Attended Coos County Picnic

A. J. Sherwood returned Wednesday afternoon from a three days' business trip to Portland. He and L. A. Liljeqvist had a very pleasant time Sunday when they attended the Coos county picnic at Salem. This picnic is an annual event which is attended by former residents of this county of the Portland district. Mr. Sherwood renewed acquaintance with a lot of former Coos citizens and mentioned particularly John B. Moomaw, of Hubbard, and Clarence Dryden, of Oregon City. He was somewhat takep aback when the latter introduced him to a youngster—Mr. Dryden's grandson. Mr. Sherwood says he remembers very well when Mr. Dryden was married here in Coquille and that it seemed but a few years ago.

Maury Family Recovering

L. P. and Vane Maury had so recovered from their bruises and injuries received in the wreck of their car last Thursday that they were out and around town Saturday. Mrs. Maury still shows the effects of her numerous bruises on her limbs and body, but the injuries which keep her in bed still, were to her hip and shoulder. The joints there were injured and it will require some little time for nature to do her part in bringing them back to normal. Mr. Vane Maury left Wednesday morning for his home in San Francisco.

Graham and Johnson Win Prize

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Graham and Ira Johnson returned Monday evening from Portland, where the two men participated in the trap shoot Sunday. Earl won a trophy and a cash prize and Ira a cash prize. While there they stopped with Geo. N. Battey at the West Side Auto Camp and found the service and accommodation the best they ever saw in an auto camp. George now has 28 cabins and they are full most of the time.

Clausen-Olsen

Without telling any of their friends their intention, Alton Clausen and Miss Myrtle Olsen, secured a marriage license last Saturday noon, stepped across the street to the M. E. South parsonage and were quietly married by Rev. M. F. Hill.

They could not keep it entirely quiet, however, for while they were pledging their vows, Geo. Johnson and Hadley Curtis decorated their car with the words, "Just married."

After a short trip to Roseburg, Mrs. Clausen resumed her duties Monday morning with The Title Co., and Mr. Clausen his work on the ranch near Riverton. They plan the coming winter to make their home in Coquille and expect to build a house.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Olsen, of the Fat Elk district. She was a graduate of the Coquille High School in 1924 and has since been employed in J. S. Barton's office.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Clausen, and with two brothers, is engaged in operating his father's ranch down the river.

Both of these young people are deservedly popular and the Sentinel unites with their host of friends in wishing them a long and happy life together.

Mrs. Detlefsen Entertains

Tuesday afternoon, August 4, Mrs. Margerite Detlefsen entertained a few of her friends, it being her birthday. The living room and dining room were beautifully decorated with sweet peas and poppies. The afternoon was spent in chatting and needle work. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Martin Schmidt, served a dainty two course luncheon. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mesdames E. L. Clausen, of Broadbent, H. F. Tedsen and mother, of Myrtle Point, Martin Schmidt, of Norway, J. N. Jacobsen, Pete Jacobsen, W. R. Simmons, Geo. A. Gilman and W. E. Cross.

Jim Hendricks has never dared tell her the real story

WHEN the Hendrickses decided to move here, Mrs. Hendricks sent Jim on ahead to look up houses. It just happened that the Wheeler house was on sale at a great bargain. It was a bit rundown, but otherwise it filled every one of Mrs. Hendricks' requirements. So Jim took a chance and bought it on the spot. Then he began to get cold feet. "Thought he'd let Mrs. Hendricks see it before he told her. He drove her past it the day she came to town. 'That dilapidated place! I wouldn't even consider it.' Anxious moments for Jim. Then he called up the painters. Five minutes after the last ladder and the last can of Acme Quality Paint were off the place, he drove Mrs. Hendricks past again. 'What a ducky house,' she said, 'how in the world did you happen to overlook it!'

School Children's Eyes

While 3 out of every 4 have defective eyes, one in every ten absolutely need glasses. Is your child one? Find out. Have his eyes examined NOW. If proper glasses are not used at the right time, the eyes get worse and worse and in later years poor vision, sorrow and regret are abiding factors in their lives.

Now, in August, is the best time to have children's eyes carefully tested. If glasses are not needed we will tell you so.
