Rising Young Star Fond of Cooking

Clahorne Foster, that clever little lady who makes Harry Connors' play, "Applesauce," the outstanding comedy success of the year, is an extraordinary young woman. She is generally recognized as one of the rising young stars of the American stage and her services and company are always in demand but such is her nature that she shuns the "bright lights" and leads a simple and unostentatious life wherever she may be. She is essentially a home girl, being passionately fond of cooking, an art at which she is very adept, and much of her leisure time is spent in the modest little kitchenette of her apartment. When not playing in some production, Miss Foster may be found at her home a short distance from New York city, where she revels in the joys of cooking for the whole family and her friends and spends her vacations doing the work of the ordinary housewife.

There are two dishes which are regarded with more favor by Miss Foster, than any others. These are Bronx shrimps and chicken en casserole. She uses the simplest of formulas but insists upon the purity of ingredients, using pure butter, and evaporated milk. The recipes that she uses are:

Bronx Shrimps.
2 cups shrimps, Tokes 2 eggs
canned or fresh 1/2 cup evaporated
4 tbsp. fat milk
1/2 tsp. salt 1/2 cup water
Raw grains oay- 1 tbsp. flour
2 eggs 2 tsp. lemon juice
Clean the shrimps, and cook in half the fat for 2 minutes; add seasoning and lemon; cook 2 minutes longer. Remove shrimps and make a white sauce of the remaining fat, flour and milk; when thickened add yolks of eggs slightly beaten, stirring in quickly and cooking two minutes; add the shrimps.

Chicken en Casserole.
1 tender chicken 1 cup evaporated
for roasting milk
2 tbsp. butter 1 tbsp. chopped
1/2 tsp. hard parsley
Salt and pepper 2 cups chopped
1 pint hot water mushrooms
Clean chicken, split down back, and lay breast upward in casserole. Spread fat over breast, dust with salt and pepper, add hot water, cover closely and cook in hot oven one hour. When nearly tender put in evaporated milk, mushrooms and parsley. Cover again, and cook 20 minutes longer. Serve hot in casserole.

THE WOMAN WHO WORKS

In this new order of things, with women, both married and single, broadening their business activities, a very serious problem arises. It is the problem of what, when, and where to eat.

Breakfast is always a hurry-up meal for the men but much more so for the woman who goes to business. Lunches, of course, are taken in the lunchrooms and restaurants in the business districts and are no problem. But how about dinners?—Shall they, too, be restaurant meals or can they be so planned that business women may enjoy the home cooking of which they are so fond? Take away the element of haste and anxiety and in its place put carefully thought-out menus, well planned and easily prepared, and home dinners will again regain their high favor with the working housewife.

One of the big worries is frequently with the milk. Did it come? Is it fresh? Is it frozen? Has the milkman been paid? Are the bottles washed and set out? However, there is no cause for worry about milk. Why not keep a dozen cans of evaporated milk in your pantry? There are large cans, equal to a quart of milk and smaller cans that will meet the lesser needs.

For evaporated milk is just pure, fresh milk with more than half the water missing. This water can be replaced in a jiffy, if you so desire or you can use it as cream if rich and creamy foods are desired.

Here are a few recipes that may be used by "The Woman Who Works" for forming her plans for self help and good home cooking.

Scalloped Ham and Potatoes.
1 pound smoked 1 1/2 cups water
ham 1 green pepper
4 medium potatoes (may be
1 1/2 cups evaporated milk omitted)
diluted with Flour

Cover the bottom of an oiled baking dish with sliced, raw potatoes. Sprinkle with flour and pieces of ham 1/4 inch square. Repeat until dish is full. Fill dish 3/4 full of diluted milk. Bake until potatoes are tender.

Eggs en Casserole.
3 hard-boiled 3/4 cup evaporated
eggs milk
1 tomato 1/2 cup water
1/2 tsp. butter 1/4 cup grated
2 tsp. flour cheese
1/2 tsp. salt Battered crumbs

Put hard-boiled eggs in half and arrange around the edge of a greased casserole. Slice tomatoes in center of dish. Make a white sauce of the milk, water, fat and flour. Add cheese and stir over a low fire until cheese is well mixed and smooth. Pour over tomatoes and eggs. Cover with crumbs and bake twenty minutes in a moderate oven.

M. E. Church

God has sent us an old fashioned revival in answer to prayer. I could hardly think of a town in greater need of such an outpouring of Grace. Poverty-stricken, soul-languishing, religious skeletons walk the streets and do not know that they are "poor, and naked and blind." The tent meetings are for everybody. Sinner, do you want to be saved? Prepared or unprepared, to the great judgment you must go. Christian, do you desire, are you hungry for a satisfying portion of heavenly Grace? God help you. The Holy Spirit is here dealing with souls. How shall you "Escape if you neglect so great a salvation?" You are welcome. You should come. If you miss this meeting you may go into eternity lost.

Like the Garden of Eden

While returning from a trip to Yellowstone Park about the first of July, G. E. Trout and family camped in Boise, Idaho, and in the evening heard a campfire speech delivered by a Dr. E. F. Joslin, of Philadelphia. The doctor in giving a brief outline of his trip across the continent stated that Coquille, the county seat of Coos county, Oregon, had the most wonderful climate of any place he had ever seen, and further that it had the best conducted little hotel of any place on his trip. He boasted the climate of the entire county but said Coquille was nearer his conception of the Garden of Eden than any place he had found.
