you do not sprinkle this dry weather. We have the 5-8 50 ft. non-kinkable hose for $6.00

Don't forget to get your refrigerator while the getting is good. Only four left.

Quick's

Notes From Oregon Normal

Mrs. Chapman, of Lakeside, is attending the summer session.

Miss Ruth Bowron is doing her practice teaching at Corvallis.

Teresa Sandone, whose home is in North Bend, is attending the summer term. Miss Sandine will teach at Catching Inlet.

Ida Maki, of North Bend, who is practicing teaching at Farm Home, spent her spring vacation at Marcola.

Mrs. Ruby Yutzler spent her vacation with her daughter, Harriet, in Portland, and in Seattle visiting Mrs. Rene Roth, a former high school classmate. Mrs. Yutzler will graduate in July but expects to stay until August to finish her major in political science. Mrs. Yutzler will have charge of the eighth grade at River-ton this fall, but expects to continue college work next summer.

Mrs. Balch, of North Bend, is renewing her acquaintance at the Normal. She is taking post graduate work.

The Coos County Club of O. S. N. S. re-organized Tuesday. Officers elected are: President, Ruby Yutzler; Vice President, Mrs. Balch; Secretary-Treasurer Teresa Sandine; Reporter Ruth Hopson. The object of the society is to promote the welfare of the Oregon Normal School and social relations among its members. Only girls whose homes are in Coos county are eligible. Many good times are planned for summer.

Ruth Hopson is living in the senior cottage this summer. She will teach at Flagstaff next fall.

The Oregon Normal School is overflowing this summer with 1077 students, although accommodations for about 600 is the capacity of the classrooms.

Cattle Seized and Sold

To satisfy a claim of $197.99 of the Farmers' store of Myrtle Point against W. E. Simons, farmer of the East Fork of the Coquille river, eight yearling cattle were sold at auction the first of the week by Deputy Sheriff Malehorn. The animals were sold for $60.

A Chevrolet car was seized by Malehorn from Harry Rutter, Fairview, and will be sold to satisfy a debt of $340 owed to A. E. Seaman, Marshfield.—Times.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Miss Itha Clinton, of Corvallis, is in town visiting friends and relatives before going on to Coquille where she has accepted the position of private secretary to A. J. Sherwood.

A. T. Haines, of Marshfield was in town on business Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Spire, formerly of this city but more recently of Superior, Wisconsin, are in town renewing old friendships. Mr. Spire formerly owned a drug store here.

Walter Condron was in town Friday from Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lowellen spent the Fourth in Eugene.

Al Bezoski, Jesse Barker and Jim Hobson went to Oakland, Oregon, for the races on the Fourth.

J. A. Cox, who has been a resident of Floras Creek and Langlois for the past 65 years, was in town for the celebration.

Amos Johnson, of Port Orford, was in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Broadbent and daughter, Miss Helen, of Lindsay, California, are here for a visit. They are former residents of this section.

Dr. C. L. Bender and Ira Clinton came down from Portland to spend the Fourth in Myrtle Point.

Miss Ione Murphy, of Marshfield, arrived here Sunday to spend a week visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Tucker, of this city.

Miss Verla Sumerlin, of North Bend, is visiting in this city this week.

Miss Gertrude Laird returned to her home in Roseburg Sunday after visiting for several days with Miss Wilda Barker, of this city.

Mrs. F. M. White and sons and Mrs. A. L. Houseworth, of Los Angeles, California, arrived here Sunday and are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dement and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fearnley.

Miss Irene Woodworth, of Marshfield, spent the week end here as the guest of Miss Aileen Barker.

E. E. Elliott, of Salem, Oregon, who is director and supervisor of agricultural education for the State Board for Vocational Education, is in town this week. He is trying to get a course in agriculture for the Union High School. The directors have expressed themselves as being in favor of the adoption of this course and will hold a meeting Thursday to consider the question more thoroughly.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Terry and sons, Jack and Allen, of North Bend, were in this city visiting the E. C. Barker home Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. James Richmond, of Coquille, was in town Saturday. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ireland and son, Clarence, of the same city.

Otto Perry, of this city, was a business visitor in Marshfield on Tuesday.

W. H. Harris, W. West and C. Baird, of Reedsport, spent the Fourth in this city.

Mrs. F. C. Lainburg, of this city, was a Marshfield visitor on Friday of last week.

P. E. DeLapp, of Myrtle Point, visited friends in Portland over the Fourth.

Elmer Russell, local baker, was a patient at the Keizer Hospital in North Bend last week.

Ellison-White Chautauqua began on Monday with a short program by a whistler and impersonator in the afternoon. In the evening Alton Packard entertained everyone with his songs and cartoons. Tuesday the afternoon program was presented by Leake's Orchestral Entertainers, a group of talented musicians. They also gave a prelude to the lecture by Captain Gudmundson, which was very interesting as well as informational. The Baughman-Pfefferle Duo gave the afternoon program and the evening prelude Wednesday. Their costume numbers were especially enjoyed. In the evening Dr. George Fallis, pastor of the largest church in Canada and one of the best orators in Canada, gave his views on World Peace. Everyone is looking forward to the rest of the programs of the week. Thursday afternoon Roseth Knapp Breed, Boston impersonator, gave the entertainment. In the evening the Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera, "The Mikado," was given. The Charles Mitchell Mixer trio and Captain Upton will be heard today. Saturday, the closing day, Margaret Byers will give a program for the children as well as the adults. In the evening will be given the play, "Daddy Long Legs." The attendance so far has not been as large as usual but the committee still expects to go over the top. Miss Edna Layton came here from Nez Perce, Idaho, to superintend the chautauqua.

The Misses Helen Whitaker, Lila Dement, Elsie Moller and Alice Nosler are in Portland this week attending the International Christian Endeavor Convention as delegates of the local branch of the Christian Endeavor.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nell and children spent the week end in this city visiting Mrs. Nell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes of this city.

Mrs. B. E. Larson, of Los Angeles, is in this city visiting her mother, Mrs. S. S. Endicott.

Wesley Seaman, of Marshfield, was in town on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lawhorn, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mast, of McKinley, were in town Tuesday.

Lee Weekly, of the Myrtle Point Transportation Company, was badly injured while helping load logs at his camp near here Thursday. He is at the Mast hospital in a serious condition. A log fell on him and caused a leg and an arm to be broken, a hip dislocated, and probably internal injuries as well.

Nona Ray and Ora Ray Warner, of Portland, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lee Ray, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ray and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thompson, formerly of Coquille, were among those at the reunion.

Joan Perrot has been in from Roseburg for several days this week. She returned to her home there Wednesday.

Evrett Hayes and Miss Irene Hayes left Thursday for Portland, where they spent the week end. They returned here Monday.

Dal M. King, of this city, was in Marshfield for a few days on business this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Falcon left Wednesday for their home in Portland after spending a few days visiting Mrs. A. W. Bigelow of this city.

Mrs. Opal Barker went to Marshfield and brought Mrs. Winnie Barker and children over here to be with Mrs. Barker's father, Lee Weekly, who is in a serious condition at the Mast hospital.

Mrs. Earl Adams came down from Powers to be with her father, Lee Weekly, as did Mrs. Everett Slagle, of Bandon.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Pierson and sons, Walter and Russell, returned Wednesday from Klamath Falls, where they have been since the Fourth. They left with their daughter, Thelma, for Bandon immediately after arriving here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trus returned this week after spending the past few weeks in California.

Dr. and Mrs. Pemberton and son, Rex, are down from Salem for a few days.

Louis Supplee returned Wednesday from the Rogue River, where he has been fishing for several weeks.

Walter Lawhorn was in town Wednesday from the Chaney camp on Glen Aiken Creek. He says that they expect to start hauling logs in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist and daughters, Ingrid and Cynthia, came in from Portland Wednesday and on account of tire trouble were forced to stay all night here.

Dr. J. R. Bunch is confined to his home with an attack of influenza.

The Rodeo put on by Dement and Pearce on the 3rd and 4th was considered a great success. Large crowds from all over the county attended on both days.

Dr. L. G. Johnston was over from Marshfield Wednesday on business.

Ray Family Reunion

Saturday at Sunset Beach the brothers and sisters of W. Lee Ray, of this city, gathered with their children and grandchildren for a family reunion. The brothers and sisters were: Sam Ray, of Windsor, Colorado; John Ray, of Leon, Kansas; Frank Ray, Cooston, Oregon; Mollie Ray Huist, Aurora, Oregon; Dick B. Ray, of Glendale, California; Calvin Ray, of North Bend; and W. Lee Ray, of Myrtle Point. There were 129 members of the family present. They put up ten tents and one kitchen for the crowd. On Saturday evening an orchestra composed of mem-

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables are plentiful now

CANTELOUPES—fine and reasonable in price. Nice size, only 10c.

STRAWBERRIES—We are getting the finest of the season now. Finer berries never grew

WONDERFUL HEAD LETTUCE—Home grown.

WATERMELONS—Quality good and price getting reasonable.

Use the phone and let us send you out some. This is the season.

We pay cash for Cascara Bark

The Busy Corner

2 Phones 69

Save Red Stamps and Get the Cash Discount

SOMETHING BETTER

Cream O' Coos Butter and Cottage Cheese

For Sale by Leading Stores and Butcher Shops

Manufactured by

COQUILLE ICECREAM CO.

It's a real pleasure to travel by stage!

Speed with safety, combined with scenic beauty, comfortable stages and frequency of service, stage travel is enjoyable at any season of the year.

We take the work out of travel and put pleasure in. Ask your ticket office for a list of the beautiful trips on, or in connection with, our lines.

COAST AUTO LINES

Phone 70 — Coquille, Ore.

bers of the family furnished the brought from Marshfield. Fireworks music for a dance. A piano was were shot off during the evening.