School Buys Piano

A student body meeting was held Sept. 29 for the purpose of deciding whether the grade should help pay for the piano or not. They would be a great help in getting it paid for quickly. The grades need a good piano as much as the high school does and much time would be saved if the two schools would co-operate in buying the one piano.

Under Miss Hutt's supervision a Girls Glee club was organized Monday, Oct. 5. Freda Berry was elected president; Julia Hamblock, vice president; Rose Van Leuven, secretary and treasurer; and Bernice Alpine, business manager. The seventh and eighth grade girls were asked to join the club since there are so few high school girls. Try-outs for pianist will be held at the next regular meeting.

Marie Nadelleffer, a Near East Relief speaker, spoke to the student body Wednesday. She told of the debt the Americans owed the Armenians, of the orphanages and of the privations and hardships these people were undergoing. She then asked that every pupil bring 17c or as much as they could to help build up that devastated country and to care for the orphans.

Friday evening, after school, the faculties of the high and grade schools had a beach party at Bandon. Those who enjoyed the beauties of Bandon's famous resort were Miss Ann Mylne, Miss Martha Hutt and her sister, Miss Ruth Hutt, who is visiting here, Mrs. Mary Harvey, Misses Mary Ellen and Georgia L., Miss Jane Leavelle, Mrs. Ruby Yuzler, and Superintendent Clifton Tucker and family.

Friday morning Mr. Atwood, instructor of the Glee club and orchestra of Bandon high school, spoke to the students on the possibility of having music taught in the grade and high school.

Miss Gladys White, a sophomore, was taken suddenly ill with appendicitis Saturday and will be unable to return to school for some time. The students all hope for a speedy recovery as Miss White is very active in civic affairs of the school.

A student body meeting was held Thursday, Oct. 1st, and the committee in charge of selecting a piano gave their report. The report was received very favorably by the students who at the request of the committee voted to buy a piano from the Thomas Music Co. The piano is a Starr and is especially constructed for school and glee club work. The piano was delivered to the school house Friday evening and Monday morning when the students returned to school music was all the go.

Jokes

Miss Mylne: "Fred are you chewing gum?"
Fred Berry: "Yes."
Miss Mylne: "Throw it into the waste basket."
Fred B.: "You shouldn't make everybody throw their gum in there."
Miss Mylne: "Why?"
Fred B.: "Because you won't be able to find your own if you do."

Herbert Plep (at dinner): "Mom, what is that stuff in that dish?"
Mrs. Plep: "Why that's jolly, Goose."
H. P.: "Pass the jolly, goose, please."

Mr. Tucker: "Who is throwing chalk around the room?"
Wilbur Williams: "By gee! You can't blame me for it, I never could throw that good a curve."

Miss Hutt singing: "Carry me back to old Virginia."
Norman Clinton: "Some body go telegraph for a box car."

Miss Mylne (in civics class): "Spencer, what is an income tax?"
Spencer Ward: "It's when you sit on a tack."

Miss M.: "No, Spencer, I'm afraid you don't see the point."
Spencer: "Yes, I know you don't see it, you feel it."

Ageing It in Wood?

Charles Hansen, road laborer, was arrested at 11 o'clock Saturday night after being surprised by three Marshfield officers in North Marshfield while transferring bottles of liquor from his house to a near lumber pile. Three bottles were found on the arrested man after he had hurled one away and broken it. Four more bottles were found Sunday morning in the lumber pile by the officers, making a total of eight bottles in possession of Hansen. Officers Carter, Osmond and Richardson participated in the arrest.

Justice Rust Monday morning fined Hansen $250 and sentenced him to 30 days in jail.—Times.

Runaway Girl in Portland

Bonnie Felice, notorious police character, Con Hagley, John Moullett and Tim Butler each got six months in jail for furnishing liquor to 14-year-old Alice Harrington. The five were found in a house at 269 Arthur street, late Friday by Patrolman Forken. The Felice woman, evidence showed, threatened to kill the officer and in her room was found a heavy bludgeon made out of gas pipe. The girl, according to the police, recently ran away from her home at Coquille, to come to Portland. She was badly intoxicated, the evidence showed when the policeman found her in the Arthur street hotel. She was turned over to the juvenile court.
