Woman's Club Annual Meeting

The Coquille Woman's Club met Tuesday afternoon of this week at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Lamb with Mrs. Lamb, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Owen and Mrs. Carrier as hostesses. Mrs. C. V. Smith, president of the club, presided during the business session. The next meeting will be the annual luncheon given May 8th at the hotel. The ways and means committee has charge of the luncheon, so those wishing to attend will please notify Mrs. T. B. Currie before that date. Thirteen dollars were turned over to the Woman's Club, being the proceeds from the library tea. It was also voted to send $10 to the Doernbecher Hospital in Portland. The Better Homes week with Mrs. J. A. Lamb as chairman for Coquille, was discussed. Mrs. Currie read an interesting article telling just what better homes week meant.

A food sale will be held at Thrift's store April 28th. Those wishing to contribute, please do so. It is given for the benefit of the library. The club has pledged $20 a month towards the library, so this is one way in which part of the money is to be raised. Little Miss Louise Woodyard, seven years of age, sang two songs very pleasingly. For one selection she was accompanied by her mother and for the other she played her own accompaniment.

The club was pleased to have as speakers for the afternoon Mayor C. T. Skeels, J. L. Smith, president of the Chamber of Commerce; J. L. Stevens, president of the Lions Club; and H. A. Young, editor of the Sentinel. All gave very interesting talks which were much enjoyed by the club members. Mrs. Pearl Ellingsen, librarian, read a letter from the state librarian.

Plans for the annual May dance which will be held May 2nd at Graham's hall are well under way. For Tuesday morning a number of club ladies have offered their caps and time to collect three dozen jars of canned fruit which is to go to the Pacific Protective Association. Those wishing to contribute, please call either Mrs. T. B. Currie or Mrs. C. C. Parr and they will call at your home and leave a new empty jar for you in the place of the one given.
