Lost on the street, probably in southeast part of city—a pair of rimless pine-needle glasses with chain, in black case.—Mrs. W. C. Rose. Finder leave at Sentinel and receive reward.

We infer that R. L. Steinlechner, who was in this city Wednesday to get dog licenses, would have been glad to see reduced prices in effect to owners of dogs in job lots. He wanted three.

What have you to trade for a $60.00 set of World Book of Knowledge. Svendsgaard. 412

The Bandon typing team won over the Coos River typing team, in the contests held at Coos River Wednesday. The winning team wrote an average of 46 words per minute, while Coos River's average was 40 words.

Sunday dinner at the Coquille Hotel means a day of rest for the housewife; no worry, no drudgery. Service is unexcelled.

The directors of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce have decided not to approve any Fourth of July celebration there this year as the state convention of the American Legion is to be held there the following month.

Karl August Rolund, a logger whose home is in Coquille, filed his declaration of intention to apply for citizenship with the county clerk last Saturday. He is 45 years of age, a native of Sweden, and came to the United States in 1908.

We will loan in Coquille all monies saved with us by people of Coquille. Let us explain the finest plan to create an educational fund for your children. See our display at Fuhrman's Pharmacy this week.—Northern Savings & Loan Ass'n.

Mrs. E. C. Smith, of the Title Guarantee & Abstract Co., left Tuesday evening for Yankton, S. D., in response to a telegram that her sister, Miss Nellie Lynch, was very seriously ill. The latter is assistant supervisor of state hospitals in South Dakota.

Camera and Savings bank will be given free to every person starting their savings account with the Northern Savings & Loan Ass'n this week. Let us explain to you the finest plan for your children's educational fund. See our display at Fuhrman's Pharmacy.

The lady of the house is entitled to one day of rest a week. If you take your Sunday dinner at the Hotel Coquille she is sure to enjoy the day.

Aunt Annie Barklow continues very ill as we go to press, she is sinking gradually and is in a dazed condition much of the time. Her children are with her and doing everything that loving hands can do but they realize the end is near.—Myrtle Point American.

Some men grasp 4 to 1 bets on the international tennis tournament for themselves while others persuade their friends to take a chance. The game is a wonderful thing for getting early returns on sporting events. As you can believe, ask Jim Laird or Orvin Gant.

Carabelle Mintonye, of Coquille, sophomore in vocational education, will take part in the annual Educational exposition program in the women's gymnasium this week end. The girls in gymnasium classes will present several unusual dances to entertain high school guests.

E. D. Felsheim, of the Bandon world, Edgar McDaniel, of the North Bend, and L. D. Gordon, of the Marshfield News, met here yesterday noon and left in the former's car for Eugene, where they are attending the conference of the state editors today and tomorrow.

The pictures of Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist and Martha Caka, daughter and grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sherwood, appeared in the Oregonian during the past week. Mrs. Liljeqvist was patroness at a social function while little Martha appeared on the Valentine page of Sunday's issue.

Deputy Sheriff S. A. Malchorn and Traffic Officer Williams returned last Saturday evening from Ashland where they attended the organization of a peace officers association such as the officers in Coos county have had for the past two or three years. The association is composed of officers from Klamath, Jackson and Josephine counties.

A party from New York, who had been visiting the C. L. Willey home for a week, left Tuesday morning for Corvallis, Portland and other points along the coast. They were Fred Reiner and mother, of Watkins Glen, N. Y., and Robert Reiner and wife, of New York city. They had been traveling since October and were looking for a location.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lawrence and their niece, Miss Clara MacIntosh, and Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Leslie left this morning in the former's car for Eugene to spend the week end. The former go out to visit Perry Lawrence, while the Leslies will visit their son, Earl, and wife, and witness the basket ball game tonight between O. A. C. and U. of O. for the northwest championship.

Kuitnen Appeals His Case

Otto Kuitnen, found guilty last week in Justice Stanley's court of possession of intoxicating liquor, has appealed, through his attorney, G. Russell Morgan, to the Circuit court for a reversal of the lower court's findings. Transcript in the case was filed with the county clerk yesterday. Herbert E. Mead, of North Bend, is the first candidate to file for the May primaries. He paid the $20 fee yesterday, requesting his name to appear as a candidate for the democratic nomination for sheriff. He asks to have as his slogan on the ballot, "An unwavering fig. against the high cost of conducting public office."

Take Three to the Pen

Sheriff Gage and Deputy Frank Osmond left yesterday morning for Salem taking to the pen Frank Curtis, Elmer Scrimger and Elmer Standifer, sentenced by Judge Kendall Tuesday. They will also go up to Payette, Idaho, and bring back Willis and Roberts, the men who drove mortgaged cattle off from the Z. C. Strang ranch at Fairview last April and shipped them to Idaho.

Ground Broken Tuesday

Dirt throwing began Tuesday morning on the site of the new Sentinel building without any formalities. The very stormy weather of the previous few days delayed the start. It is, we believe, the first business building to be erected in Coquille since the paper project was abandoned.

Coolidge in Song

They are practicing a new song in the east now, called: "Keeping Cool With Coolidge." The music for this song is made by drawing strings across an empty coal scuttle, after the manner of a banjo, and picking it with an icicle taken from the hot water faucet in the bath tub.

Camera Offered as a Prize

As a token of our appreciation we will give to every person who start their savings account with us this week an Eastman Hawkeye Camera, and nickel plated savings bank. See us at Fuhrman's Pharmacy this week. Northern Savings & Loan Ass'n.

SOW WILL REQUIRE PROPER ATTENTION

The care the sow receives at farrowing time has a great deal to do with the number of pigs raised, the experience of numerous swine raisers has shown. This care consists of cleanliness and proper feeding advises W. C. Skelley, assistant professor of animal husbandry at the New Jersey State College of Agriculture, New Brunswick.

A good plan to follow is to scrub thoroughly with boiling water and lye the pen or colony house in which the sow is to farrow. This simple precaution is an effective way to make the place clean and sanitary.

A few days before the sow is due to farrow remove her from the herd and wash her udder with soap and warm water. This precaution helps to check intestinal worms in the small pigs. After the sow has been cleaned place her in the farrowing quarters.

Opportunity for some exercise should be given the sow; otherwise she will have a tendency to become constipated, and it will also be difficult to keep her pen in a dry sanitary condition.

The sow's feed just before farrowing should be made more laxative and the quantity reduced. A good rule to follow is to cut her grain ration in half and add a small amount of wheat bran or linseed oil meal. This will keep her bowels loose and she will recover from farrowing more promptly by having her digestive system well cleaned. After farrowing, the sow is in a feverish state for several days, and should be offered no food for practically twenty-four hours. She should be given plenty of fresh water. Special care should be exercised in feeding the sow the first week in order to insure a proper milk flow. The same kind of laxative ration should be used after farrowing as has just been recommended for giving immediately before farrowing. Starting on the second day, give her a very thin ration and gradually increase this by day until by about the tenth day she will be back on full feed.

Question of Nutrition Is Big Factor in Breeding

A noticeable fact with cattle has been observed which leads many to believe that the question of nutrition plays much more of a part with the breeding ability of animals than is generally thought. Cattle that are fitted for show and which are usually fed for high condition are frequently shy breeders and in many cases are sterile. This can be accounted for from the fact that these animals consume too large amounts of carbohydrates and fats and not enough protein; in this manner their reproductive organs become weakened and are no longer able to function in a normal manner. Men who have shown cattle for a number of years have experienced this difficulty very often; this is one of the drawbacks in the showing business. If it is possible to bring these animals to high condition and in so doing feed them greater quantities of protein feeds and mineral matter, it would, prevent much of the breeding trouble in this class of live stock.

Sensible Shelves

If shelves are necessary in your kitchen, have them placed low enough to be within easy reach. Then useless things will not be placed there and allowed to remain.

Extraordinary Optical Service

Yes, that's what you want nowadays. First: You want a really scientific eye examination by one who knows how. Second: No long waits for glasses. (Usually get them within two hours.) Third: You want to feel that any adjustment will cheerfully be made any time later.

Road Bids Varied

In bidding for the Fishtrap to Lam-pa market roads here last Monday some of the bidders asked a higher price for concrete culverts than for those built of cedar, while others bid the same for both and still others asked the most for cedar culverts. There seems to us to be no question that the concrete, if well built, ought to last the longest. Bidders who offered to do cement culverts cheaper must have expected to get by by using cheaper material. We noted this because in getting figures for concrete work for the new Sentinel building for which ground was broken this week, it made some difference whether Belgian cement or Oregon cement was used in its construction.

Political Announcements

For Sheriff I wish to announce myself as a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff of Coos County, at the Republican primaries, May 21, 1926. P. W. Culver.

A Long Island paper reports escarpments now selling at $7 a gallon. They were a favorite article on our menu when the writer was young, and he could enjoy a mess right now whatever the price. The edible part of this shellfish is just the inside that closes it, which is about half an inch long and of the same thickness.

Eight acres, with an ocean frontage of 1,000 feet, recently sold for $100,000 near our old home on Long Island. The Florida boomers are going to take a hand in the realty market there this spring—in spite of the fact that unusually severe storms stopped business at Riverhead, the county seat, at the east end of the island last week.

Rewards of Friendship

This communicating of a man's self to his friends works two contrary effects, for it redoubleth joys and cutteth grief in halves; for there is no man that imparteth his joys to his friend, but he enjoyeth the more; and no man that imparteth his griefs to his friend, but he grieveth the less.

Saw the Possibilities

The pneumatic tire, which is now used on every type of vehicle from a perambulator to a mammoth motor coach, had a very humble origin, for it was suggested to the inventor by the sight of a length of rubber garden hose tied round the wheel of a wheelbarrow.

Illuminating Fluids

Different fluids were used in the old type of lamp at different periods. Fish oil, including crude, heavy whale oil, was employed, and later lard oil was substituted in certain of these lamps. The lamp-burning petroleum and kerosene came in considerably later.

All Tastes Provided For
The Beluchistan rugs are woven with the Sebna knot, and have a fine silky appearance. The chief colors are dark blue, brown, rich dark red, black, and white, and the designs are usually geometrical, though some follow the simpler floral patterns of Persia. They wear well.—From a furniture ad in the Pittsburgh Press.

Short Period of Glory
For many centuries Greek was the classic language in literature until it was supplanted by Latin. The classic period of Latin literature lasted barely 100 years. Between the year 100 B. C. and the beginning of the Christian era, Cicero, Lucretius, Caesar, Horace, Virgil, Ovid and Livy all lived and wrote and passed away.

President's Cabinet
Qualifications for cabinet members are not prescribed by law. The cabinet is barely alluded to in the Constitution. It is presumed that any person appointed to a cabinet position by the President and confirmed by the senate would be qualified for the office.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Ancient Oxford Custom
The annual stipend attached to the office of chancellor of the University of Oxford is £5, and one of the functions of the holder of it is to hear and determine charges of treason and felony preferred against members in residence.

Chinese Superstition
Because they believe that no Chinese will enter heaven unless he is buried in China, natives of that country in the West ship the bodies of their countrymen homeward through San Francisco.

Greenland in Europe
America is usually, but not properly understood to include Greenland. Although located close to the North American continent, Greenland is physically a part of Europe.
