It will be easier and more pleasant to take your Sunday dinner at the new Coquille Hotel.

"Slats" Gant Married
Homer Gant, popularly known as "Slats," is a benedict. At least he left here last Saturday evening for Dufy, Wash., where he was to be united in marriage to Miss Helen Nelson, of that place, at ten o'clock Monday morning, and as he has not yet returned his brother is confident that the plans were carried out.

Since coming here with his brother, O. T. Gant, last spring when they purchased the Hub Clothing & Shoe store, Mr. Gant has made many friends who will congratulate him on the happy event and welcome his bride to Coquille.

Going East
Miss Depew, owner of the American Beauty Shoppe is selling out her business and expects to leave for Chicago August 31. She will be in her shoppe until that time. Miss Depew's mother will meet her in Portland and accompany her to Chicago, where she has planned to attend the Chicago Evangelistic Institute. Miss Depew expresses her heartfelt desire to enter into Evangelistic work.

Geo. Wasson, A. W. O. L.
Another A. W. O. L. entry appears on the sheriff's register at the county jail. This time it is Geo. Wasson who quietly vanished from Walter Rhule's road gang which is working on the South Fork, clearing right of way. He had been in since May 21, when he was sentenced to six months in jail and fined $1000 by Justice Maybee at North Bend for operating a still. Yesterday the registrar showed 42 inmates.

Club Leaders Here
H. C. Seymour, state club leader, and J. E. Calavan, industrial field worker of the state department of education, and Mrs. C. E. Mulkey, superintendent of Coos county schools, held a meeting Monday at the Lee school reviewing the work of the girls' club there and making preparations for future meetings. The Lee school is the only one in the state having a calf club composed entirely of girls.

Former Coquille Superintendent
Superintendent C. A. Howard, of the Marshfield schools, who was for years at the head of the Coquille schools about ten years ago, is a candidate for the republican nomination for state superintendent of schools.

This clipping is good for 25% on all scalp and facial massage work for the week ending Aug. 29th at the Blanchette Beauty Salon.

Convicts Still at Large
Tom Murray, Ellsworth Kelly and James Wilcox, the three convicts whose spectacular escape from the penitentiary last week, when they killed two guards and so seriously injured another that he died this week, are still at large.

They entered Portland last Monday evening about 9:30, but from the time the two boys, who dropped them in the business section after driving them up from New Era, left them not the slightest trace of them has been found.

Their capture of four men in a pool hall at Monitor at two o'clock Sunday morning was the first appearance they made following the break. They forced the four to take them as far as the C. L. Newman ranch, not far from Oregon City, where they remained all day Monday keeping the four and the Newman family prisoners.

When they left that evening with one of Newman's sons and a Monitor youth, for Portland, they warned Newman that death for the boys would result if he telephoned and they were intercepted.

Naturally Newman waited until the boys returned before giving the alarm and no one can blame him for it.

Whether the convicts went north or south or east or are still in Portland no one knows—who will tell—but the probability is that they started for the Canadian border before the boys who took them to Portland had reached home.

Star Meets Willys-Knight
Thos. C. White's Star coupe was quite badly damaged Sunday afternoon up near Rock creek, above Bridge. He had Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Bernhart and their 14-months old son with him and had started back for home, after taking a ride. Just as he attempted to pass a car coming this way a Willys-Knight from Cottage Grove appeared and met the Star almost head on.

It was feared at first that the baby might be seriously injured but he suffered no more than a long cut on his head.

The radiator of the Star was laid back on the engine, an axle bent, the body badly wrecked and the windshield broken.

The Willys-Knight was not much damaged.

Mt. States Picnic Sunday
Those from this side of the county who attended the Mountain States Power Co. picnic at Mussel reef last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Leach, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Medley, C. C. Archibald, H. G. Frey, Pat Hasville, Misses Connie Willoughby and Della Lund, of Coquille; Mrs. Easley and Mrs. Miller, of Powers; and Mrs. Jones, of Corvallis, who is camping at Bandon.

A salmon bake was the central feature of the picnic lunch. Horse shoe pitching, baseball, and other games were the sport features of the day. Mrs. Leach, who pitched in the ball game, complains that it was such hard work that her face was too tired to smile for two days afterward.

Koontz and Wilson Guilty
G. W. (Cork) Koontz and Johnny Wilson, Bandon bootleggers and moonshiners, were found guilty by a jury in Justice Stanley's court last Saturday and were sentenced to three months in jail each, with a $300 fine added for good measure. The jury which convicted them was composed of J. W. Laird, L. H. Hazard, Dr. F. G. Bunch, H. P. Belloni, E. O. Howe and Philip Johnson.

Their attorney gave notice of appeal to the Circuit court and they were released under $1000 bonds.

Trying a New Stump Burner
G. L. Willey has just received one of the Zysset stump burners which is recommended by O. A. C. He is going to try it out on his place and the adjoining street up on Coquille Heights and be ready for a gravelled street improvement up there next year.

With three pipes keeping the draft on the stump where a fire is started it has proved, according to the college authorities the best burner yet invented for that purpose.

Hospital Plans Fall
There does not seem to be any prospect that Coquille's hope of a hospital will be realized at this time. Lack of support on the part of many citizens and the fact that the local physicians were not united in a plan to get it through caused the abandonment of the project.

For Sale
Special sale on used machines. We are closing out our stock at a big reduction. While Sewing Machine Co. Next to Liberty Theatre.

Fleeing Fugitive Shot
Deputy Sheriff Grubbe, of Elkton, shot and fatally wounded Dave Goforth, sought on a charge of obtaining goods and money in Reedsport under false pretenses, when he attempted to escape capture Sunday morning near Elkton. Dave and John Goforth, brothers, left Reedsport Friday night eluding creditors, it is said, and making their way up the river as far as Scottsburg in their automobile. The ferryman at that place, a deputy sheriff, arrested them and while he was telephoning to the Reedsport officials the two men escaped, abandoning their automobile. Word was immediately sent ahead to Elkton for the officers to be on the lookout for them. As the pair were passing the Carl Binder ranch Mr. Binder recognized them as the wanted men and started out in his car. He offered them a lift, which they accepted, and his wife telephoned to Elkton, notifying Deputy Grubbe. Grubbe and his son set out to meet them. When the cars met the Goforths leaped from the car, jumped a fence and started running through an orchard. Grubbe fired four shots, one bullet hitting the younger brother in the back. He fell and his pal returned to him. They hurried him to Roseburg but he died just as he reached the doctor's office.

Back With His Old Employers
For some years the traveling salesman had seen former President Taft breakfasting at the table next his own several times a week, when the present Chief Justice held the Ken: Chair of International Law at Yale. The scene was that favorite haunt of commuters and early travelers, Mendel's Restaurant in the Grand Central.

A genial soul was the former President, replying affably to his waitress's gum-choked efforts at small talk. Then, after President Harding had draped Mr. Taft's ample shoulders with ermine, the salesman saw him no more at those early and solitary breakfasts, for the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, naturally, no longer traveled periodically to New Haven.

One morning the familiar figure lurked large again in the doorway and Justice Taft proceeded to his customary table for breakfast. "Ain't seen you in a long time," commented his waitress. "What's the matter; ain't you with them New Haven people any more?"

"No," replied the Chief Justice, gravely. "I'm back with the first people I used to work for. Good job, and better hours."—The New Yorker.

Not in Real Estate Business
A man living within five miles of this city asks us to advertise a farm for him, the advertisement to be paid for if the farm is sold. He didn't say anything, though, about putting up a $200 check to be paid as soon as the place is sold. Not that we care to do any business of that sort. What we have to sell is publicity solely.

W. O. W. Initiate 100
The Woodmen of the World held a monster initiation in Marshfield last evening when 100 candidates from all over the county were given the degrees and presented with their certificates. Ten of them were from Coquille and about a dozen members went along to see that they received all that was coming to them.

Congressman W. C. Hawley, a W. O. W. state official, was present for the ceremonies.

It Murdered Sleep
Last week's Harbor reports that during a recent foggy spell on the coast the fog horn was in operation for 72 hours without interruption. That was murdering sleep at a great rate, though the neighborhood of the Cape is sparsely inhabited.

Devoted to Pacific Northwest
The Pacific Northwest is specially featured in the August number of Pacific Coast Travel, there being articles on Ranier National Park, Columbia River Highway, and the Puget Sound region, with many pictures of the beautiful scenery, including views of Portland and Seattle. The entire contents of the magazine are devoted to the great Pacific Highway, the longest and best paved touring scenic route in the world, beginning at Vancouver in British Columbia and running continuously south through Seattle, Portland, San Francisco, Santa Barbara, Los Angeles, and San Diego to the Mexican line at Tijuana.

Besides stories of this northern section, the number deals with places on that portion of the route known as the Coast Highway, running down the ocean shore from San Francisco to San Diego, a route where beauty of scenery and cool ocean breezes combine to give pleasure to the motorist. There is also a special story about the Diamond Jubilee of California, to be celebrated in San Francisco September 5-12, being the seventy-fifth anniversary of the admission of the state into the Union. The purpose of the magazine is to stimulate travel into and through the whole Pacific Coast, which its high quality of contents and print are well calculated to do.

Only Oregon D. A. R. Passes
Oregon's only actual Daughter of the American Revolution, Mrs. Adeline M. Smith, died at 11:30 a. m. yesterday at the age of 97 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Downer, in Englewood.

The daughter of a soldier who fought King George III in the days of 1776 and was later prominent in the early history of New York state, Mrs. Smith was born in Wales Center, N. Y., on November 23, 1827 and many years later crossed the plains in a covered wagon to become one of the pioneers in the winning of the west. She and her husband settled in the wilds of eastern Oregon in 1876 and 15 years ago she came to Coos Bay.

One of her sons, George Michigan Hulbert, who will be 11 next April, was one of the pioneers of Coos Bay, coming here in 1876. He now resides at "The Osage" between Marshfield and North Bend.—News.

Up and Down Main Street

Stubby Carter has discovered that young brothers are not to be trifled with

IT was a shabby trick of Stubby's and Pety knew it. Stubby had never intended to go to the picnic at Fulton's Glen until he heard Pety ask his father for the car for Saturday. Then he announced that he was going himself and that Pety couldn't have the car. And being the older brother, he got away with it. You can't blame Pety for wanting revenge. But Stubby was awfully unsuspecting or he would have seen those cans of Anne Quality Motor Car Finish and noticed that Pety was spending considerable time in the shed where they kept the old flivver. Instead, he drove unconcernedly up to the picnic grounds in his mud-covered machine. And right behind him came Pety, in the shiniest of flivvers, with Stubby's best girl sitting proudly beside him.
