Telling About People and Events in the City and County

Arthur A. Selander, who came down Friday from Salem, returned to the capital Sunday afternoon. He is clerk of the Senate Highways committee, of which Ches. Hall is chairman.

The organ at the Liberty Theatre has been gone over this week by Jos. W. Klein, of Los Angeles, inventor of the drawl attachment to the organ, who keeps the instrument serviced.

"I am in need of a position," says Mrs. Belle H. Zunke, of Bandon. "My husband has left me with debts and a car not paid for and which I am arranging to dispose of. I need a position. Would like clerking, office work, or sewing."

Special Chicken Dinner at the new Coquille, Hotel every Sunday.

Supt. L. W. Turnbull with Mrs. Turnbull and his mother, Mrs. Clara Turnbull, of North Bend, spent Saturday in Coquille. While Mr. Turnbull was attending to business affairs the ladies spent the afternoon with Mrs. Wm. Candlin.

The Missionary society of the Pioneer church will hold a cooked food sale at Nosler's store Saturday morning (tomorrow) beginning at 10 a. m. Mrs. Richmond's Sunday school class will also hold a sale of home-made candy at the same time and place.

Radio Batteries and tubes at Oerding Hardware.

In order to give more prompt service to its customers the Sentinel has this week added another printer to its mechanical force. He is Macey Anderson, a former Coquille boy, who has been employed for the past two years on the Reedsport Carrier.

Tenn Robinson came over here Sunday from North Bend where he had been in Keizer Bros.' hospital following an operation, performed by Dr. G. E. Low. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are at present visiting their daughter, Mrs. Roy G. Gadsden, on East Second street.

The lady of the house is entitled to one day of rest a week. If you take your Sunday dinner at the Hotel Coquille, you are sure to enjoy the day.

E. C. Carroll, of Kelso, Wash., who is seeking an opening for a clothing store, was a Coquille called yesterday. He agreed with the statement that another such store here is not a necessity. He visited all the Coos county cities while here, but made no announcement of his intentions.

Geo. W. Moore, president of the Moore, Lumber Co. at Bandon, whose home is in San Francisco, was a Coquille visitor yesterday. He was up on one of his regular inspection trips to the mill and the camp at Leneve. Miss Maude Porter, of Eugene, came down Tuesday morning to take the position of stenographer in A. J. Sherwood's law office.

E. W. Gregg has enlarged the capacity of his shop on Front street, by moving all the wood working machinery to the basement, and has secured a skilled workman to run it. Anything in the line of window and door frames, cabinet work, cupboard doors and drawers, screens and all kinds of mill work can be secured on short notice.

Miss Genevieve Chase spent most of last week in Chicago attending religious and educational conference due to her membership on the National Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church and her fellowship at Columbia University. One year ago now she attended the national students' council at Evanston, Ill., representing the student body of U. of O.

Wm. Ferbrache, who is tackling the mining game in the Applegate country, near Grants Pass, was home over Sunday and left Monday morning for the property, accompanied by Leland McGilvery, who will work on the claim. Several years ago $70,000 was taken off from ten acres in placer mining and Mr. Ferbrache will work on the remaining hundred which was not touched at that time.

Dr. W. V. Glaisyer received word yesterday morning that his sister, Mrs. G. E. Howe, of Creswell, died that morning at a hospital in Portland. Pneumonia was the cause of her death. She visited the doctor's family here a few years ago. The doctor intends going out for the funeral. Dr. L. E. Glaisyer, of Marshfield, left yesterday morning on the same mission.

Was Drinking in City Hall

I. S. Robinson was arrested by Marshal Trot Saturday evening on the charge of disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. The marshal came upon him and another drinking in front of the recorder's door in the city hall. Before the arrest was completed the two were clear out of the building on the corner and the bottle was broken.

Recorder fined Robinson $75 when he appeared before him Monday evening.

Edward La Branche was arrested by prohibition officers for being intoxicated Saturday evening. He deposited $10 bail for his appearance before the recorder but failed to show up and the bail was declared forfeited.

E. G. Cornwall was also arrested Saturday night for disorderly conduct. He was fined $35 by the recorder Monday.

She Will Teach Voice Culture

Miss Jessie Thorpe, who came here this week from Omaha, Nebraska, is a voice teacher of several years experience in her chosen field. Her study was carried on in Chicago, her home; and in the best schools. She studied first in the Chicago Musical College under a retired opera singer and later in the American Conservatory under Karleton Hackett, the head of the voice department of that school, from which she has her diploma.

She is specializing in tone-placing and interpretation, diction and all of the things that combine to bring out good tone quality and range or compass of the voice; correct and pleasing delivery of the text.

Miss Thorpe had a desire to live in Oregon and had been informed of the need of a voice teacher in this locality.

Power Team Lost, 27-19

Wilkinson's cagers, from North Bend, cleaned up on the Coquille Power hoopers at the Community building here last night 27-19. They did it by shooting hard while they were fresh, for the score at the half was 18-4 in their favor. The Power quint played the best ball in the last half.

Arago girls could not get down here for the preliminary game, so the White Waists and the Red Shirts furnished the opening attraction. The White Waists—Doris Kay, Alice Oerding, Fern and Wanda Houdabell, Jerene Low and Margaret Agostine defeated by a 33-22 score the Red Shirts, composed of Alice Fish, Alice Collier, Mildred Chapin, Lois Kay, Ruth Wilsie and Elizabeth Mintonye.

Fortunate It Was No Worse

A newspaper man is not supposed to toot his own horn, but when his accident is a matter of news it must be treated as such. Last Saturday evening a little after seven, S. P. Ball was struck at the intersection of First and Taylor streets by H. A. Young's auto. He was unconscious for a few moments as a result of his head striking the pavement. The injury was not serious and he was down town the next day.

A car passing between Mr. Ball and the car that struck him prevented him or the driver from seeing the other, and he stated Monday that he did not consider the driver to be at fault.

Truck Accident on Camas

Clovis Church received a cracked rib and a wrenched shoulder last Thursday afternoon when the Farr & Elwood truck he was driving went over a five-foot grade a few hundred feet from the top of Camas mountain. A flat tire is supposed to have been the cause of the accident.

The frame part of the truck was jammed considerably but the chassis was injured only slightly.

Mrs. Van Scoy Society Editress

Mrs. Paul Van Scoy is the new editress of social notes and affairs for the Sentinel. Mrs. H. W. Pierce having resigned because of other duties which take all of her time. Those having items of social nature will confer a favor on the Sentinel and upon Mrs. Van Scoy if they will notify her.

N. C. Kelley Is Improving

The illness of Ned C. Kelley was more serious than was thought last Thursday noon when he collapsed just as he sat down to dinner at the regular Lions Club meeting. It was a slight stroke which affected his power of speech and has kept him confined to his bed since.

Myrtle Point 20, Coquille 15

After winning an easy game at Arago 49-9 last Friday night, the Coquille High School five met a tartar in the Myrtle Point quintet here Tuesday evening and dropped to third place in the conference standing, and a three way tie for that, when the visitors won, 20-15, simply outplaying the locals.

Coach Levar has his boys trained on a bounce pass that the Coquille hoopers seemed unable to break up. They worked in to the basket well and played all around good ball. Add to this the uncanny shooting of Smith, who dropped three baskets in row from the middle of the floor in the second quarter and you have the story.

The reverse play which succeeded so often against Arago was entirely ineffectual against Myrtle Point. But worse than anything else the Coquille boys did was taking a step with the ball. Time after time they lost it for failing to regard that rule. Then, too, the boys were slow in getting the ball away and Myrtle Point had the jump on them.

With the score 17-8 against them at the half Coquille came back in the next and played faster, snappier game, cutting their opponents' lead down, but not enough.

The statistics of the game show that Myrtle Point made seven baskets, Coquille five; Myrtle Point scored six free throws, Coquille five; Myrtle Point missed five chances after foul, Coquille missed seven.

The line-up

Myrtle Point	Coquille
Montgomery 6	F Richmond 6
Druilner 2	F Agostine 3
Hartley 4	C Curtis 6
Smith 6	G Call
Carter 1	G Johnson
Froest 1	S Butts
Schroeder 8	S

Coquille won one game from Myrtle Point Tuesday evening by a score of 29-19. It was the Ko-Keel Keen Ketchers which defeated a Myrtle Point alumni girls' team. The visitors played good ball but they could not get down here for the preliminary game of the "two Alices."

About Former Coos Men

Rev. Wm. R. Sanderson, former pastor of the Marshfield Presbyterian church, is now located at Newark, New York, only thirty miles from Rochester, where Coquille's last Presbyterian pastor is now located. It seems rather strange that two former Coos county pastors of that church should be located so near each other in the writer's home state. Mr. Sanderson has just completed post graduate work in Auburn Seminary, and now has the pastorate of a church with 650 members. He and Mr. Bergner are both young men and may have many years of usefulness before them. At the writer's old home on Eastern Long Island in that state, the Presbyterian church was not largely represented, though there were more Swedenborgian churches than we ever found in any other section of the country.

Law Violators in the Valley

The biggest catch ever made in Lane county for game law violations was made last week when six men were taken in a raid on the Thompson resort on the McKenzie. Five of them are members of the Thompson family and are brothers. The sixth, E. C. Clark, is a resident of an eastern state and is believed to have come here for the purpose of joining with the Thompsons in illegal hunting. The Thompsons conduct the resort during the summer and spend their winters trapping and acting as guides. Following are those arrested and the charges against them:

Milo Thompson, charged with hunting female deer; Dayton C. Thompson, charged with sale of deer meat; E. C. Clark, hunting female deer and hunting without a license; Cary W. Thompson, I. York Thompson and Cary W. Thompson Jr. are charged jointly with the others with wastage of parts of game animals, having untagged deer in their possession and hunting in closed season.—Cottage Grove Sentinel.

Baptist Evangelistic Services

The Baptist church will begin their Evangelistic meeting Jan. 30. We will have with us State Evangelist Bentley. Rev. Mr. Bentley is an evangelist who is proving himself to be a real soul winner.

Rev. E. N. Turner, pastor.

The Bank of England recently issued an order to their clerks that mustaches were not to be worn during business hours.

Rowboat Tossed on Tug's Deck

To have his rowboat and himself picked up by a big wave and set down on the deck of a tug on the high seas was the thrilling and novel experience of First Mate E. R. Jackson of the tug Oregon Tuesday morning. Jackson had taken Pilot Ed Skog from the tug alongside the Japanese freighter Gyoko Maru to bring in the big ship, which had just arrived from Japan.

On rowing back to the tug in the face of choppy seas, Mate Jackson was maneuvering to get in position so that the hoisting lines could be hooked on to his craft to lift her up on the deck.

He had just got in position when a big sea struck his rowboat. At the same time, the tug was pitching sideways. In an instant the rowboat was on the crest of the wave, which swept the deck of the tug. As the sea subsided, the rowboat was resting flat on the Oregon deck and Mate Jackson with a bewildered look was sitting in his craft, trying to figure out how it all happened.

Capt. L. P. Harvey of the Oregon has spent a lifetime at sea but this is the first time anything of this kind has happened to him, he said.

The Gyoko Maru had a rather stormy trip across and if she had not been able to get in this morning would have had to make a special trip to some other port to replenish her fuel oil supply. She will load 2,200,000 feet of cedar lumber and logs here.—Coos Bay Times.

Carrier Pigeons at the Bay

A loft for carrier pigeons will be installed in Marshfield this week by the Sperry Flour Co., which is developing the service on the Pacific coast. Marshfield will be the first town in Oregon except Portland and Medford to have this feature. The inclusion of Coos Bay was a special favor to Matt L. May, district representative.

C. F. Bulger, in general charge of this feature, arrived last week to make preliminary arrangements.

Supt. Gilliam was also expected this week to construct the loft and to train the first six birds in flying. The service will be gradually developed.

It is expected that birds will be brought here to carry messages to Portland, to Medford and probably to San Francisco, where they will be relayed to other points. The service has been developed so that the Sperry Co. now maintains thirty-two lofts in the western states, covering every city of 25,000 or more.

The birds are fast, maintaining a speed of fifty miles per hour on long flights. Three to five hundred miles is the usual distance allowed before relaying the message by other birds.—Times.

During the month of November, 1926, the United States mints executed 38,110,055 pieces of domestic coins. This production included 635,000 double eagles and 390,000 quarter eagles, 80,055 Oregon Trail half-dollars, 7,500,000 dimes, 8,784,000 nickels and 20,721,000 one-cent pieces.

A native of Baalbek, Turkey, unearthed a small Roman theatre in his cellar while building and although realizing its value he pleaded with archeologists not to report his discovery to the government for fear of losing his home.

The walls of a bungalow erected by the town of Middleboro, Kentucky, to advertise the chief product of the district, are made entirely of bituminous coal, laid in mortar.

A wild goose tagged and set free by Jack Miner at Kingsville, Ontario, on the north shore of Lake Erie, was shot four days later at St. George Island, Florida.
