

Hodgen-Brewster Dairy Ration Gets Results

Hodgen-Brewster Milling Co., Portland, Or. Beaverton, Or., July 20, 1925.
Gentlemen: I have used nearly all kinds of mixed feeds, and the following figures of our Pure Bred Jersey herd production will tell what Dairy Ration has done for us, on twice a day milking:

DURING DECEMBER, 1924

Eighteen cows produced in one month 18,164.6 pounds of milk, an average of 1009.2 pounds per cow per month—an average of 32 1-2 pounds per cow per day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker and sons, Melvin and Willis, of Bandon, visited the Perley Crowley home Sunday.

Mrs. P. A. Alford and son, Elwin, visited friends in McKinley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. S. Abernathy left last Tuesday for Portland to visit relatives.

Ernest Krewson and Rollie Alford made a trip to Douglas county last Sunday bringing back a load of peaches and tomatoes. Elmer Wilson and W. A. Nickerson went out Thursday for the same purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. Halley Laird went to Roseburg Friday for a visit at the Hinger Laird home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wagner, of Marshfield, visited the Christensen home over the week end.

Mrs. Flossie Wilson and small son, Charles, visited friends in Myrtle Point Saturday.

Most of the Brewster Valley folks are in the berry patch this week, picking raspberries.

The days are growing shorter—a sign that fall is not far off, which means school time.

Ernest Krewson has resigned his position as fire warden and Julius Benham is his successor.

Mrs. E. N. Harry returned to her home in Coquille Thursday after a long visit with relatives and friends in Brewster valley.

Walter Laird made a business trip to Myrtle Point Friday.

Mrs. Mary Laird and son, Norman, went to town Monday to have Norman's tonsils removed.

EAST FORK NOTES

Mrs. Pettie and daughter, Frances, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howe, of Renton, Wash., are visiting mother Howe, the brothers, Everett and Rufus, and sister, Mrs. Lloyd Leatherman, and their families. They came in Frank's car and have to be luck on their job at Renton in two weeks. Mr. Pettie is the owner and publisher of the Renton newspaper.

E. W. Hill and daughters, Theda, Beth and Mary, of Oakland, Cal., got to Mountain Glade Thursday and left for home Tuesday via the coast route. Grace, who has been re-operating here for a year, returned with them. We always enjoy the home-coming of the children.

Henry Ford made it possible for a family to have a camping trip at a small expense.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and their children, of Roseburg, were out with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sunday. The Ross got another jolt when they looked for some of their forty years or more gathering which they had left behind. Somebody had managed to unlock their fruit house and had taken a lot of empty jars and a big glass vinegar jug, and the looters were not satisfied, they knocked off boards from the wall between the fruit house and garage and took 17 traps, 5 gallons of coal oil and a cross cut saw which cost $8.00. Then Sunday evening we got a little surprise. Some of the family went up to the homestead and found a big chest which had stuff in that we thought was good, had been emptied and what was not good enough for the thieves was scattered around.

What puzzles me is why a tree did not fall on those thieves instead of on a man like Charles E. Mulkey, or get struck by lightning instead of a man like Mr. Weaver of Coos River.

There are a whole lot of things which are beyond my understanding. Yet, I am glad that the Almighty is on the job of running this universe, for we don't have to do any thinking but that it comes out right in the end. But why? That is a question.

R. A. Easton.
