

Liberty Theatre

Oct. 4 to Oct. 10

SUNDAY ONLY
Elinor Glyn's
"HIS HOUR"

The two great lovers of the screen, John Gilbert and Aileen Pringle, in a Glyn Epic. A sequel to her famous "Three Weeks" will furnish you a pleasant hour. Also Two Reels of the kind of comedy you always enjoy like Conley in "WHAT A NIGHT" A Mermaid Side-Splitter

MONDAY AND TUESDAY
Hoot Gibson in
"THE SADDLE HAWK"

This fighting, riding, fun-loving cowboy in his most thrilling picture—with the famous UNIVERSAL RANCH RIDERS, the most daring riders ever banded together and actually filmed on the rolling cattle ranges of Oregon. "PATHE REVIEW" "TOPICS OF THE DAY" "AESOP'S FABLES" "WEBFOOT WEEKLY"

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY
Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's
"THE LOST WORLD"

The strangest story of romance and adventure since the world began with Bessie Love, Wallace Beery, Lewis Stone and Lloyd Hughes in the cast. Just imagine this group of men and women trapped—imprisoned in the lost world. Where ape men roam—where animals the size of 15 elephants, and flying reptiles the size of an aeroplane, monsters of 10,000,000 years ago still live, battling each other and this group of adventurers. You will gasp with astonishment and wonder.

Also Hal Roach Comedy
And PATHE NEWS
Adm. 25c and 50c

FRIDAY ONLY
"WINE OF YOUTH"

With Eleanor Boardman, Pauline Green and eight leading men including Wm. Haines, Ben Lyon, Wm. Collier Jr., Robert Agnew and Johnnie Walker. The story of a trial honeymoon based on Rachel Crothers famous stage play. Also "HOT STUFF" A Spat Family Comedy

SATURDAY

Reception for the Teachers.

The reception given for the teachers of the Coquille Schools Tuesday night by the Coquille Women's Club was well attended and it was a very enjoyable affair.

The hall was beautifully decorated with maple leaves and fall flowers. Mrs. T. B. Currie, president of the Women's club, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Farr and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ross were the reception committee. The teachers were presented with a corsage bouquet by Joan Burket.

Mrs. Currie, as president, also gave a short address of welcome.

The following program was enjoyed: vocal solo Mrs. Paul Walker accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins; reading, Miss Marguerite Hersey; vocal solo, G. Russell Morgan, accompanied by Mrs. Hawkins.

Stewart Norton, Kenneth Staninger and Miss Muriel Simpson furnished the orchestra music during the evening. The evening was spent very informally with dancing and getting acquainted.

Punch and wafers were served during the evening with Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, Mrs. Bert Folsom, Mrs. H. W. Pierce and Mrs. J. L. Aasen serving.

The reception was in charge of the educational committee of the Women's Club, which is composed of Mrs. J. A. Burket, Mrs. Frank Leslie, Mrs. C. C. Farr, Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman, Mrs. F. L. Greenough and Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer and much credit is due them for the success of the evening.

Favored Styles for Fall and Winter Are Now on Display

These new dresses are delightfully different. There is a wealth of opportunity for women and misses to show their individuality when selecting from our splendid stocks. The fashion is unusually diversified. The most outstanding change from past seasons is the princess type—it is modeled along slim, fitted lines with flare skirt. Then there are smart daytime frocks in fascinating combination fabrics in pleasing new fall shades. There are also others in luxurious silks, gorgeous brocades and wonderfully fur-trimmed models for dinner and evening wear. Colors are quite brilliant and prices exceptionally moderate.

IMPORTED KID GLOVES

New imported kid gloves in novelty cuff style, now shown for the first time, one-clasp effect in mode, beaver, brown and black.

Ladies' Hosiery that Wears

Pure silk hose in the new Fall shades. An exceptional hose value.

NEW FALL FABRICS

THE STAGE IS SET

A glorious pageant of beauty pervades our piece goods department, displaying the proper Silks, Satins, Crepes and Woolens from which you may easily select the style fabric wanted for your street, sport, afternoon, or dance frock, the fabric best adapted for the new flares of fashion, perky godets or flaring skirts. An invitation is extended to all to see the line of correct materials.
