Family Reunion and Wedding

The Oerding family had a reunion at the ball park at Bandon last Sunday at which were present Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Oerding of this city, their thirteen children, the husband of the married daughter and the wives of the three married sons, and two grandchildren, Howard Besch Warner Jr., the eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Warner, of Burlingame, California, and Virginia, the four months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Oerding, of Marshfield. Harry Oerding and wife were down from Longview, Wash. The only visitors at this reunion were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wingate, of San Francisco, who came up from the south with Mr. and Mrs. Warner.

All the party were present Wednesday when Walter Oerding, of this city, and Dora Goodman, of Marshfield, were united in marriage at the Oerding home on the Marshfield road, by Rev. W. S. Smith, of Port Orford, father of Mrs. Charles Oerding.

The groom is one of Coquille's prominent young business men and he has a host of friends here who are congratulating him on the happy event. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Goodman, of Marshfield. They will make their home in the Oerding Apartments on Henry street.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Wingate started for California this morning.

Christensen-Moser

At the home of her sister, Mrs. Clara Young, last Thursday at three o'clock, Anna M. Moser, daughter of Mr. Fred Moser, became the bride of Fred Christensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Christensen, of Venonia, Oregon. The Rev. Thomas Barklow officiated.

The bride was gowned in white crepe-back satin and her tulle veil was held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses and sweet peas. Mr. Fred Moser, her father, gave her away.

Miss Stella Parker, the bridesmaid, wore a dress of dainty pink, trimmed in white lace.

Mr. Lawrence Woodward attended Mr. Christensen as best man and Master Keith Young acted as ring bearer. Preceding the ceremony Miss Alice Guerin sang, "I Love You Truly," and Miss Claudia Parker played the Wedding March.

The service was read beneath a bower of ferns and orange blossoms.

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served to the following guests: Mr. Fred Moser, Rev. Thos. Barklow, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Guerin and daughter, Alice, Mrs. M. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Knife and daughter, LaVern, Misses Stella and Claudia Parker, Miss Harriet Gould, Dr. James Richmond, Lawrence Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pinkston and daughter, Lena, Mrs. J. G. Pinkston and daughters, and Mrs. Clara Young and sons.

The bride is well known in Bandon, having taught in Bandon high school the last two years. She is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural College.

Mr. Christensen is also a graduate of Oregon Agricultural College, finishing the course in engineering after spending eighteen months in France during the World War.

Mr. and Mrs. Christensen are spending their honeymoon motoring to Portland and other interesting points in Oregon.

They will reside near North Bend where Mr. Christensen has a position with the Stout Lumber Company.

Tried to Wreck Chief's Car

Chief of Police Matt Coy narrowly escaped an automobile accident late Saturday night, says the Bandon World. He had arrested Percy Morgan for being drunk and being in possession of a bottle and while taking him to town in the chief's car, Morgan began acting up. He jerked the steering wheel out of Coy's hands and ran the car into the curb. After a few saps from the chief's tilly, Morgan became subdued and spent the rest of the night in jail. Monday he was fined $50 in Police Judge Mast's court and his mother posted a bond to guarantee payment of the fine by the 10th.

Mining Near Randolph

A black sand concentration plant is being erected in the black sand mining district of Randolph, six miles north of Bandon, according to Hal Stutzman, of Marshfield, and an experienced miner of both Coos and Curry counties, says the Daily News. Opening of the plant will be held within a week or ten days and the capacity is set at 500 yards per day.

What $2.25 Will Do

For $2.25 you can have the weekly visits of the Coquille Sentinel and the Oregon Farmer—52 of each—for a year.

Coquille Won Both Games

Coquille won both games at Bandon from Reedsport. The one on Saturday was very close, 8 to 7, and on Sunday the score was 9 to 4. On the Fourth Reedsport was reinforced by several Marshfield players. Carl Gilbert pitched for Coquille.

On Sunday Wm. Zosel, for Coquille, was opposed by Harry Oerding for the Umpqua river team. Harry pitched a nice game but Coquille has a slugging team this year, and this, coupled with the Reedsport errors, never allowed him a chance to win.

The game next Sunday will be with Marshfield at the Bay. Sharkey Perkins will play with Coquille for the rest of the season.

Early next month, the fast-going Springfield team, from Lane county will be here for a game. They have the same kind of a record as has Coquille. Out of seven games the local team has lost but one.
