Telling About People and Events in the City and County

Wm. Harmon was a Coquille visitor from the Lee section this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lorenz returned last Sunday from their visit in Portland.

Nice large sleeping room for rent. Heat. $12 a month. Call at 136 Sherwood Ave., Coquille.

The ladies of the Christian Church will hold a cooked food sale at the People's Market on Saturday, August 21.

Work is being rushed on the Mast Hospital at Myrtle Point and the doctors expect to be able to occupy it in a month or six weeks.

J. Harley Quint, a dentist from Eagle Grove, Iowa, yesterday filed his certificate at the county clerk's office here. He will practice at Powers.

Percy Schroeder and his sister, Mrs. A. F. Linegar, who have been visiting in the valley for the past two weeks, intend leaving Sunday for their home in Ceres, Calif.

Sunday dinner at the Coquille Hotel means a day of rest for the housewife; no worry, no drudgery. Service is unexcelled.

John Oerding, who has been living at North Bend for several years, has returned to Coquille and is helping care for the trade at the Oerding Hardware store.

Mrs. Ross Healy, formerly Miss Alice Curry, came in last week from Culver, in eastern Oregon to visit her sisters, Mrs. Margaret Crouch and Miss Winnie Curry.

Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Geo. J. Bohrer returned Wednesday evening from a vacation trip which they took to San Francisco where a sister of Mrs. Bohrer was married.

Miss Oredia Unneland, of Bergen, Norway, arrived here Saturday night direct from Norway, and she will make her home with her uncle, Anthon Monson and family, Times.

J. S. Lawrence and F. G. Leslie, and their wives and Perry Lawrence left yesterday afternoon in the Lawrence sedan for a trip to Crater Lake. They expect to be home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Hal Nelson and four young girls, Misses Fredah Baxter, Alice Fish, Orpha Burket and Jean Young, went down to Port Orford Wednesday for two or three days' camping at the lake.

Dr. W. V. Glaisyer returned last Sunday from his trip to Tacoma. Mrs. A. H. Johnson, mother of Mrs. Glaisyer, is still in a critical condition, so he left his family there for a few weeks longer.

No more cranking your car when you have your battery repaired at Coquille Service Station. All work guaranteed.

Plans to raise a budget for the erection of a $3500 gymnasium at Riverton are being made by the board of directors of Union high school No. 3, Mrs. C. E. Mulkey, county school superintendent states.

F. W. Putnam, arrested last Sunday by Traffic Officer Williams, charged with driving a car while intoxicated, pleaded not guilty before Justice J. J. Stanley and was released Tuesday on $250 bail.

Supt. Lynn A. Parr and son, Gordon, came down from Portland last Sunday. He intends taking Gordon back to Portland the latter part of the month and will then return for the opening of the fall term.

Jos. Nilsen, this side of Riverton on the highway, is building a large barn which covers a lot of ground. It is not as extensive as the one Henry Hess built two or three years ago, across the river from Coquille, but it is a mammoth affair.

The J. L. Smith family returned yesterday morning from their eastern visit on which they left May 26. Although they had a most enjoyable trip and made stops in Kansas, Oklahoma, Illinois and Michigan, they were glad to get home.

M. B. Henderson, his wife and daughter, and his father, L. G. Henderson, old friends of the Geo. J. Bohrer family at Salem, came in yesterday for a few days' visit at the Bohrer home on the highway, next to the S. A. Malehorn place.

J. W. Springer, who left Coquille nine years ago and has not been back since, was in Coquille a few hours Wednesday. With a young friend, Don Higginbotham, he was on his way to Bandon for a week's camping. Their home is in Ontario, Ore.

Radio Batteries and tubes at Oerding Hardware.

Mrs. C. C. Evland left yesterday morning with her son, Fred Tuttle, and family, of Bandon, for a three weeks' visit at Oakland and Petaluma, Calif., with a sister and other relatives down there. Mrs. Nelson, of Bandon, was also in the party.

J. J. Stanley, accompanied by his wife and their daughter, Mrs. Alice Schroeder, and her two children, left yesterday morning on a three weeks' vacation trip. They will make the journey by easy stages, with Yellowstone Park as their eastern objective.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Sanford returned Tuesday evening from their two weeks' trip. Instead of going into eastern Oregon, after visiting Ashland, Klamath Falls, Crater Lake, and Bend, they came back through Mackenzie Pass and spent a couple of days in Portland.

Misses May Nissen and Clara Dix came in Tuesday from Berkeley, California, where they had been attending summer school, for a visit with the former's sister, Mrs. J. P. Beyers. They are both teachers in the Pocatello, Idaho, public schools, and will leave for there soon.

Wm. Fortier and family returned Monday evening from their two weeks' vacation trip. Bill says that he secured a contract for "Ding" Mulligan with the San Francisco Seals, of the Coast League. The latter will report to them at spring training camp next year.

Dr. C. R. Boyd and wife will motor to Hillsboro and Portland on Saturday, August 14th, to visit with friends and relatives, and will take in the A. C. campmeeting at Troutdale on the Sandy, and return in company with their two daughters, Miss Zoia and Lucy, on Aug. 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Gates have been enjoying a visit from two of her sisters, Mrs. John C. Mann, of Medford, and Miss Julia E. Booth, of St. Cloud, Minn. The latter is connected with the State Teachers College there. Mr. Mann was also here, and they are now spending a week in a cottage on Bandon beach.

Announcement was received this week in Coquille of the birth of a second daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Locker, of Burns, Ore. The little miss has been named Marjorie Josephine. Mrs. Locker will be remembered by many in Coos county, formerly being Miss Minnie Kalbus, home demonstration agent.

Henry Maury and Miss Mary Maury of Medford, came in Tuesday for a visit with their brother, L. P. Maury and family. They were accompanied by another brother, Miller Maury. Together with the H. W. Pierce family and other friends the Maury family enjoyed a picnic at Bandon last night followed by a swim in the natorium.

Miss Anna Hotaling, a cousin of C. J. Fuhrman, from Fon du Lac, Wis., came in Monday from San Francisco and the same day Mr. Fuhrman and family, Mrs. F. W. Kronenberg and Miss Hotaling went down to Bandon, where they have a cabin on the beach. They have also been making trips down the coast and the Wisconsin visitor is much impressed with this coast country.

Water well drilling outfit will be in this territory within a short time and those desiring wells drilled should see or write W. F. Kernan, Box 856, Roseburg, Ore. 2944.

W. E. Cleghorn came in Sunday from the east where he has spent most of the time since he was here last year. His mother died at Jefferson City, Mo., a couple of months ago, and when he came back to the coast he was accompanied by his wife and two sisters from Jefferson City. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hitch and Miss Ida Stealy are the names of the eastern visitors. After a three weeks' visit in Coquille Mr. Cleghorn intends returning to Coalinga, Calif., to locate.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Tozier made their first visit to Coquille this week since they were married in January, 1922. They came in last Sunday from Montague, Calif., and expect to leave for home tomorrow. Harry is associated with his father-in-law, Chas. E. Strang, in a ranch in the Shasta valley country. Dairying is the principal line followed, as they are milking 60 cows, but they also have a flock of 200 turkeys and raise potatoes and other vegetables. Harry is looking well and seems pretty well satisfied with ranch life.

Why not eat Sunday's dinner at the Hotel Coquille? You'll enjoy it, as well as a day of rest.

K. P. at Bandon Sunday

The Knights of Pythias of Coos County are planning for a jolly time next Sunday at Bandon. They have rented the Natorium for the forenoon and expect a big crowd in attendance as the entire proceeds of the day's program is to be donated to the K. P. Children's Home near Portland.

The ball park will be a scene of activity from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m. as there are lots of stunts to pull off as well as races, horse-shoe battles and a wild baseball game between the members of K. P. lodges of Coos Bay and the Valley lodges. Chas. St. Dennis, of Lakeside, has been engaged to umpire the game which assures everyone an equal chance.

At 1 p. m. visitors will have a basket lunch, free coffee, sugar and cream will be furnished and the Bandon Concert band will serve sweet music during the lunch and in the ball park during the game.

Everyone is welcome as it is the intention of the committee to make it interesting for old and young and all will find something to interest and amuse them.

Narrow Escape at Bandon

Miss Helen Brown, 16-year-old Portland girl, was rescued from drowning in the surf at the local beach near the natorium Monday afternoon by Edward Cardinal and Jack Dean, life guards at Wecoma Baths.

Miss Brown had been "riding the breakers" on an incoming tide but got out too far after the tide had turned and was drifting out toward the big rocks when her plight was discovered by those on shore. She fought bravely to keep afloat among the big breakers and except for her courage and presence of mind she would have been lost. Word was sent to the natorium. Fireman Hunt, nearer to the scene, was the first to attempt aid but was unable to reach the girl. In the meantime the two guards, both excellent swimmers, arrived. Cardinal was the first in the water and the first to reach the girl's side. He was soon joined by Dean and she was safely brought to shore.

Captain Nutter of the U. S. Coast guard was notified and the crew arrived in time to administer first aid. The efficient methods of these trained men brought the girl back to consciousness within a few minutes and she was breathing safely when Dr. Leep arrived on the scene. She was cared for by Mrs. C. D. Jarman at the natorium until able to return to her friends.

Recovering from the effects of her experience, Mrs. Brown stated that all she could remember was that she was determined not to get water in her mouth and that she wouldn't give up.

Miss Brown, whose home is at 1354 Rodney avenue, Portland, has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moore, of Coquille, and with Mrs. Moore was enjoying the beach.

The lookout of the coast guard, who had previously observed the girl in the surf, was at the time of her plight focusing his glasses on two small fishing boats that were apparently in trouble, dangerously close to the big rocks. The boats, however, extricated themselves from their positions without much difficulty.—Bandon World.

Love and Letter Writing

By JANE OSBORN

(Copyright.)

NO MATTER how well he might train his private secretary, Jerry Dawe always had a good-sized pile of letters on his desk at his office that needed personal attention. So an hour or more of every day's time was devoted to letter writing. And as a writer of forceful and unusual business letters Jerry Dawe enjoyed quite a bad reputation. These business letters were a nuisance but they could be got through. Personal letters, however, in Jerry's opinion were a deadly plague.

Of course Jerry knew that to reply to purely social correspondence with a typewritten letter was decidedly bad manners. Still it seemed to Jerry that his mother and sister ought not to object to letters dictated to his stenographer.

Jerry's invitations were numerous. Moreover on birthdays and holidays Jerry's friends had a disconcerting way of sending him presents. And always Jerry would have to sit home in his apartment miserably writing notes of acknowledgment. Once it occurred to him that to persons who were not familiar with his handwriting his stenographer might write some of the formal social notes.

Once Jerry asked his partner how he managed with his personal and social correspondence. "You mean letters to the folks at home, and answers to invitations and all that sort of thing? Why, bless your heart, I haven't thought of such matters for many a year. My wife attends to all that. And of course 'thank you' letters and answers to invitations—I suppose a man's wife always attends to such matters."

Presently Jerry was absorbed in business concerns, but later he found himself recalling what his partner had said on the matter. Jerry had to admit that such thoughts were rather dangerous. They might so far dominate him that he would end by asking some girl to marry him. Probably—nifty-nine chances out of a hundred—thought the modest bachelor, the girl would reject him, but there was the chance. Besides, having proposed once he would probably be willing to propose again.

One evening snugly home in his bachelor apartment he surveyed six letters and notes, all needing personal replies. He felt sure that no one else in his acquaintance had relatives with such a taste and talent for writing letters. In a mood like this Jerry looked over the idea of writing the next day to his mother and over to himself the names of the young women of his acquaintance whom he might consider as possibilities. Six or seven occurred to him, yet so far as he knew not one of them cared a snap of her finger for him, and he cared little more than that for any one of them. Still there were the letters—he hated to answer them.

It was the next day that Jerry walked into the office of Patricia Collins, employment agent—walked in with his eyes wide open. At a glance he saw how very pretty was Patricia as she sat at her well-arranged desk, dictating to two stenographers at once and giving directions to an office boy without apparently being the least bit confused. Jerry would have telephoned only that he wanted to maintain perfect secrecy in the matter.

Patricia finished with her assistants and then gave her undivided attention to Jerry. He explained without any embarrassment his predicament and asked Patricia to put him in touch with some young woman with a good strong handwriting and a knowledge of the conventions who would attend to his correspondence.

"Of course," said Patricia, looking a little reprovingly at him, "of course I could probably find some young woman of that sort. Still, it seems a shame—she'd have to counterfeit your handwriting—and the relatives who like hearing from you wouldn't really be hearing from you at all. It's too bad you haven't a sister or some one who could write to your relatives and attend to your social correspondence. Then there wouldn't have to be any deception about it. Usually a man's wife does those things—" Patricia stopped short and looked a trifle embarrassed.

"I know," said Jerry, "and that's the trouble. I'm not married—never shall be married. And I detest writing letters—"

Two months thereafter a devoted aunt of Jerry received this letter written in a well-formed feminine hand that was unfamiliar to her.

"Dear Aunt Mary—" the letter ran, "Jerry has asked me to write this letter to you and I'll have to introduce myself to you to start with as Jerry's new wife. Jerry met me only a little while ago and after the shortest time we became engaged and then as I was quite alone in the world and almost twenty-eight we were married without delay. From what Jerry says, you and I have always been great friends—and I'm hoping for a share in that friendship. I was in business before I married Jerry and I asked Jerry if I couldn't answer his letters for him just to keep myself from being idle. So I'm going to tell you everything that Jerry has been doing—"

And so the letter progressed over eight pages of note paper full of the doings and thoughts of Jerry.
