

Liberty Theatre

Nov. 1 to Nov. 7

SUNDAY ONLY

"A SON OF THE SAHARA"

With Bert Lytell, Clair Windsor and Rosemary Theby in the cast. The great American Picture made in Algiers with thousands of Arabs, camels and horses. Actual Harsh scenes, yafaces of the Shells, and dusky Arabian dancing girls seen. All adapted from Louisa Gerard's famous novel and directed by Edwin Curwen. Produced to out-shock all shock pictures of the past.

Also in addition to the feature
Lige Conley in "NOTOR MAB"
Two reels of vigorous comedy

MONDAY AND TUESDAY

"SOUL FIRE"

A symphony of tears and laughter with our Dick as Maestro. His outstanding dramatic triumph, recalling his greatest of the past; a picture to live far years, for it is true and great as your own soul.

"PATHE REVIEW" "TOPICS OF THE DAY"
"AESOP'S FABLES" "WEBFOOT WEEKLY"

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

"THE HURRICANE KID"

A Western that everyone will like. It has action, romance and the thrill of seeing a wild HORSE actually take a star part. The famous Universal Ranch Riders, Hoot Gibson and "Pat," the wild, golden mare—all in one picture.

A Hall Booth Comedy
And PATHE NEWS

FRIDAY ONLY

"CHRISTINE OF THE HUNGRY HEART"

It's a mighty drama! If you are hungry for romance this is the play to stir you. Love made it as great as "Ann Christie"—as thrilling as "Those Who Dance." We urge you—every woman—every man—to see it. It's Powerful!

Also Will Rogers in "A TRUTHFUL LIE"
Something to laugh about.

SATURDAY

"THE MAN IN BLUE"

The best evening's enjoyment you've had in a blue moon, with just about the most blood-tingling fight that ever came down the pike. If you like action—fighting fists and roaring riots—come and see it.

Also "OH MIN!" A Century Comedy
"PATHE NEWS"

Every night the biggest show any where for the money.

Benham-Clayton

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gills of this city Saturday, Oct. 24, at 3 o'clock p. m. when Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Clayton gave their daughter, Myrtle Lucinda, to Ernest L. Benham in marriage. The service was read by Pastor E. A. Palmer of the Church of Christ, the ring ceremony being used.

The bride and groom were attended by their friends, Miss Eleanor Foley and Dewey Brown. Beautiful pink and white cut flowers in a screen of green with a large white bell suspended from the green overhead made an appropriate background for the bridal party.

Mrs. Benham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Clayton, of Gravel Ford, a graduate of the 1924 class of C. H. S. and the past few months a bookkeeper for E. W. Greig and Co. Mr. Benham is the son of F. S. Benham, of New Pine Creek, Oregon, and is employed by the Hill Transportation Company.

A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Elliot, assisted by Miss Chas. Ross. Only relatives and a few friends were in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Benham will be at home in the Swindell apartments to their friends after Thursday, October 28.

The Lights That Failed

Jim Thrift was assessed a $250 fine by Justice Stanley Tuesday. He had been having trouble with his lights and had had new bulbs inserted twice. When they went out the third time he was talking the back streets and heading for a service station, stopping at the home of his father, a son of them was Traffic Officer Williams. It's funny how you can't

The Fall Shoe Season Opens

For the tailored frock, we sponsor the "Carmen," Uts & Dunn's newest version of the modish wide strap model

We suggest the "Astor," a new Uts & Dunn slipper for evening. The handsome ornament on the front conceals the gore that insures its fitting qualities.

Come and see our display of new Fall Shoes. The loveliest array of footwear we have ever shown in any one season.

The designs are divided equally between Step-In Gore Pumps and Strap Pumps. The materials are patent, black kid, black satin and the new autumn brown shades.

They represent the kind of shoe that well-dressed women will wear this fall.
