Had the Coupe Returned

The G. C. Higgins Insurance agency insured E. W. Barnum against embezzlement and when E. J. Shears purchased a Ford coupe and only paid one payment down and left the county, they had to make good the loss.

Monday night, a stranger went to the Motor Inn, leaving a Ford coupe and requested that it be returned to W. Barnum's where it should be left. The car was driven there and found in the morning, and proved to be the car purchased by E. J. Shears. The man has been sought for several months and a warrant has been sworn out for his arrest but he has not yet been apprehended. The insurance company is now the owner of the Ford.—Coos Bay Times.

M. E. Church

All services as usual Sunday. Hours of Prayer: Tuesday 2 p. m. and Wednesday 7:30 p. m. You are welcome. Morning sermon: "Meet not Known to Disciples." John 4:32. Why did Jesus speak these words to believers? Why did He pray? Was the struggle in Gethsemane necessary? Evening sermon: "Moses—Intercessor for Israel." Ex. 17:8-13. Who will pray through for this town? Behold, what hath sin wrought? Open your eyes and look. Only those who pray can ward off divine retribution. And who can tell the average church member from the ordinary worldling? Holiness is now in order. Brother Cox will come to us again December 27 for a revival of salvation for the sinner and sanctification for believers. Let those who believe in prayer begin now and pray through for both sinner and believer lest they take something cheaper.
J. S. Pentz, pastor.

Resisted Officers and Escaped

After losing his watch and hat in an encounter with a barbed wire fence last Saturday night, Clint Crouch has faded out of the picture here. It wasn't the fence, but Sheriff Gage and deputies who caused him to make a hasty departure. Earlier in the evening Constable Ray Peart saw Crouch on the road east of the Masonic cemetery, and a Bible investigation disclosed a cache of pint bottles of moonshine. He notified the sheriff and after dark Mr. Gage, Deputy Geo. Bohrer and Mr. Peart repaired to the spot.

About seven o'clock Crouch and another man in a Chevrolet coupe drove up and Crouch headed for the cache. Just as he gathered up a couple of bottles Bohrer grabbed him. One of the bottles narrowly missed Bohrer's head, and Crouch jerked loose and ran. He was knocked down by the fence but was up and away before the officers could reach him.

Deputy Bohrer sent a couple of shots after him in the darkness but they didn't reach a mark.

A warrant has been sworn out for Crouch on a charge of possession of liquor.

The man with him hurried back to his car and drove rapidly away when the melee started.

Passing of 16-Year School Girl

Gladys Elizabeth White, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. White, who live on the Danielson ranch near Lampa, was buried here Wednesday afternoon, the services being held in the chapel. She was a very popular student in the River-ton high school, a sophomore, and there was a very large attendance of her friends from the lower river.

Her death occurred last Monday morning, just three weeks after she had undergone an operation for appendicitis, which the operation disclosed did not exist. It was then decided that her trouble was intestinal flu, although Dr. Dix, who was called in consultation, said she had some symptoms of sleeping sickness. Her death occurred at the Bandon hospital.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors for their sympathy during our recent bereavement and for the floral offerings. We also desire to express our appreciation for the sympathy and kindness of the River-ton high school students.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. White

Recalling Departed Glories

The article in this week's Post illustrating and describing a deserted mining camp in Colorado in the Clear Creek section that was active and full of life 35 years ago, recalls to this Sentinel writer that he lived in that section of Colorado fifty years ago—the past summer, at Georgetown, and saw there then the deserted buildings of an old mining camp at Empire, a few miles below that city, which used to be a flourishing city years before but at that time had no inhabitants except bats. While there we did some work on the Georgetown Miner then published by E. N. Peterson. The following year in 1876 the writer launched out in business for himself as the owner and publisher of the Galva, Illinois, Journal.
