How Accident Happened

Fred Hudson and Arthur Ellingson had a narrow escape from death when the former's car was crowded off the grade on the Tipperary flats this side of Bandon last Thursday. The car was nearly a complete wreck.

They had honked to go by another car, but when Mr. Ellingson, who was driving, attempted to straighten out, after the car skidded to the edge of the road on the loose gravel, he found the other car right on top of them so that they couldn't get back on the road. The other driver said he did not hear their signal.

Mr. Ellingson suffered a cut on his hand and a bruised leg, while Mr. Hudson was cut on the nose and knee and the whole of one side of his body bruised black and blue.

Tried to Break In

Forcible entry of the Sentinel office was narrowly averted Tuesday afternoon, but it sounded as though the attempt might wreck the building. A young fellow on a motorcycle came down Second but was unable to make the turn on to the highway and went bumping over the curb to the Taylor street door of the office where he found progress obstructed by a locked door. He made an alarm which brought the office force out in a hurry. No damage resulted to rider, machine nor building, except a cracked pane in one window.

Lions Club Dinner

Two special matters featured the Lions Club dinner at the hotel yesterday noon. One of them was the passing of the cigars by "Slats" Gant in honor of his marriage last week. The other was a very interesting talk by Rev. F. G. Jennings, a member of the Eugene Kiwanis Club.

Bert Dean Passes Away

Albert B. Dean, who had been ill for the past four or five years, and bedfast for over two, passed away at his home, just north of the Masonic cemetery, last Friday evening. Tuberculosis was the cause of his death. The funeral services were conducted at the Masonic cemetery, Sunday at three o'clock, by Lycurgus Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of which he was a member. Rev. M. F. Hill offered prayer before the interment.

Albert Bernard Dean was born in Raleigh, Mo., Nov. 15, 1875, being nearly 50 years of age. At the age of eight his parents moved to Texas and in 1894 they came to Coquille where he has lived since except for four years spent at Portland and one in Watsonville, Calif.

In 1899 he was united in marriage to Alice Elizabeth James, who survives him. To this union seven children were born, five of whom are living—Margaret, Alberta, Robert, Wilbur, Jessie.

He is also survived by his father, R. J. Dean, who lives north of the Dean home; and three uncles, D. F. Dean, of Bandon; Provit Dean, of Watsonville, Calif.; and Andrew Dean, who lives in Colorado.

Mr. Dean was a man who had many friends. He was an industrious, peace-loving citizen who stood for what he believed to be right and his passing is sincerely mourned by all who knew him.

Charivari Monday Night

It has been many months since a charivari was held in Coquille but "Slats" Gant and his bride were accorded one at their home in the L. A. Parr house on east Second street about 10:30 Monday evening. At that hour the whole east end of town was awakened by the rattle and clatter of tin pans, horns, saws and anything else that would make a racket, accompanied by ear-splitting yells. There were 80 young men and ladies in the crowd which kept at it until their victims got up and let them in. The crowd took "Slats" down to the railroad yards and locked him up in a box car for two or three hours, and were going to put Mrs. Gant in a cell of the city jail but after looking it over decided not to.

Punch and cookies were served to the merry-makers after "Slats" had been released from his imprisonment, and the crowd dispersed at 2:30.

Sweet Family Reunion

A family reunion and dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sweet was held at the home of E. P. Ellingson last Sunday, with all their sons and daughters and families present. A very enjoyable time was had, there being about thirty-five present. They were:

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ellingson and children, Pauline, Grace, Herman, John and Theodore, of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sweet and son, James, of Langlois; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sweet and children, Helen, Percy, William and Donald, of Bandon; A. P. Sweet and Neonta and Edie, of Arizona Inn; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Danielson and daughter, Harriet, of Parkersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Manton Treadgold and children, Mary, Genevieve, and Frederick, of Bandon; Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Mace and twins, Calver and Roberts, of Pasadena, Calif.; and Frank Lytle, a cousin of Mr. Sweet's.

A Farewell Party

A farewell party was given at the home of Phyllis McCurdy in honor of Miss Nellie Baxter, of Eugene, who has been spending the summer with friends and relatives here. The evening was spent in dancing and light refreshments were served. Those invited were: Misses Nellie Baxter, Marvin Jane Hawkins, Wanda Hodyshell, Orpha Burket, Lena Pinkston, Frances Noeler and Irene Williams, of Portland; Messrs. Lester Wilson, Verrill McCurdy, Rupert Pownder, Cyril McCurdy, Fritz Noeler, Kelmeth Simmons, LeNorme Pownder, Harold Peart, Hal Howell, Dan McGinnis and Vernie Olson, of Marshfield; and Clay Baxter, of Eugene.

Sought Shelter From Rain

While out in the Fairview district for the week end the Sentinel people found themselves storm-bound when the first rain of the season fell last Saturday afternoon and unable to drive over the roads but were very comfortably provided for at the old Barker place, where the Barker lumber camp is now running a boarding house. The loggers had all gone home for the week end so the big roomy dwelling was turned over to us when we were compelled to seek shelter, not daring to attempt to negotiate the mountain road to town slippery as it was that night. Indeed, we had all we could do to make the grade with our cars Sunday noon without chains.

Letter From O. R. Rackleff

Writing from Baldwin Park, California, to renew his subscription for the Sentinel, Owen R. Rackleff, who formerly lived here, says:

"Things are pretty quiet here, but I have all the work I want. I have worked for the Union Rock Company since I left Coquille, three years ago; but I will be glad to come back again. I don't think there is a place that I like as well as Coquille and Myrtle Point. I am working from eight to fourteen hours a day, mostly twelve hours. I run a steam locomotive, hauling rock out of a gravel pit. I haul all the way from 1500 to 2000 yards a day. Tell our many friends we hope to come up for a visit next year—about July or August. I would like to see some good old Coos county rain down here. I haven't seen enough rain in the three years I have been here to get good and wet yet. Well, it's time to eat. With best wishes to you all.

There have been very few days in the past ten weeks that this writer hasn't been watering his lawn or vegetable garden. He did a good job of it last Friday night to get a chance to go up the North Fork Saturday, but the rain came that day and compelled us to take refuge in the old Barker house, where the loggers at the Baxter Camp are boarded now. It proved a haven of refuge when Saturday evening's downpour, the first in ten weeks, drove us from our camp.

Only in a Museum

In closing a letter renewing his subscription to the Sentinel, Fred L. Harlocker, who has been attending the Law school at the University of Michigan for the past year and is living at the Lawyers Club at Ann Arbor, says:

"I am in a position to realize how true the heading to your paper, 'Just Like a Letter From Home,' really is. Even the advertisements help a person to feel that he is back in his home town for the moment.

"Michigan is all right for spring and summer, but Oregon's nine-months of rain are never to be traded for Michigan's six months of snow and ice, during which a person has to go to a museum in order to see a blade of grass."

Former Citizen Revisits

E. L. Spalding, a man who left Coquille fifteen years ago, was calling on old friends here Tuesday. With his two sons, George and Edwin, he is up here to spend the winter from Santa Barbara, Calif., and is visiting his sister, Mrs. Ray Williams, at Powers. Mr. Spalding spent about 17 years in Coos county. He assisted in the erection of the Johnson mills at Johnson Mill and Randolph and of the big Smith mill at the Bay. He was a sort of campaign manager for J. E. Quick when the latter was elected mayor back in 1910.

Visit E. O. Howe Family

Alice Temple, of Northfield, Minnesota, came in last Saturday for a two weeks' visit with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Howe. Finding that they were out on the North Fork, she started out there to find them and got stuck on the Fairview mountain road and had to get a car from town, to come out and pull her car out of the mud. Mr. and Mrs. Howe had gone out to the ford near the Williams and Phillips' ranch to pick blackberries on that day and got caught in the same rain the Sentinel folks did and did not get back until Sunday.

Guests from Alabama Here

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McLean, of Selock, Wash., and his sister, Mrs. Ida Padgett, of Mobile, Alabama, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Falkner, of the Tourist Hotel. Mrs. McLean is a sister of Mr. Falkner. While here they made trips to Bandon Beach and Marshfield. Mr. McLean has a general merchandise store in Washington and is interested in the outlook in Coos county. They have been camping part of the time and headed for Crater Lake from Coquille.
