Around Arago Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. George Gillispie enjoyed a short visit from Mrs. Gillispie's sister, Mrs. C. Ed Bennett, and husband, the fore part of last week. They were from Oakland, California, and were on their way to Portland to visit other relatives. They seemed to be very favorably impressed with our valley.

Mrs. Omer Idso and daughter, Faith, were guests of Mrs. B. B. Watkins on Hall's creek a few days the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fish and daughter, Ethel, called on Mrs. Jane Crutchfield, last Sunday afternoon, at her home up South Fork. Mrs. Crutchfield once lived in the neighborhood many years ago, still there are several people in the neighborhood who will remember her. Mrs. Fish reports her as having been bedfast with inflammatory rheumatism for several years.

Frank Miller has purchased a new G. M. C. truck and put it to work on the road this week.

Robert Fish returned Saturday Saturday night from Echo, where he has been with his sister and family, Mrs. J. I. Young, since February. Robert reports the season there backward as for weather. He did not like so much cold wind as they were having, although they were through with their first hay crop and were ready to begin wheat harvest.

The young people who went to the summer school at O. A. C., Corvallis, returned Saturday afternoon and, according to reports, are still busy telling home folks what they saw and learned at the school.

Miss Iva Miller went to Coquille Tuesday afternoon and her friend, Miss Faye McCue, returned with her for a few days' visit.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Bunnage and son, Robert, started on their return to Portland, after having spent two weeks with her sister and family, Mrs. Burtiss.

Mr. Moore and family, Mr. and Mrs. Burtiss, Mr. and Miss Huling of Myrtle Point, motored to Bandon Sunday evening, where they enjoyed a delightful evening and lunch on the beach.

Vern Lundy, from Catching creek, dined Sunday with the Burtiss family.

Although the good weather is alluring for picnics and parties, still the attendance at Sunday school holds fairly good. There were 61 present last Sunday and 67 a week ago.

Mr. Hulet of Myrtle Point preached Sunday morning. Mrs. Hulet is expected to meet with us next Sunday.

Hagge in Kangaroo Court

Wm. Hagge, republican candidate for county commissioner, was a Coquille visitor last Friday afternoon and on a visit to the court house was taken into custody by "Sheriff" Pittman. When taken before the Kangaroo court, in the basement of the Hall of Records, he pleaded destitution and escaped payment of the $1 fine assessed against those who are haled before Hizzoner Andy Erickson.

Henry Clay Bryant

Henry C. Bryant, father of Geo. W. Bryant and Mrs. Audrey Dodson, of this city, passed away last Friday at the Bryant home on Knowlton Heights. He had not been in good health for the past few years, following a paralytic stroke in October, 1922.

Funeral services were held at the Schroeder chapel in Myrtle Point, Sunday, at 2 p. m. Interment was in the Myrtle Point cemetery.

Henry Clay Bryant was born May 19, 1850, in Schuyler county, Mo., and was one month and three days past 78 years of age.

When a lad of four he crossed the plains by ox team with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bryant, who settled at Yaquina Bay, Ore. Later they moved to Norton, a town not far from Corvallis.

On July 27, 1876, he was married to Miss Elnorah Baldefree, of Columbia county, Ark., at Gardner, Mo. The Suslaw. They came to Coos county 35 years ago and lived at Bridge and Myrtle Point until the death of Mrs. Bryant, which occurred May 5, 1925.

To this union six children were born, of whom four survive—Mrs. Audrey Dodson, Miss Della Lucille Bryant, Geo. W., and Robert Henry Bryant.

He is also survived by two brothers, Jos. Bryant, of Siletz, and Everett Bryant, of Norton, one sister, Mrs. Jennie Williams, of Otter Rock, Ore., two granddaughters and four grandsons.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank our friends and neighbors for their kind sympathy and assistance during our recent bereavement, the loss of our father, H. C. Bryant. Also for the floral remembrances.

Mrs. Audry Dodson,
Miss Della Bryant,
Geo. W. Bryant,
Henry R. Bryant.

Hot Chimney Scorches Firemen

Tuesday morning Fred Wimer noticed smoke coming from the roof of the J. W. Dugger home, between the O. C. Sanford place and Mrs. Allen McLeod's rooming house. He and Dewey Walker and Frank Schram took the chemical wagon, without turning in an alarm, and soon had the fire out. It was only the chimney burning out, but the smoke was oozing out all through the brick where the mortar had disappeared. Fred received quite a burn on his arm when he and Frank slipped on the wet moss-covered roof and Fred fell against the chimney. For a moment it looked as though the chimney and the two men would all slide off the roof and crash to the ground together.

Surviving Mr. Nichols are his widow, Mrs. Cordelia Nichols, and ten children. Two children are dead. There are also thirty-four grandchildren left to mourn their loss. He was laid to rest in the Norway cemetery.

Harry Myers and Theodosia Judy of Marshfield were married at the home of Rev. Omer Idso, pastor of the Methodist church.

Perone Mill Damaged

A fire at the Tony Perone tie mill at Norway, Tuesday, did $700 at $800 damage. The fire started from spilled gasoline catching fire from the exhaust of the tractor used to run the saw. Forty to fifty cords of alabwood was destroyed, eight or ten ties burned and the tractor was damaged. The mill is located about a quarter of a mile up the gulch in which the old Aasen mill stands.

The Myrtle Point fire department was called, but too late for them to do much, as it had nearly burned out by the time the chemical arrived.

Brewster Valley Items

Jesse Laird returned home Wednesday, having cut his arm quite badly while working in Fred Baker's logging camp below Bandon.

Binger Laird, wife and son Berton Hale, have been visiting friends and relatives in the valley the past week. Mrs. Laird returned to her home at Roseburg Friday, but Binger and son will remain for a few days longer.

Anna Lou Lawhorn celebrated her fifteenth birthday by giving a picnic in the grove near her home. The invited guests were: Ella Parks, Eloda Krewson, Hazel Taylor, Velma Krewson, Eloise Crowley, Adeline Parks, Ruby Parks and Charles Wilson.

Mrs. Tom Lawhorn had the misfortune to fall and break a bone in her ankle. She is much improved at this writing.

The Ladies Club gave Zilpha Krewson a surprise stork shower at her home Thursday. She received many nice gifts from her many friends. Angel cake, lemonade and ice cream were served by Daisy Laird and Mildred Benham to the following ladies:

Georgia Bunch, Mrs. Janie Epps, Mrs. Effie Stanley, Mrs. Bertha Parks, Stella Crowley, Mrs. K. E. Marcy, Zilpha Krewson, Ethel Abernathy, Mrs. Dorothy Mayne, Wilma Shepard, Mrs. Geo. Eratt, Grandma Laird, Mrs. Missouri Kirkendall, Effie and Flossie Wilson, Polly and Mrs. F. H. Nickason.

Rollie Alford, who is working below Bandon, spent the week end visiting his mother, Mrs. Fannie Alford, and sister, Edna, who is very poorly. She has been bedfast for over five months.

Mrs. Buckheister brought the message of the Four Square gospel to the people of Brewster Thursday evening.

Mr. Carrick of the Presbyterian Church preached his monthly sermon Sunday at the Community Hall.

Mrs. Belle Laird and Grant Harry visited at the Alford home Sunday. Alford and Jack Grove visited Edwin Crowley Sunday, riding up on their new bicycles.

Tom Lawhorn and his crew are blasting rock preparing to start the rock crusher.

Those from Brewster valley attending the Pomona Grange at McKinley were: Mrs. Lena Lawhorn, Mrs. Zilpha Krewson, Daisy Laird, Mildred Benham and Mrs. Elmer Wilson, and Mrs. Pratt and Ethel Abernathy from Dora.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shores and Gwendolyn Shores from Gravel Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Walters from Berkeley, Calif., visited at the Alford home Wednesday. Also Mr. and Mrs. Cornell and the two Alford children, from Crowell, Ore., visited Mrs. P. A. Alford Wednesday.

Statutory Cases Dismissed

The jury which heard the case against Joe Williams, charged with rape, were unable to come to an agreement after being out several hours and their report was accepted late Friday night.

The case of the same kind against Willard Brown likewise failed of conviction when the jury divided six to six.

At this point in the proceedings District Attorney Beddingfield moved that the two cases against both Williams and Brown and the one against the Carilles, against all of whom the same five girls were the witnesses be dismissed for lack of evidence.

Before granting the motion and dismissing the cases Judge Brand stated that he was extremely reluctant to take such action, but that he had no knowledge of evidence, other than that already presented, and that he necessarily must strike the cases from the docket.

After the three statutory cases were dismissed Tuesday morning in Circuit court, the jury was dismissed, subject to call in September. The following were named as the new grand jury.

Arthur S. Draper, foreman, Chas. L. Nicoud, Della Fish, Eula P. Schram, Mary Wimer, Ralph Kring, Louis King.

John A. Staub

John A. Staub, brother of Mrs. W. W. Miller, of Leneve, died at Mercy Hospital at 11:30 last Friday morning. He had suffered from stomach trouble for some time and was operated on last week for the trouble, but complications prevented the operation from saving his life.

The body was taken to Santa Cruz, Calif., last Saturday, by Mr. Miller for interment. Mr. Staub had spent most of his life there, but had been here with his sister for the past two or three years. He was 50 years of age, unmarried and a member of the Old Fellows lodge. Besides Mrs. Miller, he leaves three sisters and two brothers, who reside in California.

B. P. W. Annual Meeting

The annual banquet and meeting of the Coquille Business & Professional Women's club was held in the hotel dining room Monday evening at 6:30 with about 30 in attendance.

The musical part of the program was furnished by Mrs. Delbert Oberheuffer and Mrs. J. P. Beyers. The former delightfully rendered two vocal solos, "Trees" and "A Brown Bird Singing." Mrs. Beyers' contributions were cello solos, "Tales of Hoffman" and "Uncommon." Both performers were heartily applauded for their splendid efforts.

Miss Clarabelle Mintonye thanked the club in a few sincere words for he aid they had given her during her college course.

Miss Geovieve Chase gave a good talk on "Mental Hygiene," which afforded her hearers much matter for thought.

Committee chairmen for the ensuing year were named by the president as follows:

Mary Druley, social committee.
Belle Gould, program committee.
Launee Miller, publicity.
Ruth Beyers, education.
Leona Bryant, finance.
