Divorces—Filed and Granted

Fifteen divorce cases had been filed in Circuit court this month up to yesterday morning. This was not as large a number as there have been marriage licenses issued, but the ratio is very high.

Five cases were heard by Judge Kendall here this week. In two of them—Cora Swanson vs. Chas. H. Swanson and Christine May Carpenter vs. Walter W. Carpenter—the judge heard the testimony and took the cases under advisement. Next on the part of the plaintiff's attorney to serve notice on the district attorney, caused the decision to be held up.

Three divorces were granted on Tuesday in the following cases:

Louisa B. White vs. Mack White. Plaintiff permitted to resume her maiden name of Louisa Bode.

Ernest Clark vs. Annie L. Clark.

June McKern vs. Claude McKern.

Eastside to Furnish Site

Roadmaster W. A. Gilbert and the members of the county court met with the people of Eastside Tuesday evening and were promised that a right-of-way for the proposed bridge across the Bay would be secured by the people of that community.

Hospital Notes

"Grampa" Maiden, of McKinley, who has been in the hospital for several weeks, is able to be up and walk now, although 84 years old, he stood the operation fine.

Dale Finn, of Fairview, who was operated on last week, is doing nicely.

Mrs. Robt. Burton, who was brought to the hospital last week in a very critical condition, is much improved and, Dr. Richmond says, will recover.

Mrs. Wm. Zosel, who underwent an operation, was able to be taken home last week.

M. P. Jacobson was brought to the hospital last Friday, suffering from an acute attack of appendicitis. Dr. Richmond operated and in a few hours Mr. Jacobson said he never felt better in his life.

Little Veruena Ward, of Lee, was operated on Sunday afternoon for appendicitis and is now sitting up and playing with her dolls.

Mrs. Geo. Canfine, of North Bend, was operated on Tuesday afternoon at the hospital. She is doing nicely.

Mr. Timberlake, of Reedsport, entered the hospital this morning to have his eyes treated.

The Miss White that the "News" said died at the Richmond hospital, was not in this hospital at all, so could not have died here.
