

MORE AND RICHER MILK

is the direct result of using "Kosell" dairy feed in your cow stalls. Bear in mind that this is a scientifically prepared food for cows and has been proved to be effective in milk-producing. Try a bag or two.

It does not pay to milk your cows without feeding grain and keeping them up in flesh.

Good Sure of Air Mail

The Pacific Air Transport company is practically assured the air mail contract from Seattle to Los Angeles, according to Vern C. Gort, president, who arrived in North Bend by airplane, Sunday afternoon.

"We are satisfied with the revenue to be derived from the route and at present are checking up on flying conditions, emergency landing fields and possible air routes," Mr. Gort said.

The Gort bid on the route has been held up by the government postoffice officials but Mr. Gort stated that additional data is being compiled and better financial backing has been obtained. The complete report will be sent to the government in two weeks.

Gort will have six months in which to inaugurate the service if postal authorities agree on terms. He pointed out that air mail service between the two points would effect a great saving in time and that, whereas the San Francisco-New York air mail, a distance of 2700 miles, has effected a saving of 41 hours, the proposed new coast route, a distance of 1500, would save 37 hours.

Mr. Gort arrived at the Bay in a Swallow plane, piloted by Robert Patterson of Santa Cruz, in seven and three-quarter hours flying time from San Francisco. They left the bay city Saturday afternoon at 1:30, went to Vallejo and stopped overnight at Dundington. After leaving Grants Pass a strong north wind was encountered and the plane went over to Gold Beach.—Marshfield News.

Mill Explosion on Sixes

The boiler at the Oscar Mather mill on Sixes river in Curry county blew up at 3 o'clock last Monday afternoon, killing Louis Parris Jr., 18, and injuring two others. George Mather suffered a broken leg and James Smith was badly scalded. The injured men were brought to the Bend hospital for treatment. The mill has been cutting clear Port Orford cedar for export, says a Bendon press dispatch in Tuesday's Oregonian.

Alex Campbell at Rotary Club

A holiday talk by Alex Campbell, formerly Standard Oil agent in Coquille, was one of the features of the Rotary club lunch in North Bend last Monday. Campbell is 49 years of age and was born on Coos Bay. He told of the development of this section and of the early life here. He said his first ambition was to be a sea captain but he entered the grocery business instead of the sea. He has been with the Standard Oil company for the past 18 years.

Bay Cities Must Merge

J. P. Morris, North Bend realty dealer, has closed a deal for the purchase of 76 lots on Sherman avenue from the Coke and Chandler interests. The lots extend to the south city limits of North Bend along both sides of Sherman avenue for three and one-half blocks. Each of the lots is 50x110. Mr. Morris purchased them for resale and has already sold several. He is marketing them at $300 apiece subject to the assessment for the recent paving.—Coos Bay Times.

This looks as if the two big Coos Bay cities might soon become one.

EAST FORK NOTES

The storm of a week ago put the Siskiyou telephone line out of working order and at this writing it is still out.

Sunday was one of the beautiful days. It was a day for travel.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gould and Harold were out to the camp and with them were the children of Dr. and Mrs. Richmond.

The first chapter of the land case between Jack Mayne and Lloyd Leatherman and Otto Perry is closed. But if the Menasha Woodenware Co., successors to the Southern Oregon Co., bring suit to break the "tax titles" on all the Southern Oregon Co. lands which were sold for taxes by Coos county, it might be proved that the tax title is a horse of another color.

Ernest Folsom has a big pile of logs in the river between the Leatherman and Vern Bennett places.

William Miller, who worked for the Coos Bay Service Station for about a year and a half, has started a business for himself in Marshfield in the auto electrical line.

Rufus Howe and wife have their 20 acres fenced with brand new cedar post and barbed wire. It is a good job. Mr. Bayler is doing plowing for Rufus.

Sunday evening by radio we heard the services of First Presbyterian church, Portland, Mr. McDoagal, pastor of the United Chalmers Church, Vancouver, B. C., the preacher. His text was Romans 14-17.

For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. Righteousness of the individual, righteousness of the nations of the earth was his theme. He knows the League of Nations is a good thing. As compared with the old way of diplomacy it is in line with the workings of the kingdom of God, which is righteousness and peace, while diplomacy was lies. He cited as an example of treacherous, lying diplomacy that when the kaiser came to England to attend Queen Victoria's diamond jubilee, he took advantage not only of his grandmother's relationship but of the open house hospitality extended to him and had his spies with him who took back to Germany with them information which they could not have obtained in any other way except as guests of the nation.

In the League of Nations' game there is no place for a spy. The cards must be all on the table face up. He paid a beautiful tribute to Wilson.

Two of the Vancouver ministers and two of the Portland ministers exchanged pulpits. One of the Methodist ministers of Portland and Mr. Bowman of the First Presbyterian church went to Vancouver for the day. The object and purpose of the exchange is to enlarge the boundaries of good will among the nations and build up the righteous and peace of the kingdom of God. The preacher delivered the goods. The singing and music were great, "All hail the power of Jesus' Name," and "America," and after the last verse of "America," then one verse, "God save the King," tune America.

A road meeting was held at Marcy's place Tuesday. A 10-mill tax was voted, the money from same to be split 50-50 to rock road in Brewster Valley from Ernest Krewson's place up and from Marcy's place down.

Thanksgiving means being thankful. Webster's International Dictionary defines thankful: "Impressed with a sense of kindness received and ready to acknowledge it; as, a thankful heart."

"Be thankful unto him, and bless his name." Psalms C, 4. With me "the kindness received" are many. Home and family, friends, neighbors and acquaintances—they loom large as kindness received. The blessings of being here to all the ages is limited only by the capacity to receive and to enjoy that which God has wrought through the spiritual, mental and material victories of man. The triumphs of man over defeats, the defeats turned into victory are enduring "kindness received." And it is only when we have passed on the kindness received as individuals or generations, that the kindness received has been as seed falling on fruitful ground, thus continuing the rotations of seed time and harvest of thanksgiving. R. A. Easton.
