M. E. Church

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening. Mrs. Varney will tell the Bible story at Sunday school and Miss Prensall will lead the League. All services as usual. You are welcome.

Morning sermon: "Veiled Faces—Veiled Hearts."

Evening sermon: "Jesus before Pilate—Pilate before Jesus."

Jesus had and has "All power in heaven and earth," but "He opened not His mouth." That was Pilate's day. Vain, foolish, wicked man willingly judges Christ and His Word. Even crooks and fakes hide behind the Name of Christ to conceal their swindles. This is the sinner's day. The Judgment will reverse the scenes. J. S. Penix, pastor

Sewing Clubs

Enrollment blanks have been received in the office of the County Superintendent from H. C. Seymour, state club leader, for two sewing clubs which were recently organized. A sewing club at Randolph with Mrs. L. A. Pinkston as club leader, was organized with eleven members, namely: Audrey McLeod, president; Georgie Philpott, vice president; Doris Williams, secretary; Helen Pinkston, Dorothy McLeod, Marjorie Fredericks, Edith Philpott, Lavelle Walstrom, Bessie Ownby, Martha Lundy and Alice Williams.

The other club, the Coos River Busy Bee Sewing club, was organized at Coos River with Mabel Wilcox as leader. The following are members, Genevieve Maynard, president; Vivian Russell, vice president; Velma Maynard, secretary; Helen Hunt Rennings, Bessie Kardell, Pauline Randleman, Lorraine Whitney, Hazel Rice and Evelyn Weaver.

There are now thirteen sewing clubs which have been organized for this year's work under the Boys' and Girls' Industrial Club Work. The other clubs are located at the following places: Millington, Empire, Bridge, Prosper, Bancroft, St. Monica's at Marshfield, also Broadbent, Arago and Myrtle Point. All of these are girls' sewing clubs except one of the two at Empire which is a Bachelors' sewing club for boys.

Crashed Through Bridge

A Buick touring car driven by a mechanic from Roseburg crashed through the railing of the Myrtle Point bridge about noon Tuesday. Neither the driver nor his companion, Frank Smith, were injured. The car was badly wrecked. The auto skidded and struck the right hand side of the bridge, then swerved to the left and crashed in about 20 feet of the railing.—Times.

Riverton School Notes

Various changes were made in the class periods Monday, the first day of the second semester.

The Imperial has been carrying the children from down the river since the first of the year and will continue to do so for some time.

The plumbers have finished installing the furnace and showers in the new gymnasium. The showers, which are only temporary, will be replaced by permanent ones next year.

The new gymnasium has been wired for electric lights and Lex Cope, from Coquille, furnished lights with his Kohler plant for the two basket ball games played here.

The Mountain States Power Co. has completed the line from the foot hill to the river.

Economics has been chosen in place of social problems for this semester's work.

Wilbur Williams, a member of the sophomore class, left school after having completed the first semester work, and will not return again until next fall.

Riverton and Bandon played basket ball at Riverton Saturday 15. Riverton was defeated by a score of 23-34. Langlois and Riverton's second team played for a preliminary game. The score was 15-17 in favor of Langlois.

Both the boys and girls basket ball teams are going to Arago Friday, Jan. 21, to play.

Powers will come to Riverton Saturday night, Jan. 22, to play basket ball. There will also be a preliminary game.

Broadbent Items

The fifth grade have their colors on the banner for the month of January.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bently spent the week end here.

Mrs. Wagner visited school on Tuesday.

E. A. Forrest has employed Charlie Forrest, of North Bend, to work on his ranch.

The ones who have their names on the honor roll this six weeks are: Truman Wagner, Mary Ellen Hartley, Andy Newhouse, Cornelia Clausen, Henry Whobrey, Delos Hermann, Leslie Hermann, Richard Brown, William Kelley, Viola Hoffman, Jean Robins, Lila Parrish, James Gilmore, Verlan Hermann, Agnes Whobrey, Beulah Gilmore, Wilmont Hoffman.

The Smith Brothers have started work on the new building at school, which will be used for a woodshed and toilets.

Tom Dickson and son are remodeling Mr. and Mrs. Robertson's home by building a new addition.

Mrs. Clausen and Ernie are at Norway with her sister, Mrs. Detlefsen, whose husband is in the Mast hospital.

The Newhouse family spent the week-end in Coquille with their daughter.

Children's Stories Wanted

The National Tuberculosis Association is giving three fifty dollar prizes for the three best stories for children for use as publicity in the next Christmas Seal Sale. If you or any of your friends wish to submit stories, please send them to the County Health Association in Coquille by February 15th so that they can get them into the hands of the National Association in time to be entered in the competition.

Rules

1. The contest is open to college students and to all others, especially to those having training or experience in writing stories.
2. Stories must not be over 2,000 words in length.
3. Stories must introduce in some way the Christmas Seal for 1927.
4. Stories may be written for two age groups; primary and intermediate grade children.
5. Stories must be typewritten on one side of sheets of white paper, 8 1/2 x 11.
6. All stories for this contest must be in the hands of the Oregon Tuberculosis Association, 310 Fitzpatrick Building, Portland, Oregon, not later than February 15th, 1927.

The stories will be judged on three counts:

1. Their appeal to the child.
2. Their success in incorporating the Christmas Seal.
3. Their literary quality.

Meat Story Contest

Local high-school girls are to be given an opportunity to win a university scholarship through competition in a national meat story contest according to an announcement just sent out to home economics teachers by the National Live Stock and Meat Board. Several scholarships are being offered. It is the fourth annual contest to be sponsored by this institution. To compete, a student must write a story or theme on some phase of the subject of meat or the live-stock industry.

Calling cards 100 for $1.50.
