Too Much Speed

Parties awaiting the last Robbevelt Ferry trip last Sunday evening, across the Bay from North Bend, witnessed a peculiar accident. There were about 60 cars lined up waiting to cross and just at the moment the ferry was due to leave, a roadster came around the bend at high speed. Upon seeing the long line of cars the driver slammed on his brakes, causing the car to skid 70 or 80 feet, and it then ran up a bank and turned over.

Notwithstanding the broken glass, when the driver passed a child up to rescuers, then crawled out himself and was followed by a dog, none of the three were found to be injured.
